Men Who Took Part in Last Conference of Labor Leaders in Pittsburg, Visit New York, but Not With Propositions.

New York, Aug. 26.—No proposition looking to a settlement of the steel strike has been submitted today to the United States Steel corporation as a result of conferences at Pittsburg last week of members of the Amalgamated association, industrial commission, a Civic Federation and labor leaders.

Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the National Civic Federation of Labor, and Henry White, secretary of the United Garment Workers of America, arrived here today from Pittsburg. They said they had not been authorized to make any proposition looking towards a settlement of the United States Steel corporation strike.

While in Pittsburg they had a conference with President Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, but without tangible result.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, also arrived in the city today, coming from Buffalo en route to Washington. Mr. Gompers was in conference with Mr. Easley and Mr. White, but it was said the conference resulted in no plan of action. Mr. Easley said today:

"Mr. White and I did not go to Pittsburg to make any proposition to Mr. Shaffer, nor have we been authorized to make any proposition to the steel trust managers. We went there to get information, and, quite by chance, we met Professor Jenks, the trust expert of the industrial committee, and John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, and the four of us went to see President Shaffer. We merely wanted to be informed of the exact situation, and to see whether there was any opening for the good offices of our conciliation board. Mr. Mitchell, for his part, wanted information because he had been asked to call out 280,000 miners on a sympathetic strike, and was not willing to 'go it blind.' We had no proposition to make, and we did not seek authority to act for the Amalgamated association. We merely made it clear that we were at the service of both sides in an effort to reach a settlement."

"We are ready," Mr. Easley added, "to endeavor to bring the contending factors to an understanding, but we have made no offers to either side. Such an offer might do more harm than good."

Mr. Easley said in conclusion that he did not expect to see Messrs. Morgan or Schwab and that he was not trying to obtain a conference with them.

GIRL DETERMINED TO DIE

EMMA KAISER TRIES SUICIDE AT RICHMOND.

Attempted to Leap From Suspension Bridge at Cincinnati a Few Months Since.

Superintendent of Police Gorsline this morning received a letter from the superintendent of police at Richmond, informing him that a girl who gave her name as Anna Kaiser and her home as Fort Wayne, had attempted to committee suicide at that place on Saturday night. The Richmond official wanted to know what was to be done with her. The girl is the daughter of Carl Kaiser, a blacksmith in the Wabash shops, living on Woodlawn avenue, and her father says that she is demented. Some six months or more ago she attempted suicide at Cincinnati by jumping off the suspension bridge. She was unsuccessful in that attempt and soon after returned to Fort Wayne. She would not live at home, for some reason, and recently was employed as a domestic at 186 Hoagland avenue. About two weeks ago she left the city and nothing was heard of her until the above mentioned inquiry was received from the Richmond police department. Her father says he can not account for her strange conduct nor for her mania for suicide. He requested the authorities to make some arrangements to have an inquest held upon her at Richmond and if found insane to have her treated at the Richmond asylum. Correspondence with that course in view is now in progress.

WANT A CHANCE

PEOPLE OF COLOMBIA DO NOT LIKE THE GOVERNMENT.

NOR DO NEIGHBORING NATIONS

ITS CONSERVATIVE POLICIES IN BAD ODOR.

GRAVE FINANCIAL STRAITS

PAPER CURRENCY 2½ CENTS ON THE DOLLAR IN GOLD.

Colon, Colombia, Friday, Aug. 23. via Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 26.—The censorship here prevents the transmission of political news or news unfavorable to the government.

The revolt of the liberal Colombian rebels, now two years old, lately assumed a more serious aspect by the liberals' concentration on the isthmus. It is believed they are contemplating aggressive action. Consequently uneasiness prevails at Panama, the liberal objective, which was nearly captured a year ago.

It is not believed the rebels will molest the railroad or interrupt traffic. The recent rebel raids along the railroad amounted to bloodless raiding and the robbery of Chinese storekeepers, which the presence of a few government troops apparently stopped. There is a report that the government is bringing troops to protect the premises. This would be difficult without exposing to rebel attacks the points whence they are taken. The area of the revolt is extensive.

A noticeable distinguishing feature of the revolution is the actual and moral support the rebels are receiving from Venezuela, Ecquador and Nicaragua, in which countries liberal governments prevail.

CONSERVATISM UNPOPULAR.

Colombia's conservative government is not popular with the governments of the countries mentioned, but is popular with the revolutionary elements in the same countries.

The situation can be likened to a disrupted federation, composed of Venezuela, Ecquador, Columbia and Nicaragua, in which liberal and conservative partisans are helping each other and intriguing together; but, being separate nations, the political and armed intrigues threaten international trouble.

It is reported that the conservative revolt in Venezuela against President Castro is receiving actual support from the Colombian conservatives. Nicaragua's threatened revolution will probably be similarly aided on the occasion arising. These conditions give ground for the reports of actual or threatened international complications between the countries mentioned, in which the liberals are decidedly opposed to Colombia's conservative administration, whose prophesied downfall is accompanied by talk of a federation or consolidation of some or all of the countries mentioned, under the idea of a "Grande Colombia."

IN FINANCIAL STRAITS.

The Colombian government is in straits, financially. At present forty Colombian paper dollars are equivalent in value to one gold dollar. The government is printing paper money indiscriminately; lately established heavy export duties, payable in gold, and has sold monopolies and privileges of all kinds, all of which has greatly injured commerce.

The liberal revolutionary movement in Colombia is well supported throughout the country and it is generally believed that it will eventually succeed. If the liberals could win without too much bloodshed the foreigners on the isthmus would welcome their administration. Some decisive turn in the present state of affairs is wanted as being preferable to the present perturbations, but there is nothing to show that the liberals would govern the country any better than the present administration. The government has about 400 soldiers on the isthmus, while the whole army amounts to from 25,000 to 35,000 men.

The arrival of American warships is expected. The impression prevails locally that in case of trouble on the isthmus the United States will actively interfere.

PRIVATE BANK CLOSES.

Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 26.—The bank of New Metamoras, Washington county, a private institution, closed its doors today. It is said the bank had deposited $50,000 with the Superior Street Savings and Banking company, Cleveland, which closed last Friday.

NEGROES AND WHITES RIOT.

New York, Aug. 26.—South Camden, N. J., was the scene of trouble between negroes and whites last night. The affair might almost be termed a riot. A negro was arrested by the police and reports exaggerating the offense being spread, the white people in the neighborhood became excited. A mob formed and the houses of a number of negroes were entered, doors being broken in amid great confusion and much noise. Demands were made that all negroes should be driven from the place. The police were called out and the rioters were dispersed. A number of people on both sides were injured, but no fatalities are reported.

MAY BE MYSTERY IN RIVER

EARLY MORNING VISITOR HEARD A SPLASH

Then Found a Man's Hat Floating Upon the Water—Some Excitement Sunday Morning.

Some little excitement was occasioned Sunday morning by a discovery made along the St. Mary's river near Swinney park, and those acquainted with the circumstances are wondering if a mystery is not hidden beneath the murky waters of the stream.

Early Sunday morning a cyclist who had been out for a spin was approaching the bridge across the river which leads from the Nebraska district into Swinney park, and as he did so he heard a splash in the water north of the bridge. Reaching the structure nothing was to be seen save ripples which radiated from a point in the river just out from some piling which extended out from the shore.

Closer inspection revealed a man's black derby hat floating upon the water. It was scarcely dampened, showing that it must have been placed there but recently, but there was no other visible indication that a human being was near. The cyclist hurried over to the Hutzell drug store, on Main street, and told of the circumstance, and together with Mr. Hutzell returned to the stream. By this time the hat, which was a new one, had become soaked, and sank deeper in the water, soon disappearing entirely. Fishermen in a boat some distance away were appealed to, but maintained that they had seen nobody near the spot. The gentlemen conducted such investigation as as far as was possible in the belief that some man had thrown himself into the river, but found nothing. The case was not reported to the police.

FIND ANCIENT RELICS.

London, Aug. 26.—The overhauling to which the various royal palaces are being subjected, by order of King Edward, is leading to extraordinary discoveries. Garrets and cellars closed for over a century are being cleared and thrown open. Recently a magnificent portrait of Queen Carolina, by Lawrence, was found, along with some other paintings in a garret at Windsor Castle, and now an old Fourgon, or velvet-lined van of great size, filled with splendid silver and silver gilt plate has been found in a stable at St. James' palace, which has not been used for 150 years. The silver in question belonged to Queen Anne and was used by her when giving grand dinner parties at Kew, Hampton Court and other suburban palaces, to which the van was dispatched from St. James. The silver was black, and undoubtedly had been in the van since the time of the death of Queen Anne.

DRANK FATAL DOSE OF CREOSOTE

Frank Yankelavitch Found Dead at His Home on Summit Street---Coroner Thinks Suicide, Family Says Accident

A heavy dose of creosote, taken either with the idea of relieving toothache or with the intent to end his existence, was responsible for the death of Frank Yankelavitch at his home, 72 Summit street, about 10:30 o'clock this morning. The family say Yankelavitch has been using the drug to relieve pain from toothache and believe the affair was accidental. Coroner Barnett, who began an investigation this afternoon, is inclined to the opinion that the dose was taken with suicidal intent, and says the extent of the burns about the man's mouth make it certain that the dose was more than a mere application to an aching tooth.

Yankelavitch was a native of Russia, 39 years of age, with a wife and three children. He was formerly in the employ of the Bailer clothing store, but lately has been engaged as a fruit dealer. He went to Toledo yesterday on a pleasure trip, returned last evening and retired at midnight. This morning he seemed in usual health, and about the middle of the forenoon the wife and children went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bailer, on Washington street, for a brief visit, leaving Yankelavitch in the house alone.

MADE FRANTIC CRIES.

About 10 o'clock Mrs. Fox, a neighbor residing just west of the Yankelavitch home, saw the man come out at the rear door of his home. He motioned for her to come towards him, and then, called to her. Mrs. Fox did not go immediately, and in a few moments Yankelavitch appeared otuside the front door of his house, clutching his chest as though in great pain and crying out that there were persons in the house trying to kill him. Mrs. Fox then believed the man was demented and feared to enter the house, so she hurried over to Washington street and summoned Mrs. Bailer, the man's mother-in-law.

Together they entered the house. All was still, and lying upon the couch in the parlor was the lifeless form of the man who not more than fifteen minutes before had been standing out in the yard making the wildest gesticulations.

Bound about Yankelavitch's head was a bandage such as is sometimes used in cases of severe toothache, and upon the stand near him stood an ordinary whisky glass in which was perhaps half a drachm of creosote, the odor of which was strong in the room. The man's body was still warm, but the ladies were unable to awaken any sign of life from the prostrate man. They promptly summoned Dr.

AMERICAN DESERTER IS CAPTURED

Manila, Aug. 26.—Pitcher's first dispatch from Mindoro tells how Lieutenant Hazzard, of the Third cavalry, commanding a troop of Macabebee scouts, captured the American deserter, Howard, who, as a leader of the Filipinos, had been annoying the Americans for many months. Fergueson, one of Lieutenant Hazzard's civilian scouts, disguised as an insurgent, with eight Macabebees, penetrated into the camp of Colonel Atiense, commanding 240 riflemen and 200 bolomen, at night, located Howard, bound and gagged him and led him away without disturbing the camp.

In the province of Isabela the Philippine commission appointed Captain Johnson, of the Sixteenth infantry, governor, and Capt. George Povey treasurer.

In the city of Manila there are now less than 1,000 effective soldiers, and it has been decided to increase this number by four companies of infantry. The official reason for the increase is that the guard duty is too heavy for the present force. As a matter of fact, however, there is a feeling that, although there is no apparent prospect of trouble, nevertheless in the event of an uprising in the future such as is always possible among the Malays, it would be better to have a sufficient body of troops available.

General Chaffee says he considers the city of Manila to be perfectly orderly and he can see no prospect for an uprising.

CARDINAL GIBBONS AT HOME

RETURNS FROM LONG ABSENCE IN EUROPE.

A Remarkable Reception Given to the Honored Prince of the Church by Hosts of Friends.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 26.—Cardinal Gibbons reached home this afternoon after a tour of Europe and was received with open arms by his friends and parishioners. He came on a train which arrived at the union station shortly after 3 o'clock, accompanied by a party of clergymen and laymen who had met him in New York. When he alighted he was greeted by a crowd of at least 10,000 people, headed by Acting Mayor Henry Williams and Charles J. Bonaparte. Both of these gentlemen made addresses of welcome, to which the cardinal responded feelingly, after which they entered carriages and were driven to the cathedral at the head of the procession, which included all the prominent Catholic societies of the city, priests from the vicinity of Baltimore and Washington and many of the non-secular friends and admirers of his eminence. The cardinal dismounted from his carriage and reviewed the procession from the steps of the Catholic club, opposite his residence, after which he addressed a congregation that filled the venerable cathedral to the doors.

FOUR MINERS KILLED.

Bloomington, Ill., Aug. 26.—Four miners were instantly killed today at a mine in Chena this county by the snapping of the cables supporting the cage. The men fell 247 feet. The dead: Barretto Buiseppe, Bobino Bria, Bonino Baltima, Thomas Jones.

FRANK GROSH, OF CINCINNATI, HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

He Was Rescued by Mike Lordier—Had Been Racing and Boats Upset in Collision.

Frank Grosh, of Cincinnati, twenty-five years of age, who, with other friends, has been visiting in the city, escaped death in the St. Joe river by the narrowest sort of margin Sunday afternoon, and but for the prompt and heroic efforts of Mike Lordier there would have been a tragic ending to the affair.

Mr. Grosh, with three friends, was boating upon the St. Joe Sunday afternoon at a point two miles above Robison park. Two of the young men were in one boat, while each of the other two had a boat to himself. In a spirit of fun they began to race and the craft were close together when an oar broke, sending one of the boats crashing into the boat occupied by Grosh.

The accident occurred directly opposite the camp of the Snap club, where the water is fully twenty-five feet in depth. In an instant both boats were overturned and three of the young men were floundering about in the water. Two of them could swim fairly well, but Grosh was helpless and was sinking rapidly when Mike Lordier, who was standing upon the club boat landing, saw his predicament and dashed boldly into the water after the young man. Grosh was dragged out after much difficulty and it was some time before he revived sufficiently to be placed in a boat and taken down to the park, where he boarded an electric car for the city. He is still suffering today from the effects of the accident, and Mr. Lordier admits that the work of rescuing the struggling young man was one of the most difficult feats he ever tackled. For a time he feared for his own safety.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR AT LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 26.—Trains bearing Knights Templar and their ladies arrived in great numbers today and by evening the city will be crowded with visitors. The streets were filled with marching detachments and the air fairly trembled from the music of bands which escorted the various commanderies to their headquarters.

Scarcely a building was without its streamers or a gorgeous dress of bunting. Even shop windows were trimmed in Masonic emblems and street fakirs, not to be outdone, painted Maltese crosses on the toy balloons they hawked about.

At local headquarters the opinion was expressed that the conclave, which will begin tomorrow, will prove the most notable ever held.

Among the commanderies which arrived during the morning were Connecticut, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia (accompanied by the famous Marine band), West Virginia, New York, Ohio and Georgia. The Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio delegations are numerically the strongest represented.

Today was occupied with informal reunions and the escorting of commanderies to their homes. The festivities of the conclave will begin at 8 p. m., when the grand commandery of Kentucky and the subordinate commanderies of the state will give a reception to officers and members of the grand encampment at the custom house.

Grand Master Reuben H. Lloyd, of California, and Deputy Grand Master Henry Bates Stoddard, of Texas, were given an impromptu reception during the forenoon because of the accepted slate, which makes Stoddard successor to Lloyd as grand master of the grand encampment.

Governors Yates, of Illinois, and Durbin, of Indiana, have arrived with the detachments from their states.

PREACHER HINSHAW OUT ON PAROLE

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 26.—William E. Hinshaw, serving a life sentence for the murder of his wife at Belleville, has been released from state prison on a ten days' parole issued by Governor Durbin to visit his parents, who are reported fatally ill at their home near Winchester. Hinshaw formerly was a preacher, and always has protested his innocence.

COLUMBIA IN DRY DOCK.

New York, Aug. 26.—The former cup defender, the Columbia, was placed in dry dock in Brooklyn today for cleaning and examination preparatory to taking part next Saturday off Newport, in the first of the official trials to select a defender to meet the Shamrock. She will probably be taken to Newport next Wednesday.

FATAL SUNDAY AFFRAY.

Seneca Falls, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Justin Apple and George Smelzer, of Geneva, and James Colgan and Edward Relfe, of this village, became involved in a quarrel at Bull's grove yesterday. Several hours later, while on the way from the park to take the trolley car, the men met again and resumed the quarrel, during which Apple and Smelzer were both stabbed with a large pocket knife. Apple died this morning and Smelzer is not expected to live. Relfe and Colgan were arrested, together with two colored women and two white men, who are held as witnesses. One of the latter, it is claimed, saw the blows struck.

DAMAGE BY A STORM.

Centralia, Ill., Aug. 26.—A heavy wind storm, followed by a cloudburst, today wrecked the colored Baptist church and destroyed many peach orchards. Fifteen thousand bushels of peaches were knocked off the trees. Electric light and trolley systems were disabled.

TRIES ANOTHER BLUFF ON TURKEY

French Ambassador, Wearied by Procrastination of the Sultan in Claims Cases, Packs Up and Leaves Constantinople.

Constantinople, Aug. 26.—M. Constans, the French ambassador, after making farewell calls on his colleagues yesterday, left here today on board the Vautour for Stamoul, where he will take the train.

The amount of the indemnity which the sultan agrees to pay the Quays company for interference with its rights is 700,000 francs. The sultan will also pay 600,000 francs to a Franchman on account of the seizing of his lands in Albania. The Quays company renounces for a year the clause in its concession regarding the transfer of the quays to Turkey only, it is believed to save appearances for the sultan.

MAKING A BLUFF.

Paris, Aug. 26.—Sultan Abdul Hamid's persistence in procrastinating methods continues to disturb the Turkish relatives in France. His irade giving satisfaction in the quays question was taken as indicating that he would accept the entire French claims, but M. Constans telegraphed yesterday that the sultan was still holding out against the payment of the claims of three Frenchman dating back many years and amounting to several million francs, for which M Constans demanded a settlement and declared he would leave Constantinople today unless the matter was settled.

This action, however, will only be manifestation of dissatisfaction, and not a rupture of relations, as the counselor of the French embassy will take over the affairs of the embassy and continue the negotiations. M.

BOER LEADERS SEND A DEFIANCE

Steyn, DeWet and Botha Tell Kitchener They Mean to Keep on Fighting---A British Detachment is Captured.

London, Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated from Pretoria today, says: "Three officers and sixty-five men, who were sent north of Ladybrand (Orange River Colony) on the right of Elliott's columns, were surrounded on unfavorable ground and captured by a superior force August 22. One man was killed and four were wounded. The prisoners were released. Am holding an inquiry.

"Have received a long letter from Steyn containing an argumentative statement of the Boer case and saying he will continue to fight; also a short letter from DeWet to the same effect.

"Botha writes acknowledging the receipt of my proclamation and protesting against it, and stating that the Boers intend to go on fighting. On the other hand, the surrenders lately have increased considerably."

LESSON THAT WAS NEEDED.

A Philadelphia railroad contractor who has recently returned from abroad tells of an experience that befell him in Munich illustrative of the difference in prevailing customs, says the Chicago Chronicle. Armed with a number of letters of introduction to European railroad officials, he made it a point to inquire into the workings of the various systems and was treated with uniform courtesy. At Munich he thought he had acquired all the information he was after, and as he passed out of the office of the man with whom he had been talking he put on his hat.

He had scarcely been ushered out when it occurred to him that there was one matter about which he had forgotten to inquire. "I immediately retraced my steps," said the Philadelphian, "and again entered the office, neglecting to remove my hat. I saw the same official with whom I had been talking, and apologizing for taking so much of his time, I put the question to him. Without a word he reached up, took off my hat and placed it in my hand. Then he answered my query and bowed me out. It made me feel rather cheap."

HE WAS ROASTED

TENNESSEE MOB PUTS NEGRO TO THE STAKE.

WITNESSED BY THOUSANDS

IT WAS SUNDAY AND EVERYBODY COULD ATTEND.

VICTIM DIED LIKE A STOIC

HIS CRIME WAS FIENDISH TO LAST DEGREE.

Winchester, Tenn., Aug. 26.—Another negro has paid the penalty of his crime by death at the stake.

Twelve miles from this city a mob of 6,000 people saw Henry Noles, who last Friday assaulted and murdered the wife of Charles Williams, a farmer, burned to death and in all that multitude there was not a man or woman to raise a voice in behalf of the doomed wretch.

From miles around they had gathered near the scene of the crime and the unanimous verdict was death by fire. Hundreds of farmers had brought their wives and children to see the horrible punishment meted out to the guilty man. Determination was written upon every face and there was no sign of pity. The crime had been the worst possible for a man to commit and the punishment should be proportioned to it.

CROWD SURROUNDS THE JAIL.

Noles was captured early yesterday morning near Cowan. He was brought to Winchester by his captors and placed in the county jail. Sheriff Stewart made haste to try to barricade the jail and protect the prisoner.

Soon an angry mob of several hundred men gathered. Assistant Attorney General Matt N. Whittaker made a speech to the crowd, appealing to the members to assist him in allaying excitement and upholding the majesty of the law. He promised to reconvene the grand jury today to indict the negro and have him speedily tried at the present term of court, assuring the crowd that his conviction and legal execution was a foregone conclusion. This appeal was supplemented by others from Judge J. J. Lynch, Capt. W. P. Talley, Jesse H. Littleton, Foster Ramsey and others.

TAKE PRISONER FROM SHERIFF.

All this time citizens from the neighborhood where the crime was committed had been arriving and augmented the crowd to thousands. They swept forward upon the jail, overpowered the sheriff and his deputies, took the prisoner and started for the scene of the crime, twelve miles distant, at 10:15 a. m.

The mob was orderly, but determined. It seemed that the whole population for miles around had turned out to see the fate of the wretch. A procession three miles in length followed the mob to the Williams home. Arriving at a point in sight of the scene of the crime, the negro was placed upon a stump and given a chance to make a statement.

LAUGHS AS HE FACES HIS FATE.

Hhe mounted the stump stolidly and laughed as he began his statement. He said: "Tell all my sisters and brothers to meet me in glory. I am going to make that my home. Tell my mother to meet me where parting will be no more."

He was then asked whether anyone else was implicated in the crime. Noles stated emphatically that there was no one implicated but himself.

"Why did you kill Mrs. Williams?" was asked.

"I just done that because I had nothing else to do."

He finished his statement at 1:35 p. m. He was taken from the stump, carried to a tree near by, bound to the tree by chains and his body saturated with oil.

DIES IN THE FLAMES.

At 1:40 p. m. a match was applied and instantly the quivering body was enveloped in flames. Fence rails were piled about the burning body and soon life was extinct. The negro made no outcry at any time and died as stolidly as a stoic.

There were no disorderly scenes about the burning body. Many people remained until nightfall adding to the fire until the body was entirely consumed.

HUSBAND LEARNS OF CRIME.

Lying on the floor of the family room, her face splashed with clotted blood, and the oaken planks stained with the same drops, Charles Williams found his devoted young wife Friday afternoon when he returned from marketing his wheat in the little town of Maxwell. A bullet had gone through her head, life was completely extinct and her two little children were crying aloud their grief and fear. The oldest boy, aged five, told what had occurred. The young mother had been shot and killed by Henry Noles, a negro hand upon Williams' place. As the mortally wounded woman sank to the floor Noles shot at the boy, the bullet grazing the child's head. Then he fled to the woods. Williams' neighbors were stirred to the pitch of exacting merciless and summary justice. On receipt of news of the crime Sheriff Stewart departed for the scene with bloodhounds. A posse of determined citizens, well armed and provided with a rope, was also on Noles' trail.

Mr. Williams is a farmer, well to do and one of the most prominent residents of his section of Franklin county. The dead woman was a member of one of the oldest families in the county. The two children were the only witnesses of the crime.

THE DEATHS AND FUNERALS

HILKER.

Florence Hilker, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hilker, of Summit street, died Sunday morning from cholera infantum at the age of six months.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday moring at 8:30 from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Rank.—Funeral services of Mrs. Mary Rank, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence and at 2 o'clock from St. Joe chapel. Rev. Norris and Rev. Rehl will officiate.

IN THE JUSTICES' COURTS.

James W. DeLong has been arrested on a charge of trespass, preferred by Winfield Ludwick. Both the parties live in Eel River township and the hearing will be in Tancey's court.

In the case of Harry Eiter, the Western Union messenger boy, against Dora Hardendorf, for running him down with horse and buggy, the defendant failed to appear in Tancey's court this morning to answer to the charge according to agreement. At Hardendorf's request the case was continued until this morning and he was allowed to go without bail. He failed to show up and could not be found. The justice now proposes to find him with an attachment if possible.

Tenneson, the Garrett undertaker fined in France's court on Saturday for failure to observe the health laws regarding burial permits, has filed notice of his appeal from the decision of the lower court.

RYAN-DARBY.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. H. J. Norris, pastor of the Berry street M. E. church, united in marriage Miss Ida B. Darby and Frank B. Ryan, both of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan left this afternoon for Hartford City, where they will make their home.

ALLEN COUNTY CENTENNARIAN IS NO MORE.

MRS. RANK PASSES AWAY

END CAME SUNDAY EVENING AT THE OLD HOME.

HERS A REMARKABLE LIFE

WAS WIDELY KNOWN AMONG THE OLD PIONEERS.

In a primitive log cabin in St. Joe township, a few miles north of Fort Wayne, where she has resided for half a century, Mrs. Mary Rank died Sunday evening at the remarkable age of more than 100 years. Mrs. Rank became a centenarian in August last, and had she lived until Thursday of the present week she would have completed here 101st year.

For fifty years Mrs. Rank has resided upon the little farm where her life closed Sunday evening. It is on the St. Joe road, about one-fourth of a mile north of Riverview stock farm. A narrow lane running back from the main highway leads to the house, which is sheltered behind a strip of woods and is barely visible from the main traveled road. Here the aged woman had lived, under the faithful care of her daughter, Miss Tamer Rank. Children who enjoyed more pretentious homes would have gladly shared them with the aged mother, but she preferred to remain at the old homestead, erected years ago by her husband, and surrounded by tender memories of the past.

Though possessed of a remarkable vitality, Mrs. Rank has for some years been greatly enfeebled and subject to occasional attacks of weakness. Little more than a year ago, while walking in her garden, she was overcome by vertigo, occasioned by the heat, and fell, inflicting an injury upon her head that confined her to her bed for several weeks. She recovered, however, and a year ago the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of her birth was a memorable occasion. Recently the pioneer woman has grown more feeble. Day by day the feeble spark of life grew fainter, and Sunday morning it became apparent that the end was near. Other relatives were summoned, and at 7 o'clock last evening the pioneer woman peacefully closed her eyes in death.

BORN IN ENGLAND.

Mrs. Rank was born on Bamby Common, between York and Puckington, England, August 29, 1800, her maiden name being Newsome. She was married November 26, 1826, to James Rank, and they were the parents of thirteen children. Ten were born in England and three in America, and ten of them lived to the age of maturity. In 1844 the family removed to America, living for seven years in New York state. They came to Allen county in 1851, settling upon the farm where Mrs. Rank lived until her death, and the log cabin in which her closing years were spent was the identical structure erected by her husband after clearing the tract of land half a century ago. The husband and father died in 1877, after having been an invalid for twenty-five years. Most of the children had also preceded the mother to the grave. James and William were sailors. The former died at sea and the latter bade his mother good-bye one day and sailed from port, strong in the flush of young manhood, never to return. His ship was never heard of again. The eldest child, Anna, now Mrs. Broom, who was born in 1827, lives in Kansas. Newsome, born in 1828, lives in Nebraska. Eli, now seventy-two, lives in Fort Wayne. George, now living in Michigan, was born in 1834; Ezra in 1844, Joab in 1846, Richard in 1835. Two sons named Christopher and a daughter, Mary, are dead. Miss Tamer, the youngest of the children, lived with her mother, having devoted her whole life to the care of her parents.

The grandchildren are Mrs. Michael Wambach, of this city, who has three daughters who called Mrs. Rank great-grandmother; George Rank, who has three children; Mrs. Maggie Stoddard, of Michigan, who has two children; Mrs. Irene Laisure, of Fort Wayne, who has one child; Mrs. Ida Castel, of Nebraska, who has one child; Mrs. Anna Payne, of Fort Wayne, who is the mother of two children; Newsome Broom, of Nebraska, who has two children, and James Broom, of Kansas, who also has two children who called the centenarian great-grandmother.

Four of Mrs. Rank's sons were soldiers in the union army during the civil war, and a grandson has been serving in the Philippines.

A STURDY CHARACTER.

Mrs. Rank belonged to that sturdy, courageous type of pioneer that came into a new country, endured its hardships and braved its dangers in order that a home might be builded and that her children might have the highest advantages. Hers was a lofty Christian character, and in the pioneer days when churches were few in number and far between it is remembered that her faith never wavered. In the cabins of the early settlers she gathered the pioneers for worship, and often led those prayer services herself. Every old settler knew and esteemed her.

During the past decade, enfeebled alike of body and of mind, she has patiently awaited the end, and it has been necessary for friends to keep a close watch over her. On two occasions a couple of years ago she eluded their notice and walked to Fort Wayne, greatly alarming her friends, though she apparently suffered no discomforts from the fatigue. Her memory ran back into the early part of the last century, and it was her delight when in a reminiscent mood to tell of the excitement following the battle of Waterloo, fought in 1815, when she was but a little girl. Snatches of old songs of the period were also recalled, and a conversation would bring forth a wealth of forgotten historical lore of days long since departed. Hers was indeed a remarkable life—an exceptional figure that stands conspicuous among the types of pioneer days—a life full, rounded and complete.

HE WILL BOARD AT THE JAIL

DENNIS HOULIHAN GIVEN A STIFF SENTENCE.

Fined $300 and Sent to Jail for Six Months for Larceny—His Record a Bad One.

Dennis Houlihan's troubles culminated this morning at police court when Judge Louttit sentenced him to the county jail for six months and assessed a fine against him of $300. The jail sentence is a cinch and unless he pays his fine he will be Sheriff Stout's guest for 495 days, which will let him out just a little too late for the watch night services on New Year's eve, 1903. In pronouncing the sentence the judge said that although the provocation was a grievous one he would not inflict the extreme penalty, as he might have made the fine $500 and the imprisonment a year. Mr. Houlihan did not kick at having his dose cut pretty nearly in half. Houlihan was arrested on Saturday for attempting to "flim flam" a man out of a twenty-dollar bill. The man was drunk and was buying drinks, and in course of his purchases he threw a roll of bills down on the bar at the corner of Lewis and Calhoun streets. Houlihan told him he had too much money in sight to settle for the drinks, and picked up the roll to hand it back to him. During the handing process he managed to slip off a twenty-dollar bill, which the bar tender detected him in doing and forced him to give back. Houlihan was arrested for intoxication and after the evidence was collected the charge was changed to larceny, on which he was fined and sentenced. It developed during the trial that Houlihan has a record back of him that would do justice to any professional crook. Superintendent Gorsline sprung the record in court, and it showed that Houlihan and Jack Cain had been in frequent trouble at Cleveland, where they were arrested frequently for violations of the law, but generally escaped punishment. They, however, both served jail and workhouse sentences and were regarded by the Cleveland police as a bad lot. Cain is wanted at Zanesville, Ohio.

John Martin, a fake jewelry peddler arrested with Houlihan, but not shown to have been interested with him, was sent over for fifteen days for vagrancy. He made no kick and appeared to be glad to have got off so easily after he had heard Houlihan's title read.

William Jones, a colored vagrant, arrested on Walton avenue, was sent over to the Stout hotel for a period of fifteen days.

POLICE NOTES.

Fred Dorsey got a fighting package stowed away in his cargo last Saturday night and undertook to clean out the boarding house at No. 30 Lafayette street, where he was wont to fodder. Mr. Dorsey was run in and this morning was given fifteen days in the county jail.

Someone broke into the east end car barn a night or two ago and stole a lot of copper and brass material, new and old, used in trimming cars. The officers are watching the junk shops. Several months ago a similar raid on the barns was made, but the thieves were caught and punished.

The patrol wagon was given a false run out on Superior street last night, where it was reported a man had been hurt in a runaway accident. No runaway was seen or heard of by anyone in the vicinity.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A TRAIN.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A special to the Post-Express from Caledonia says an unsuccessful attempt was made last evening near that place to wreck the second section of west-bound Lehigh express train No. 7, scheduled to arrive there at 8:08. Two fish-plates were wedged between the guard rails and the rails of the west-bound track, and behind these were placed several heavy ties so as to make obstruction more complete. A few minutes before the train with about 400 passengers was due a track hand discovered the obstacles and succeeded in removing them in the nick of time. The embankment at the obstruction is about thirty-five feet high

DRANK FATAL DOSE OF CREOSOTE.

Rosenthal, who arrived quickly, but he found that life had been extinct for some time, and it is probable that death ensued shortly after the man re-entered the house after calling frantically to his neighbor.

Members of the family say the man had been suffering from toothache and that he had used creosote as a remedy, and they believe the man simply took too large a dose by accident. Dr. Barnett says there is no outside indication by which the size of the dose can be determined, though the glass from which it was taken would hold perhaps an ounce and one-half. The mouth is extensively burned by the fiery drug and the tongue is perfectly dry, indicating to the coroner that the dose must have been quite a heavy one, and that the drug was probably not diluted.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE

Sheriff Bray, of Hamilton county, Ind., was in the city Saturday to deliver a feeble-minded patient to the state institution.

Deputy Sheriff Eicks spent Sunday out of the city and his colleagues and associate are satisfied that the final arrangements have been made. So far as known the date has not yet been set, however.

The September term of the circuit court will commence next Monday morning.

Harvey Hartle has commenced divorce proceedings against Lola Hartle. Abandonment is charged.

Charles Vogt, jr., et al., have commenced proceedings against George Tigges et al. on note and account; demand, $800.

This is the last day of the superior court. The net term will begin on the second Monday in September, being the 9th.

In the case of Wishart vs. Fairfield, on trial several days in the superior court, the court today found for the plaintiff on the petition to quiet title and rendered a special finding as to the facts and the law. The case will be appealed.

In the case of Grace Tegtmeyer vs. Henry W. Tegtmeyer for divorce, in which a decree was entered some weeks ago, a judgment for costs was today rendered against the defendant.

The Smith-Nixon Piano company has commenced replevin proceedings against Victoria Calderwell; demand, $100.

THEY DRENCHED HIM.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 26.—Because Thomas Oldecker, a non-union workman in the Crescent Tin Plate mill, deserted twenty-five of his non-union comrades, who still remain at work today, they turned a water hose on him, drenching him thoroughly. District Vice President Ward, of the Amalgamated association, called the attention of the mill officials to the action of their men and told them that if there was a repetition of such acts the union men would resent it. Oldecker has been working but a few days.

GIRL CLIMBS TALL STEEPLE.

Ashland, Mass., Aug. 24.—Miss Jessie Foote, of this city, climbed the steeple of the Methodist church yesterday, a distance of 135 feet, and after calmly viewing her surroundings descended to the ground to receive the congratulations of a few friends who witnessed the feat. For several days steeple painters had been at work on the church steeple and a string of ladders was lashed to one side of the structure clear to the top. Up this frail and treacherous stairway Miss Foote ascended, patted the top notch of the steeple three times with her right hand while standing there and then came down. She was cool and calm when she reached the ground.

SPIRIT WRITING ON SLATES.

Spiritualistic slate writing, if cleverly done, always makes a marked impression on the magician's audience, because it utterly baffles their efforts to detect the trick. They see a small cabinet suspended above the stage by means of cords or ribbons. It has an open front and is empty. The magician turns it around so that every part of it may be seen and taps it inside and out with his wand to show that it is hollow.

On a stand near by he has a small easel, a common school slate, a bottle of India ink, with a quill pen in it, and a few sheets of ordinary white writing paper. All these he passes around among the audience for examination. Then he fixes a sheet of the paper to the slate by means of wafers, places the slate on the easel and the easel in the cabinet, together with the bottle of ink, the latter having the pen still in it.

Having allowed the audience to see the articles thus arranged in the cabinet, he throws a large silk handkerchief over it. Mysterious sounds are immediately heard and the cabinet shakes as if some living thing had entered it. When the sounds and the shaking cease, he removes the handkerchief, showing an inscription written in bold black letters on the paper, and the pen not in the ink bottle, but lying on the bottom of the cabinet. He then removes the paper from the slate and passes it around for examination, when the writing is immediately recognized as having been done with India ink.

The explanation of the trick is simple. The writing was done in advance by the performer, the fluid used being a solution of sulphuric acid of the purest quality. To make the solution fifty drops of the concentrated acid are added to one ounce of filtered water. Writing done with this solution is invisible until exposed to heat; when so exposed it comes out perfectly black, looking like dried India ink.

The heat is applied by means of an electric current running over a wire with which the slate is wound. The cords by which the cabinet is suspended conceal copper wires, which conduct the current to the slate. Black silk threads, suitably attached, enable the performer to make the sounds in the cabinet, to cause the cabinet to shake and to jerk the pen out of the ink bottle.

Several sheets of paper are prepared in advance, each with a different inscription, the performer telling one inscription from another by secretly marked pin pricks.

LAWYERS SIGHTSEEING.

Denver, Col., Aug. 24.—About 400 members of the American Bar association, relatives and friends, left Denver today in a special train to visit points of interest in the mountains. The meeting of the association here was attended by 311 members, and was the largest meeting the association ever held. New members to the number of 227 were taken in at this meeting, making a total membership of 1,802, representing thirty-nine states. Next year's meeting will be held at Saratoga, August 27, 28 and 29.

BANANAS.

Scarcity of domestic grown fruits caused another record in the importation of bananas to be broken, when three vessels, all laden with the tempting fruit of the West Indies, came up the Delaware almost abreast, bound for Pier 5, North Wharves.

One of the three was the Russian steamboat Urania, with 16,300 bunches of bananas stowed away in her hold, and the others were the Norwegian steamships Spero and Leon, the former carrying 12,000 bunches and the latter 14,000 bunches, a grand total for the three ships of 42,300 bunches. Averaged at sixty bananas to each bunch, this means that 2,638,000 bananas were unloaded altogether, or nearly two for each resident of Philadelphia.

So great was the inward rush of the fruit that one of the ships, the Spero, was unable to find dock room, and her cargo was brought to shore in lighters, while the Spero lay at anchor in the middle of the Delaware off Pier 5. This is one of the rarest of happenings in this port, and the proceedings were watched with interest by a big crowd of spectators. The unprecedented demand for men to unload the bananas, work which the importers find it pays to do with especial quickness while the big consumption of the fruit is on, naturally sent longshoremen's wages skyward, and the pockets of many of them were jingling with coin at the end of the day.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Robison Park Theater—Vaudeville.

Kansas republicans are loud for Roosevelt for the presidency in 1904, but even the careful listener cannot yet hear anything from the east that sounds like an echo.

At least there is the chance that the dowager empress of China will some time die and thus open the way for a settlement of the questions that have been keeping the choicest diplomats of the world's greatest powers working overtime for six months.

After a critical examination of Judge Baker's injunction against the Conkey strikers at Hammond we make the sensational discovery that the judge has neglected to enjoin the strikers not to think of Conkey's printing plant, or of the strike or of anything thereunto pertaining.

We have no doubt that those people in Tennessee who gathered by thousands to see a negro burned at the stake will, when they come to think it over, conclude that as a Sunday diversion it was pressing the limit mighty close to the improprieties. However, as the victim did not appear to mind it, it may be supposed the spectators think themselves excused.

At latest accounts the Chinese plenipotentiaries had not yet received authority to sign the peace protocol, and there is some uneasiness among the foreign diplomats at Pekin in consequence. Li Hung Chang, who has conducted the negotiations on the part of China, is bitterly assailed by the entire native press, and denounced as a traitor to his country for surrendering to the "foreign devils." It is probable that this sentiment may account for the hesitation of the court to give its sanction to the protocol; but it is hardly thought likely that the Chinese government would dare defy the civilized world by a refusal to accept the settlement proposed and, in fact, dictated by the allied powers.

It is getting to be a very common thing for nations having affairs to settle with Turkey and bills to collect of the sultan to proceed with a show of force. The United States succeeded in this way and France has just profited by our salutary example. But Abdul Hamid will sooner or later conceive that he is being bluffed out of the game and then—well, he will probably want to "see" the hand held against him. If it comes to that somebody else than the sultan will have to back down or assume responsibility for trouble that European powers do not just now want developed.

Captain Forsyth, of the navy, in command of the naval station at Key West during the Spanish war and later in command of the battleship Indiana, contributes an opinion to the Sampson-Schley controversy. He agrees with Admiral Schley that the victory over Cervera's fleet furnished "glory enough for all," and then goes on to say that the bad feeling in the navy is due to the promotion of a junior officer to command over his seniors. That doubtless is true, so far as it goes. But it does not account for the treatment that has been accorded to Admiral Schley since the naval victory at Santiago. If Sampson had not failed altogether of participation in the battle there would have been a different story to write, no doubt. To permit the man who was jumped over nearly two score of his seniors in order to give him a supreme command to share in the honors of victory and receive a chief's share of the prize money it has been conceived that the officer who actually did command in the battle must be undone. Admiral Sampson's failure at the proper time to show himself a broad-minded and generous officer and gentleman has cost him any popularity he once had and all that he might have had. It doubtless is wrong, however, to put upon Admiral Sampson all the blame. He appears to have been in considerable degree the victim of friends in the navy department.

SOLDIER BOY DIES OF FEVER

EUGENE A. MILLER EXPIRES IN PHILLIPINES.

Allen County Boy Was a Private in the Sixth Infantry—Is Buried at Iloilo.

Word has just been received of the death of Eugene A. Miller, an Allen county boy serving as a private in company M, Sixth infantry, which occurred in the military hospital at Iloilo, P. I., from typhoid fever, July 16. The information comes to friends from C. R. Darnall, first lieutenant and assistant surgeon commanding the hospital.

Mr. Miller was twenty-three years of age and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Miller, of New Haven. The father is the town marshal, at that place. The young man was formerly manager of the Fort Wayne branch of the Hartzell Ice Cream company and was widely known, not only in New Haven, but in this city also. He had many friends, who will be sorely pained to learn of his death.

Private Miller enlisted in Fort Wayne in April, 1899, and he had a brother, Will Miller, in the Nineteenth infantry. The latter was formerly a member of the Twenty-eight battery. The sad news today was the first intimation the parents had even of their son's illness. They had heard nothing from him for more than two months. The remains of the young soldier have been interred in the English cemetery at Iloilo, in grave No. 124. Friends will later make an effort to have the remains shipped to New Haven.

LOOK FOR 100,000 VISITORS

A FARMER'S TRAGIC DEATH

DEKALB COUNTY MAN TAKES CARBOLIC ACID.

Indianapolis, Aug. 26.—Preparations for the seventy-seventh annual convention of the Odd Fellows' sovereign grand lodge, in this city, beginning three weeks from today, are practically finished. The committees are counting on an attendance of 100,000, including visitors and delegates. Every state in the union is to be represented.

Other visitors will come from Canada, Nova Scotia, Mexico and Europe.

The Patriarch's Militant, the military branch of the order, will be in camp at the state fair grounds and appear in daily drills and parades.

RIOT IN A PUBLIC PARK.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 26.—Another riot broke out last evening in a crowd of 5,000 people at Fairview park. Four negroes were badly injured and one named Harris had his right arm broken. The trouble was caused by the gang of white toughs from the west side known as the Bungaloos." Members of this gang to the number of 150 congregated at the park and began a determined effort to drive all the negroes out.

Near the boat house a dozen of them attacked a negro with his wife. He was knocked down several times. With a club he fought back, injuring two of the gang, but he was compelled to run toward the pavilion, where park officers came to his rescue. The fight was continued to the car and after the negro and his wife were on the car stones were thrown, injuring his wife.

Harris was attacked in another part of the park about the same time and his right arm was broken before he was rescued. Two other negroes, one with his wife, were badly beaten. Twelve police were sent from the city to quell the riot and their arrival stopped the trouble. Four members of the gang were arrested, the others scattering in the woods. In a similar riot several weeks ago six shots were fired and one white man was badly injured by a bullet.

TRAIN STRIKES STREET CAR.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 26.—Fourteen persons were more or less injured in a collision between a Greenfield avenue interurban car and a train on the Belt railroad yesterday morning.

The conductor motioned the motorman to come ahead at the Belt crossing. The freight engine with a dozen cars was approaching, and as the electric car reached the center of the track the freight cars struck it and threw it to the side of the track. The electric car was new and of heavy construction. It withstood the impact and was not crushed, otherwise the death list would have been heavy. The motorman and conductor were thrown to the ground and badly injured. They were taken to their homes. There were twelve passengers on the car, nearly all from Greenfield, coming to this city to take the Cincinnati excursion.

ROW ABOUT A DEAD BODY.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 26.—The remains brought here by Mrs. George William Schmitt Saturday are those of a cripple who died in the City hospital at St. Louis. This was the result of a mistake by the authorities at the hospital, who sent the casket containing the cripple instead of the one containing her husband's body. Mrs. Schmitt refuses to pay the expenses of shipping the body to St. Louis and the authorities there do not show any disposition to pay the charges. The undertaker says he will not hold the body unless his pay is guaranteed. The city authorities say they will not touch the body, as St. Louis should have it shipped back there, and that unless that city does so Evansville can bring suit against the city in the United States court.

HELD FOR SHOOTING SPOUSE.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 26.—Frances B. Frye, the Chicago woman who shot and probably fatally wounded Thos. J. Frye, of this city, Thursday night, was taken into custody at the Holy Family hospital yesterday by Sheriff Small. Mrs. Frye had been at the hospital since the night of the shooting, a constant attendant at the bedside of the man whose life she sought to take while laboring under the belief that he was not true to her. She will be held in custody pending the result of the wound received by Frye. The latter's condition, while somewhat improved, is still extremely critical. He refuses to make any statement which will incriminate Mrs. Frye. She is believed to have fired the shot while suffering from temporary aberration.

OSSIFIED MAN IS DOOMED.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 26.—The remarkable malady of Eli Green, who has returned to his home at North Judson after receiving treatment from medical experts, has been pronounced incurable. Green is going through the process of ossification. His upper body is rapidly turning to stone. The upper part of his stomach is as hard as rock, as also is the upper part of his arms ad limbs. A knife can be run into his body at places without his feeling it. He has been baked in ovens heated at 120 degrees, but with little improvement. His heart is being gradually incrusted with a stony formation which soner or later will stop its action. He no longer perspires and his weight is steadily increasing.

The extraordinary conditions in Green's case began to develop about a year ago. The progress of ossification was then slow. Physicians say that when life has been literally crushed out of the human frame Green's body will literally be a stone corpse. The medical experts who have examined Green say there is only one parallel case in medical annals and that was recently reported from Austria. The conditions which contribute to the phenomena of Green's case are an enigma to the medical fraternity.

SERIOUSLY HURT IN WRECK.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 26.—Seventeen cars of a westbound Lake Shore freight train were piled up in a wreck at 3 o'clock yesterday morning at Burdick, a station fifteen miles west of this city. The air brakes failed to operate and the train was cut into two sections, which collided with terrific force, piling up an immense amount of wreckage. J. C. Teeter, of Garrett, received serious injuries. He was taking a car of cattle to Chicago and was pinioned in one of the wrecked cars. The other cars were loaded with merchandise and the loss to the company will reach $20,000. The tracks were blockaded for several hours and passenger trains went around the wreck over other roads.

FILES A REMARKABLE DEED.

Columbus, Ind., Aug. 26.—The most remarkable deed ever recorded in this county was filed with Recorder Hiner Saturday morning. It is a warranty deed from Daisy Edwards and her husband, Solomon Edwards, who have been dead for several months, to Ralph Spaugh, of this city. Justice Pancake, of Clifford, acknowledges the deed in the following language:

"State of Indiana, Bartholomew County, ss.—Before me, William E. Pancake, a justice of the peace in and for the said county and state, the 8th day of August, personally appeared Daisy Edwards and Solomon Edwards, deceased, and acknowledged the execution of the annexed deed."

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID.

Auburn, Ind., Aug. 26.—A tragic death occurred near Spencerville Saturday night. Philip Canada, a well-known and respected citizen, drank carbolic acid and died almost instantly. Canada is an old soldier. He was past sixty years of age, while his wife is ten years his junior, and they owned the twenty-acre tract upon which they for years resided. Feeling indisposed, Canada went to the cupboard, and, after taking down and examining a dozen or more bottles, swallowed what he supposed was peppermint, but proved to be carbolic acid. He went immediately to his chores, but he felt the effect of the deadly poison and started for the house, where he met his wife, and, falling to his knees, died before crossing the threshold. He has two brothers in Waterloo, and, with his widow, these are the only relatives that survive him.

ALL-DAY SUNDAY SERVICES.

Winona Lake, Ind., Aug. 26.—The Bible conference held services from sunrise until 10 o'clock last night. The early morning service was conducted by S. D. Gordon, of Cleveland, head of the Ohio evangelization movement. Rev. John Willis Baer, of Boston, secretary of the World's United Christian Endeavor societies, addressed large crowds in the morning and afternoon. The conference on Sunday school work was led by J. Wilbur Chapman. At 11 o'clock Rev. L. W. Munhall, of New York, opened the conference for evangelists, delivering a lecture on "The Inspiration of the Scriptures." In the afternoon the illustrated service for young people was conducted by Rev. J. W. Vandeventer, of Scotland, an eminent Sunday school worker. The leading afternoon address was delivered by Rev. James M. Buckley, editor of the Methodist Christian Advocate, New York. At sunset the Hillside service was led by Todd B. Hall, of Baltimore, "the detective evangelist." Over 5,000 people were seated on the grass-covered natural amphitheater of the assembly grounds when this servce was held. Rev. John McNeil, of Scotland, preached a powerful evening sermon in the auditorium, which has a seating capacity of 2,500. During the service fully 2,000 stood outside, unable to get seats. The conference will close on Tuesday evening.

SENATOR FLEMING TO COACH.

Senator Stephen Fleming will coach the high school foot ball team this year, and the high school boys fully anticipate that they will whip every team they go up against fall. Mr. Fleming was famous as a foot ball player a few days ago, and has coached a number of winning teams since his college days. The prospects for a strong high school team this year are excellent, and while the team will be lighter than the one of last year, it is expected that they will play better ball under Senator Fleming's training. Captain McCormick will begin practice the early part of next month, and the first game will probably be played about September 28. Manager Arthur Parry has booked several good games, and is arranging to bring the strong Indianapolis team here as a Thanksgiving day attraction.

FIX NEW AGE LIMIT.

The local civil service board has been advised by the post office department of a new age limitation governing applicants for positions in the postal department. To be eligible the applicant must be between the ages of 18 and 45 years, except in case of persons who have received honorable discharges from the military or naval service of the United States by reason of wounds or illness contracted in the service. In this case age limitation is waived. Heretofore clerks must have been at least 18 years of age, and carriers from 21 to 35.

MANY THANKS

Yes---and a great many too. We have a great many people to thank for their willingness to respond to our Friday's "ad" asking people to trade as early in the day, and as quickly as possible on Saturday. Thousands of people bought goods of us Saturday. Our checks show that 3,252 paid cash at our store Saturday. They came early and traded quickly. Many a man bought the first suit of clothes we showed him. That was more than we expected, but we appreciated it. Five more days of this great slaughter. We can give you more attention this week.

CALEDONIANS HAVE AN OUTING

FIELD MEET AT ROBISON PARK SATURDAY.

Large Crowd Witnesses an Interesting Program of Events—The Results.

The annual field sports of the Caledonian society, held at Robison park Saturday, were the most successful in years, and a large crowd filled the grand stand and overflowed into the athletic field. Max Wehnert scored the most points, eight and one-half, and received the silver smoking set donated by James B. White. The Caledonian tug-of-war team defeated the Pennsylvania team, pulling them six inches. The most amusing event was the capture of the greased pig, there being eight entries for the event. His porkship was not very frisky and he was captured by John Tompkins without difficulty. Piper James Berry, of Aberdeen, Scotland, furnished music for the games and for the Scottish dances in the evening. The result of the field sports was as follows:

Quoiting—Won by James Miller; David Miller, second; James Gillie, third.

100-yard dash—Won by David McNaught; James Hayes, second; Max Wehnert, third. Time—11 seconds.

100-yard dash for boys—Arthur Noll, first; Edgar Wood, second.

100-yard dash for girls—Won by Maggie Gillie; Agnes Gillie, second.

Putting 16-pound shot—John Doggett, first, 35 feet 8 inches; James Hayes, second; Burt Branson, third.

Running high jump—Ernest Zucker, won, 5 feet 3 inches; Harry McMillen, second; Burt Branson, third.

One-mile bicycle race—Nelson Bucker, first; Henry Lahmeyer, second; Burt Branson, third. Time—2:56.

Throwing 16-pound hammer—John Doggett, first, distance, 123 feet 11 inches; James Hayes, second; Peter Gillie, third.

Tug-of-War—Caledonian team won by six inches in a two-minute pull. The Caledonian team was composed of Will Scott, Charles Lahmeyer, Frank Hamilton, Peter Rae, James Gillie, skip. The Pennsylvania team was made up of J. W. Wilson, L. B. Galland, F. E. Blody, James Hayes, F. Borkep, skip.

Three-legged race—Max Wehnert and Henry Wehnert won; James Hayes and K. C. Wilson, second; John Belger and Frank O'Brien, third. Time—13 seconds.

Tossing the caber—James Gillie, on; Will Scott, second; Bert Branson, third. Best throw, 37 feet ½ inch.

Two-mile bicycle race—Nelson Bucker, first; Henry Lahmeyer, second; John Richards, third. Time—6:18.

Sack race—Bert Branson, first; M. Wehnert, second; Henry Lahmeyer, third.

Running broad jump—Max Wehnert, won; John Wagner, second; James Williams, third. Distance, 17 feet 10½ inches.

Half-mile race—K. C. Wilson, won; D. McNaught, second; Henry Wehnert, third. Time—2:20.

Pole vaulting—Won by Max Wehnert, distance, 8 feet 6 inches; John Wagner, second; Bert Branson, third.

MINE BURNING FIERCELY.

Irwin, Pa., Aug. 26.—A fierce fire is burning in the Ocean mine at Herminie and the flames cannot be controlled. The fire was discovered early Sunday morning through dense volumes of smoke coming out of the shaft. The alarm was given and the men organized to fight the flames. It was soon learned that the fire was burning in several entries and nothing was left to do but to flood the mine. Water was turned in yesterday noon, but without avail. It is expected that it will require several days to extinguish the fire. No one was in the mine when it took fire. The Ocean mine is owned by the Berwind-White company and is one of the best equipped in the bituminous region. It is filled with electric machinery and the loss will be large.

THINKS MRS. EDDY SINCERE.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 26.—Rev. Russell H. Conwell, of the Temple Baptist church, said yesterday that if the principles of Christian Science had a universal acceptance there would be only one-quarter of the sickness there is in the world today. He believed that the tenets of the Christian Science followers were about two-thirds true and one-third extreme, and added that if the churches had been wiser and had accepted that part of Christian Science which was true there would have been no Christian Science church. Dowie, he said, was a swindle. Dr. Conwell was for several years counsel for the head of the Christian Science faith, Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy. He says that Mrs. Eddy is a woman of abnormal mental ability, but that she is undoubtedly sincere in her beliefs. Her pretensions to any especial message from God to lead the Christian Science church he did not think were reasonable. "Everyone," said Mr. Conwell, "is enabled to achieve results as a Christian Scientist by the scriptural verse 'According to your faith it shall be unto you.' That is the foundation of Christian Science. There is no special message to Mrs. Eddy. She has only a very great faith and that has made her powerful."

WHY CHUN IS DELAYED.

Berlin, Aug. 26.—The illness of Prince Chun, brother of the emperor of China, who, with a Chinese mission, has arrived at Basel, Switzerland, on his way to Berlin to apologize for the assassination of Baron Von Ketteler, the German minister at Pekin, is, according to a dispatch received here today, from Basel, a pretext for delay, Prince Chung having received orders from Pekin not to proceed, as fresh complications have arisen with reference to the settlement of the protocol.

FOUR O'CLOCK.

The hour of 4 a. m. has something mysterious about it. Cocks crow, people on the brink of death give up the ghost, everyone who is asleep sleeps sounder, and even the watchful sentry can't always keep his eyes open.

At this hour people are in their weakest state, and, if life is just on the flicker, it is not surprising that it goes out. Many a man's life has been saved by a spoonful of brandy or ammonia administered just when the clock strikes four.

The period of deepest sleep varies from 3 o'clock to 5. An hour or two after going to bed you sleep very soundly; then your slumber grows gradually lighter, and it is easy enough to waken you at 1 or 2 o'clock. But when 4 o'clock comes you are in such a state of somnolence that you would take no notice of the end of the world.

Military men are well aware of this curious fact, and they often made sudden assaults on camps or cities between 3 and 5, for they know that at that time the most wideawake sentry is liable to doze.

Strangely, at the corersponding time in the afternoon, most people feel a bit done up. Whether it is due to the electrical condition of the atmosphere, or to the position of the sun, no one knows. But it is a fact that the nervous system, brain and lungs are most vigorous from about 10 or 11 o'clock (night and morning) to 12 or 1, and at their lowest ebb between 3 and 4.

The British islands are better provided with rivers than any other country of the same size on the globe.

HEAT NERVE PROSTRATION.

SUDDEN PROSTRATION IS A FEATURE OF HOT WEATHER UPSET NERVES AND WEAK NERVE CENTERS ARE THE CAUSES.

All along the line of mental and muscular exhaustion so prevalent during the summer months is the underlying cause of overworked nerves—over consumption of Nerve Tissue which has not been replaced. It is manifested in the mind that refuses to receive and act upon impressions in the usual way—and that, sometimes when attempted to be whipped into work, jumps the bounds of reason and flounders in a maze of confusion. It is manifested physically by an over-tired, languid, exertionless, muscle-relaxed condition that lacks resisting power which is necessary to withstand heat exposure. It's by the influence of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in rallying Nerve Force that energy is quickened—the great web like Nerve System of the body vibrates with new life—Brain Nerves—Heart Nerves—Stomach Nerves fell the influence as activity replaces lassitude and strength is regained. The hidden current within which spells life has been brought to nature's required standard.

Mrs. S. Henline, of 283 Webster street, Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "As a nerve tonic Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, No. 14 Calhoun street, are fine. I was nervous, sleepless and weak. The medicine cured this giving strength, energy, good peaceful sleep and strong steady nerves. I am glad to recommend it."

Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills 50 cents a box at druggists or Dr. A. W. Chase Medicine Co., Buffalo, N. Y. See that portrait and signature of A. W. Chase, M. D., are on every package.

NO NEW PEACE OVERTURES MADE.

meagre this morning. Probable renewal of peace negotiations by disinterested parties was again being discussed, but nothing definite could be learned.

Henry M. White, of the Garment Makers of America, and Ralph M. Easley, of the National Civic Federation, who took part in the conference in this city last week, left for the east last night, and it is reported that they went to New York to make another attempt to have negotiations between the contending parties reopened.

President Shaffer, however, said today that he knew nothing of the proposed venture, and his association had authorized no new steps for peace.

The combine, it is said, intends to make aggressive attempts to start more plants this week. They were successful in putting two more mills in operation at Painters this morning, and now have four mills, with a force of 400 men at work.

The mills started today were No. 1 bar mill and No. 7 cotton tie mill. The management say that the work being turned out is up to the standard and is being placed on the market.

One of the officials announced today that he had three more crews engaged but that they would not go to work until all the men necessary to operate the six mills had been secured, and then the plant would run at night. He said he was almost certain the entire works would be running at night before the end of this week.

WHAT STRIKERS SAY.

The strike managers assert that the resumption of these plants in full will be an impossibility, and say the claims of the steel people are not borne out by the facts. They say that they settled the controversy over the management of the Star mills by preventing seven men from entering the plant and that the plant is not running at all this morning.

Vice President Pierce, of the Amalgamated association, said there were less men working in the local mills this morning than for over a week.

President Shaffer had heard nothing from Chicago up to noon. Mr. Tighe, he said, did not go out there to get the men to strike, but just to attend the meeting.

Advices from McKeesport are to the effect that no attempt was made to start the Demmler works last night. The furnaces were fired and the plant lighted, but no men appeared. Ten regular policemen and a large force of pickets guarded the mill all night, but there was no disorder.

The situation at all points is reported quiet, and no trouble is expected.

KNIGHTS IN A WRECK.

Barnesville, Ohio, Aug. 26.—A special train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad carrying Pennsylvania Knights Templar en route to Louisville, was ditched here today. Engineer Milo Francis, of Zanesville, was killed, and Fireman Walter Boston, of Newark, was fatally injured. So far as known the passengers escaped with slight bruises. The wreck was caused by the train striking a horse on Barnesville hill. The engine jumped the track and the entire train followed.

AROUND THE WORLD.

No one has yet really made a journey round the world. The course usually followed is approximately about 20,0000 miles in length. The shortest time for this distance is that made by George Griffith, an Englishman, who accomplished the distance in 64½ days, as an ordinary passenger, via Suez and Hong Kong.

The only way to make a real trip around the world would be at the equator, where the circumference is 24,855 miles, nearly 5,000 miles longer than the usual route.

Some years ago an Italian offered to accomplish this task in three years, provided the necessary funds were found; but nothing came of it. It is extremely doubtful whether such a feat is within the realms of possibility, as the man rash enough to undertake it would have to spend months in the pestilential basin of the Amazon, hew his way for hundreds of miles through the terrible Congo forest, and cross the great twin islands of Sumatra and Borneo, in a latitude where fever of the deadliest description is everywhere prevalent.

The first regular road in the northern half of Scotland—that is, the portion north of the Firth of Forth—was in 1745.

AN OCEAN CEMETERY.

THE MOST DEADLY TRAP FOR SHIPS IN ALL THE WORLD.

Bare, Bleak and Treeless Quessant, the Notorious Island of Terror, and the Awful Forests That Supply It With Wood in Plenty.

Far out in the Atlantic ocean, off the northern French coast, almost due west from Brest, lies a great rocky island that is one of the most deadly traps for ships in all the world. It is the island of Quessant, the notorious Ile de l'Epouvante, the island of terror. Bare, without a tree to break its monotony, it lies in the path of the ships seeking the English channel. If they steer too far north, the hundred shoals and reefs of the British coast open their jaws for them. If they sail too far south, Quessant reaches for their bones.

Bleak and far away from any other land as the island of terror is, it still has its population. What mysterious thing is it which attracts that population and makes it cling? The infrequent visitor sees funny flocks of little sheep, scarcely twice as large as hares. He sees small herds of rough coated ponies almost as tiny as the sheep. These are the only signs of productive industry to be seen. There is fishing, of course, but fishing can be prosecuted better from the mainland, with less risk and a more convenient market.

What is the mysterious attraction, then? So asked Alexander Shuette, the traveler, when he made his way from the coast of Brittany to Quessant. The answer came, at least in part, one evening when a great storm swept in from the Atlantic and beat at the shores with unexampled fury.

He says: "The daughter of my hostess led me up the narrow staircase to my room. As I ascended I noticed, without remarking the oddity of it at the time, that the staircase was of shining oak. I was ushered into my room, a large, low chamber, completely paneled from top to bottom. Putting the lamp on a huge oak table that shone like a mirror, she said:

"'If you should need more firewood, monsieur, you will find it in the next room. Do not spare it. It is bitter cold, and there will be more than enough firewood in Quessant in two or three days. Good night.'

"I sat down before the blazing fire and prepared for a cozy evening. The storm raged in the narrow streets of the little village. The surges thundered against the granite breast of the coast like endless artillery fire, and sometimes I imagined that the very island trembled under the onslaught of the hundreds of millions of tons of water.

"As I sat listening I gazed into the flames. The wood struck me as strange. And then I wondered. On the entire island there is not a single tree, and yet I had been told not to spare firewood. 'There will be more than enough in two or three days.'

"I arose and opened the door into the next room. That room was possibly 20 feet high and was filled almost to the top with timber. First with wonder, then with growing awe, I gazed at the piles of wood. Truly she was right, the little maid, when she said that one need not be economical with firewood on the island of Quessant. There were timbers of every shape—splintered masts and spars, planks from decks and sides, remnants of a steering wheel, benches from the forecastle, yellow, black, brown, white and red woods, even two figureheads, some bright, as if they were new, some crusted with shells and hung with seaweeds. In the entire room there was not a piece of wood that did not come from some wrecked ship.

"When I returned to my room, I took the lamp and examined the place closely. I noticed a strange, delicate, yet very insistent fragrance—sandalwood. Thick wooden pillars supported the ceiling. They were of a beautiful dull black—ebony, as I lived. The panels were rosewood, mahogany and cedar. Even an unpracticed eye could see that all these precious woods once had ornamented the cabins of noble ships. The heavy carved chairs, the polished oaken table, even the bed in which I was to sleep, all came from shipwrecks.

"Now I understood the meaning of the words 'stand rights.' In favor of this island, far away from the world and murderous for the ships that tie the world together, Æolus, with his bride of the winds, is more fruitful than is Ceres to the mainlands, with her harvest moon and her blessings of fruit. The blessings of Quessant come from the gale.

"The forests of Quessant! Are there such others in the entire world, so unique, so terrible? This forest, instead of trees, has the mighty masts of ships. In that tremendous forest are the oaks and pines of Canada and Maine, the cypress of Florida, the baobabs of Africa, the teak of Hindustan, the ebony and sandalwood of South America. The awful forests of Quessant form the visible apex of a vast cemetery that stretches from New York to Cape La Hague."

Before the Footlights.

"I understand that young man who calls on you," said old Mr. Straitlace, "wants to become an actor."

"Yes," replied his fair daughter, "he does think of appearing before the footlights."

"Humph! The next time he calls you'd better warn him to think of disappearing before the foot lights."—Catholic Standard and Times.

GRANT'S RETREAT.

The General Went When a Policeman's Club Pointed the Way.

Speaking of nightsticks reminds me of seeing General Grant in his to my mind greatest hour, the only time he was ever beaten, and by a policeman. I told his son, Fred Grant, of it when he became a police commissioner in the nineties, but I do not think he appreciated it. He was not cast in his great father's mold. The occasion I refer to was after the general's second term in the presidency. He was staying at the Fifth Avenue hotel, when one morning the Masonic temple was burned. The fire line was drawn half way down the block toward Fifth avenue, but the police were much hampered by the crowd and were out of patience when I, standing by, saw a man in a great ulster with head buried deep in the collar, a cigar sticking straight out, coming down the street from the hotel. I recognized him at sight as General Grant. The policeman who blocked his way did not. He grabbed him by the collar, swung him about and, lifting him a resounding whack across the back with his club, yelled out:

"What's the matter with you? Don't you see the fire lines? Chase yourself out of here and be quick about it."

The general never said a word. He did not stop to argue the matter. He had run up against a sentinel and when stopped went the other way. That was all. The man had a right to be there; he had none. I was never so much an admirer of Grant as since that day. It was true greatness. A smaller man would have made a row, stood upon his dignity and demanded the punishment of the policeman. As for him, there was probably never so badly frightened a policeman when I told him whom he had clubbed. I will warrant he did not sleep for a week, fearing all kinds of things. No need of it. Grant probably never gave him a thought.—Jacob Riis in Outlook.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

Mercury's year is only 88 days, that of Venus 225 days and of Mars 687 days.

Cumulus, or thunder clouds, rarely rise over two miles. Seven miles is the outside height for any cloud.

The edge of the moon is so broken by peaks, ridges and valleys that the length of totality during a solar eclipse is affected by them.

The sun's heat raises from the earth 37,000,000 tons of water a minute. To do the same work artificially a cube of coal 200 miles deep, wide and high would have to be burned every second.

The archaic, wasteful "beehive" oven process of making charcoal has been superseded in many parts of Germany by modern methods which save all the ammonia, gas, tar and other products of the wood.

A human body contains some of the small things of nature. The blood, for example, is a colorless liquid in which little red globules are floating. Every drop of it contains about a million of the globules, and they are susceptible of division into smaller globules still.

Making the Blind See.

Success in desperate cases by conservative treatment is the lesson often repeated and yet never quite sufficiently learned by any physician or surgeon. The infinite ingenuity behind the healing processes, the never renounced struggle toward normality, is an ever renewed source of wonder. All that is needed to elicit it is confidence in it, delay in doing anything radical, watchfulness to follow up the hints to action as they begin to show themselves.

We know of a living and happy patient who ten years ago had albuminuric retinitis from long existing Bright's disease despite what all the textbooks say as to "two years" in such cases. "Don't do the irrevocable thing until forced to do it" is the warning that has saved many organs and lives. Above all, never proceed with surgery ("the despair of medicine") until physiologic and medical methods have been exhausted.

The Wiener Klinischer Wochenschrift tells of the success of Herr Heller, director of an asylum for the blind, in educating the remnant of visual power retained by a "blind" child. There was only perception of light in a narrowed field left, but this by education was made to yield such indications to the eager mind that after 14 months of endeavor the boy has very useful vision, can distinguish colors and forms and even can read.

There are possibly thousands of blind people who have renounced vision instead of cultivating it to a degree that would render the blind types useless.—American Medicine.

Apple Pie Order.

To feel in apple pie order is a phrase which dates back to Puritan times—to a certain Hepzibah Merton. It seems that every Saturday she was accustomed to bake two or three dozen apple pies, which were to last her family through the coming week. These she placed carefully on her pantry shelves, labeled for each day of the week, so that Tuesday's pies might not be confused with Thursday's nor those presumably large or intended for washing and sweeping days eaten when household labors were lighter. Aunt Hepzibah's "apple pie order" was known throughout the entire settlement and originated the well known saying.

A Financial Discussion.

Chronic Borrower—Can you lend me $20 for a few days?

Weary Friend—Why don't you pawn your watch?

"Because it is a keepsake from my dear mother, and I don't like to part with it."

"My money is a keepsake from my dear father, and I don't like to part with it, either."—Exchange.

THEIR PARTING.

"Our time is almost up," he said regretfully, as he looked rather gloomily across the wide subdued blue of ocean that stretched far away in front of them.

"Yes," she said, with a slight sigh, "only a few hours more and we shall be as far apart from each other as ever."

It was late in July, and they were sitting on the quiet little piazza of the admirable hotel to which they had drifted together a fortnight before. The water lapped on the beach at their feet and the sea gulls flattened their wings against the sky above them as if in full harmony with the beating of their own hearts. Two weeks together! And now they were to be separated, for no one knew how long. All romance must end some time.

"Tomorrow," she said, "you will go back to your work in town. You will attend those important directors' meetings that you have told me of. Then there are stocks to buy and sell, political friends to meet, campaigns to arrange and speeches to think over. Your horses, too, will claim your attention, and, of course, there is your club, and the dinners and all the other things for a man to do."

"And you," he said, half playfully, "you, too, will be busy. You have your life work, you know. There is the church with its round of social duties. There are the societies to which you belong, the papers you are to prepare, the charities you are interested in, and the literary events which claim you."

Yet there was a ray of hope that glistened in her woman's eye as she laid her hand on his arm.

"Never mind, dear," she said. "Some day we may learn better how to economize our time. Perhaps, when we have been married another seven years, we shall be able to see more of each other."—Life.

FIND BOGUS SODA FLAVORS.

The chemist and the prevention of sale of adulterated and impure food have put their rejected brand on another favorite beverage. Patrons of the soda fountain who have been taught to ask for lemon or vanilla flavoring, for the alleged reason that those syrups were less liable than others to adulteration, will be surprised at the assertion that there is no extract for which substitutes are more often used than vanilla. This is said on the authority of the Massachusetts board of health. The true vanilla bean costs from $12 to $16 per pound, and were there no substitute it could not be used so freely and so extensively as at present. Vanillin, the active property of the extract, can be made from other substances at a cost of about $2 per gallon. The artificial compound is chemically identical with the vanillin found in the true vanilla extract and therefore has come to be used extensively by manufacturers and dealers. It has been made for commercial purposes from turpentine, but more satisfactory results are obtained from oil of cloves or benzoic acid, and it is now extracted chiefly from these. It is considered harmless when taken in small quantities and has been found to posses certain medicinal properties. Experiments on frogs with large quantities have, however, caused spinal convulsions. There is some comfort for confirmed soda water drinkers, and a general warning for others, in the further statement by the Massachusetts authorities that the metallic contamination of the water used in a glass of soda is far more detrimental to health than any adulteration of the flavoring syrup.

MINISTER WU TO THE WOMEN.

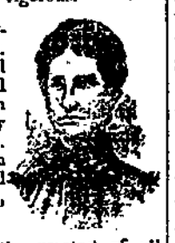

The wise and facetious Minister Wu Ting-Fang made his appearance in a new role the other evening at a large gathering where both ladies and gentlemen were present, where he was the most conspicuous guest. He was asked to say a few words to the ladies, in response to a toast to them. He said: "When I see so many finely built women confronting me, and I am called upon to be the 'gallant' of the moment, what can I say but that I wish for that moment only I were not a Chinaman—I should like to be an American as I stand here, so that each one of you would appear as beautiful to me as you actually must be when seen through your countrymen's eyes. Alas! the slight difference in the formation of my orbs cannot do justice to the impression you make upon me, individually and jointly and severally. But there are some well-nourished figures and forms among you that really appear to be as fine as the best that my own fertile country has produced. And your intelligence and souls, I am told, which are hidden under your intricate fashionable apparel, are more beautiful even than your forms. May you all feel the depth and sincerity of my admiration, and may your youthful looks and honorable years always walk hand in hand."

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement.

"We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."—J. F. DUFF, Princeton, Mo.

SSS is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find the appetite improves at once, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals whatever. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.

There was a nice crowd out yesterday to see the last but one Sunday game of the season. The Toledoes will come next Sunday and that will wind it up for the year so far as Sunday games are concerned. Yesterday a crowd estimated anywhere from 1,200 to 1,500 turned out to see what was only a fair game and one which resulted in the defeat of Fort Wayne by a score of 7 to 4. The locals made a splendid rally in the ninth inning and managed to gather in three runs, but the goose had been cooked before that time and there was nothing doing in the way of winning the game. Mullin pitched for the locals and he was hit hard in only one inning, but that was enough: three singles, a double-header and a gentle bump good for three cushions were plenty to get in four runs, and that was nearly enough to win the game. Besides the hits made in that inning, Mullin allowed himself to be touched only four times. Kenna was very effective and held the locals down to seven hits, most of which were so scattered as to prove ineffective. The club left this morning for Toledo, where three games will be played, after which they go to Marion for three games. Then they back-track once more and some home for three games with Toledo and three with Marion, and then go abroad to close the season. By losing yesterday's game Fort Wayne again dropped into fourth place, but is only two points behind Dayton, and Toledo is only six points behind the leaders. Following is the score of yesterday's game:

THE GAME SATURDAY.

Saturday's game was a rather peculiar one in that Fort Wayne won it twice. Ehret and Pfeister were the opposing pitchers for eight innings and the game was a very pretty one, with the score at the opening of the ninth at 3 to 1. It did not look as though there was going to be much doing and quite a number of people left the grounds, thinking that it was practically all over anyway. In the ninth the rough riders from West Virginia commenced doing business and before they could be stopped four of them had trekked around the veldt. The score of 5 to 3 then looked like a tough proposition, but "Doggie's" men buckled themselves together and made the necessary three runs, in which they were aided and abetted by the wildness of the Wheeling pitchers. Following is the score by innings and the summary:

M'GRAW TO PLAY NO MORE.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 26.—Manager John J. McGraw, of the Baltimore American league team, announces that he has played his last game of base ball. He will retain his interest in the Baltimore team and manage it from the bench. At present McGraw is in bed with his broken knee in a plaster cast. His doctor says he will not be able to play again this year. McGraw gives no definite reason for his retirement. He has a good paying business here and is a heavy stockholder in the local club.

SHAMROCKS DEFEAT MUNCIE.

After winning five straight games, the last three of which were shutouts, Muncie went down to defeat before the Shamrocks yesterday afternoon in a brilliantly played game. Hicks and Mahan were in the points for the Shamrocks and their work was fast. Hicks pitched great ball, the Magic City team being unable to solve his delivery. He helped to win his game by lining out three safe hits. Romary's one-handed catch in left field and his throw to the plate, cutting off a runner, were features of the game. Every man on the Shamrock team hit hard and put up a fast game. The crowd was large, being double that of a month ago when the Shamrocks played there. The score:

	R.	H.	E.
Shamrocks	6	14	1
Muncie	2	5	2

Batteries—Hicks and Mahan; Zook and Henderson.

BUNT HITS.

McLaughlin is back on the umpire staff again until a new man can be secured.

The Shamrocks will play at Pierceton, Ind., tomorrow, leaving over the Pittsburg at 12:15.

Lefty Houtz, who was given a trial by Fort Wayne early in the season, is playing with the Wapakoneta, Ohio, team.

Fort Wayne has made a decided gain in batting this week, having jumped five points. The team percentage is now .264.

Columbus is after Shugart, expelled from the American league by Ban Johnson, but nothing definite has been heard from the Chicago rowdy.

Shortstop Groeschow has been released by Columbus and Outfielder Scott Hardesty, released by Fort Wayne, has been appointed to the infield position.

The Blues defeated the South Whitley team at that town yesterday by a score of 12 to 6 for the second time this season. Batteries—Smith and Hellinger; Sparks and Sholtz.

The Library hall base ball team went to Payne, O., yesterday, and was defeated by a score of 9 to 4. Batteries—For Payne, Taylor and Welden; Library hall, Belcher and McCoy.

Mr. Pardee, of Toledo, was bumped strenuously again yesterday. Mr. Pardee is a good pitcher, but there are others. McPherson pitched both games for Marion at the Stogie city yesterday, winning one and losing the other.

Ex-Umpire France, who is playing third base for Marion, is a vaudeville actor. He plays ball in the summer and "treads the boards" in the winter. France says the job of umpiring is the most thankless on earth and he wouldn't do it again for any money.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Firm cables caused wheat to open steady today. September started unchanged to ⅛c higher at 70⅛c to 70¼c. There was practically no demand during early hours and under liberal northwest receipts the market broke to 69⅝c. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 787 cars, against 663 last week and 727 cars a year ago, while local receipts were 188 cars, with 21 of contract grade.

The market lacked support throughout and closed weak, ⅞c lower for September, at 69¼c.

Dullness also ruled in the corn pit during the early part of the session. September opened ⅛c lower to ¼c higher at 54⅞c to 55⅛c. On favorable weather for the late crop and in sympathy with wheat September eased to 54⅛c. Local receipts were 343 cars, 15 of which were contract grade.

Liquidation continued to the end and September closed weak, 1⅜c lower, at 53⅜c.

Oats opened unchanged for September, but, with other grains, lost their steadiness and sold down to 33⅝@33⅞c for September. Receipts were 347 cars.

Provisions opened dull but firm on higher prices for hogs and light receipts. January pork opened 2½c higher at $15.57½; lard was unchanged at $8.82½, while ribs were 2½c higher at $8.00.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:

Wheat—Aug., 69⅛c; Sept., 69¼c; Oct., 70c; Dec., 71⅜c; May, 75⅜c.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 26.—Large blocks of the prominent stocks were dealt in at the opening. United States Steel, Manhattan and Rock Island rose about a point and Consolidated Gas 1½. Otherwise changes were fractional and quite uniform throughout the list.

The market was broad and dealings well distributed.

Traders took profits on the advance, but the general demand was enough to hold the market well in hand. Manhattan, Consolidated Gas and Rock Island lost a point, but other active stocks fell only slightly and hardened again. There were good advances meanwhile in spots, especially for Ontario and Western, Erie second preferred, Norfolk and Western, Colorado Southern first prefered and other low-priced stocks.

At 11 o'clock the market was lower all around on pressure against Atchison, St. Paul and Union Pacific.

The market became quieter on the decline, in which Amalgamated Copper, Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, St. Paul, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific lost about a point each.

Shorts covered at the lower level and the market gradually improved and became active. The leading stocks, however, did not recover to their best prices.

Prices moved upwards with increasing momentum, led by Southern Pacific, which rose 1¼, the Erie, the other Pacific and Southern Railroads responding.

There were advances of a point also in St. Louis and San Francisco and Lake Erie and Western. The Republic Steel stocks were heavy.

Speculation became rather dull after 1 o'clock, but prices held well for a time, the demand about offsetting profit-taking sales by the room traders. North American advanced 3¾. Amalgamated Copper and the grain carrying roads became heavy later and the entire market weakened. St. Paul, Atchison and Union Pacific fell below last week's close.

The torpid demand for stocks invited an attack by the professional bears and the average level of prices was forced considerably under Saturday's closing. The reaction from the best reached for Amalgamated Copper 2¾, Erie second preferred 2, St. Paul and People's Gas 1¾, and other leading railroads and specialties 1 to 1½. Prices rebounded rather easily on light takings. Amalgamated Copper, St. Paul, Atchison and Union Pacific rallied a point. Southern Pacific got back to the ... former price and United States Steel rose ⅛ over Saturday. The ... were not fully acid and ... closing was irregular.

Bonds were firm.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

New York, Aug. 26.—Flour—Receipts, 27,905 bbls; sales, 3,200 pkgs; state and western market was quiet.

Wheat—Receipts, 234,950 bu; sales, 1,655,000 bu; market declined at first under large northwest receipts and liquidation, but later rallied on prospects for a visible supply decrease. Sept., 75 9-16@76¼c; Oct., 75 13-16c; Dec., 77 5-16@78c.

Rye—Market dull; state, 55@56c, c. i. f. New York car lots; No. 2 western, 62½c, f. o. b. afloat.

Corn—Receipts, 88,300 bu; sales, 160,000 bu; market also weaker for a time, but later rallied with wheat. Sept., 59½@60c; Dec., 60¼@61¼c.

SHOP AND RAIL

TRACKLAYING ON NEW HAVEN-BUTLER LINE COMMENCED.

PREPARING FOR CARNIVAL

RAILWAY EXPECTS 5,000 PEOPLE VENETIAN NIGHT.

TWO MEN KILLED BY TRAIN

WERE STRUCK ON A CROSSING AT COLUMBIA CITY.

The work of laying track on the New Haven-Butler road was commenced last week, but owing to the failure to send the splicing plates with the rails, the work was suspended after about 100 feet of rails were put down. The connection with the main line has been made and the crossing with the Nickel Plate is completed and as soon as the several small gaps in the line have been closed by the graders the ties and rails will be laid to the river in shot order The end abutments of the bridge crossing the Maumee river have been completed and tomorrow evening will witness the completion of the middle pier. The end abutments were constructed of concrete in their entirety, but the middle pier is being constructed of concrete and Bedford stone. Labor and teams are more plentiful than they were during the harvest season and grading is being rapidly pushed along. Trains will be running over the new line in November if there is no serious trouble in getting steel.

HEAVY WESTBOUND TRAVEL.

A feature of the passenger business of the past two days was the preponderance of the westbound over the eastbound movement. This was particularly noticeable on the Nickel Plate Saturday night. Train No. 3, due here at 4:35 p. m., came in in two sections, there being twelve cars. Three of them were loaded with German emigrants, en route to the northwest. The bulk of the remaining travel was returning Pan-American visitors. The train was consolidated here and taken to Chicago by one engine. No. 5 yesterday morning was compelled to divide here and make the balance of its journey in two sections. Three coaches and a baggage car were added here to accommodate the heavy business.

VENETIAN NIGHT.

The cottagers' committee and the railway officials have reason to believe that over 5,000 Fort Wayne people will look upon the magnificent fireworks display and carnival at Rome City next Thursday evening. Ample provision in the way of transportation has been arranged for and accommodations for 10,000 spectators, if needs be, will be made at the lake. A limited number will be allowed to view the display from the car windows, it having been arranged to line the cars up on the main track on the lake front during the progress of the display. But only a small portion of the crowd can be thus accommodated and the main body of spectators will be located on the shore of the lake. The Sentinel would urge upon prospective attendants the necessity for going to the resort early. Take the first or second trains if possible and leave the later ones for those who cannot leave home or business early in the afternoon. There will be ample train service, but if the crowd is evenly distributed between the five or six trains, the railway company will be able to handle it better than if all want to go to the resort at the last hour. The first train leaves at 3 o'clock and the last one at 6:45 Thursday evening.

IRISH DAY WILL DRAW CROWD.

Irish day celebration will draw the largest crowd to New Haven tomorrow afternoon and evening that pretty little town has seen for many a day. Information received by Col. R. G. Thompson leads that gentleman to believe the crowd will reach the thousand mark, providing the weather is fair. The majority of the picknickers will go to the grove via the Wabash train, but there will also be many bicyclists there, and parties of this kind . . . already being arranged.

SUNDAY'S EXCURSIONS.

Rome City was the most attractive of the several excursion points open to Fort Wayne people yesterday, though all received a fair patronage. There were 608 tickets sold by the Grand Rapids to Rome City, 206 by the Lake Erie and Western to Indianapolis, seventy-five by the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western to Cedar Point, and 339 to Toledo and Detroit, and twenty-four to Put-in-Bay by the Wabash. Incoming the Wabash and the Lake Erie were a tie on the number of excursionists, each bringing in 398. While the sales to Cedar Point were not so great in Fort Wayne, the Findlay's excursion was a success. The party numbered 300 people when it reached the resort.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR'S TRAIN.

Knights Templar travel to Louisville over the Grand Rapids and Indiana and the Pennsylvania roads was fully up to expectations. The special train assigned to the knights arrived here from the north with sixty-five Pullman passengers last night. Forty-five passengers were added to the party at this place and at Decatur a Pullman car loaded with Bluffton and Decatur knights was picked up and it is estimated that in all there were 135 passengers on the train. The run to Indianapolis was made without any accident or unpleasant incident.

HARAHAN DENIES STORY.

New York, Aug. 26.—James T. Harahan, second vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, who returned from Europe on Saturday, denies the report that the presidency of the Southern Pacific has been offered to him. While in Europe he completed a working arrangement between the Radcliffe line of steamers and the Illinois Central to run steamers between New Orleans and Rotterdam with a guarantee of rates and trade. The working arrangement will go in effect in September 15. The Radcliffe line has twelve good steamers. This new arrangement will facilitate the shipment of cotton to foreign ports.

TWO MEN KILLED.

A buggy containing Elmer Shirley, Jesse Werden and Arthur Fryhover was struck by Pennsylvania passenger train No. 24 at the first crossing east of the station in Columbia City last Saturday night. Shirley was instanly killed and Werden was so badly injured that he died three hours later. Fryhover was only slightly injured. The train does not stop at that station and was running at the usual speed when the collision occurred. The pilot struck the rear wheel of the vehicle and Shirley and Werden were tossed a considerable distance and sustained their injuries more from the fall than through compact with the engine. Fryhover, who was driving, was simply thrown aside, out of reach of the train, and the horse escaped without a scratch, carrying the shafts and front portion of the vehicle with him. One of the rear wheels remained on the pilot and was brought to this city, where its presence was the first intimation given the engineer and fireman that an accident had occurred. Neither of them saw the buggy on the crossing. The usual warning of the approach of the train was given, but the men in the buggy evidently thought they could get over in safety. Conductor George Bonter, who had charge of the train, and Engineer Herman A. Durnell and Fireman Thomas Kelty, who were in the cab of the engine, went to Columbia City this morning to attend the coroner's inquest. All the occupants of the buggy were young men and only one, Shirley, was married.

THOMAS REFUSES TO TALK.

New York, Aug. 26.—Inquiry was made of E. B. Thomas, chairman of the Erie board of directors, today, as to a report from Indianapolis that the absorption was imminent of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton and the Indianapolis, Decatur and Western railroads by the Erie. Chairman Thomas declined to talk concerning the report. The supposition has held for some time that the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton was destined for absorption or combination with another system. Gossip at one time pointed to the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville as the absorbing road, but rumors of the Erie plan have been current for some times and Erie stocks have been in large demand on the stock exchange for several days. There is reason to believe that the accounts of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton and the Indianapolis, Decatur and Western are under investigation on behalf of the Erie.

Cincinnati, Aug. 26.—President Woodford, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, is at present in Michigan. General Passenger Traffic Manager Edwards pronounced the report unfounded and declared no negotiations for the sale of the road have been made. He attributes the revival of the rumor to the recent inspection visit of President Underwood to Indianapolis and Cincinnati, where the Erie leases terminals.

WILL TURN OUT IN UNIFORM.

One of the first labor organizations to give notice to the committee having charge of the Labor day celebration of an intention to participate in the grand parade was the local lodge of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, No. 136. This brotherhood will meet at its hall, each member wearing full uniform, form in line and participate over 100 strong in the parade, providing there are that many men in off the road on that day.

CHANGE AT HUNTINGTON.

The Wabash officials have found it expedient to make two offices at Huntington where only one existed. M. F. Hargrove, of Andrews, has been transferred from that city to Huntington and given charge of the ticket office, and O. W. Lake, who held the agency of both the freight and passenger departments, will hereafter have charge of only the freight. The business of the two offices was more than one man could handle satisfactorily.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Nickel Plate Fireman Bisel is taking a few days' lay-off for recreation.

T. W. Bauer, of the electric works, is off duty on account of the sickness sof his wife.

A. T. West, a Pennsylvania operator, has resumed his "trick" after a ten days' vacation.

Brakeman C. Gaskins, of the Pittsburg, resumed work yesterday after a ten days' vacation.

Cashier A. E. Stapleford, of the Nickel Plate, and his wife were guests of friends in Cleveland over Sunday.

Nickel Plate Conductor George Harper was taken sick here Saturday and had to return to his home in Bellevue.

Road Foreman Ed McDonald, of the Chicago division of the Panhandle, spent Sunday with his family in this city.

Harry Russell and John Miller, Nickel Plate trainmen, were visiting yesterday in the vicinity of Claypool, Ind.

C. M. Tindall, Nickel Plate brakeman, has returned to his work on the road after a few days' visit to his farm in Ohio.

Nickel Plate Conductor Fred Deahl has been looking after private business a few days and took a lay-off for that purpose.

Nickel Plate Brakeman A. F. Young has secured a fifteen days' leave of absence to attend the Pan-American exposition.

J. Beyerline, who had a hand injured some time ago, was able to resume his duties at the Tobey glove factory this morning.

Nickel Plate Fireman W. McCarthy is sick, being afflicted with a malady which is said to be chargable to excessive smoking.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Walpole left Saturday night for Buffalo and the Pan-American exposition. Mr. Walpole is a Nickel Plate car repairer.

Thomas Murphy, an extra switchman, is working in the Nickel Plate yards in place of George Transau, who is visiting his old home in New York.

General Passenger Agent F. R. Garrison, of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western road, was in the city over night, leaving for his home this morning.

Col. R. G. Thompson, of the Wabash, returned from New York Saturday night. He was east several days in the interest of the passenger department.

William Sherboudy, who has charge of the electric department of the Pennsylvania, has returned to his duties after a week's vacation spent at Rome City.

Engineer Al Baer and Fireman John Brennankamp are off duty, the former for a rest and the later on account of sickness. Both are Nickel Plate employes.

George Sunley, a Pennsylvania switchman, is sick and off duty.

Fred Meyers, of Rhinesmith & Simonsons lumber yards, is sick and off duty.

Yard Conductor Ross Gardner is taking a lay off for the purpose of doing some fishing at Rome City.

C. J. Mills, air brake inspector in the Pittsburg roundhouse, has recovered from a couple of boils and this morning resumed work after a two weeks' absence.

Engineer Samuel Kelker is out on Herman Durrell's run, 21 and 24, on the Pittsburg today, while the latter is attending a coroner's inquest at Columbia City.

A. Wefel, tinner at the Pittsburg shops, Mrs. Wefel and their two laughters left on the noon train for Buffalo, expecting to spend a week at the exposition.

The family of Assistant Foreman I. T. Leach, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is at Rome City for a week's stay. Mr. Leach makes occasional visits to the resort.

Yard Conductor William Westrop and Yard Brakeman Wallace Kress resumed work at the Pittsburg yards this morning, after an absence of three or four weeks.

Chester Pearson, engine crew caller at the Pittsburg roundhouse, has gone to Chicago to spend a vacation and during his absence J. Harnisheger will call the crews.

J. C. Klingenberger, foreman of cab builders, and H. Horstman, a car builder at the Pittsburg shops, with their wives, are in Chicago to attend the funeral of a relative.

Conductor Charles LaPoint resumed his train duties on the Nickel Plate yesterday. He was attending the Pan-American exposition and later visiting relatives in Michigan.

Louis Kinnaird, assistant master mechanic of the Allegheny shops of the Pennsylvania, and Robert Sears, a draftsman from the same shops, were in the city yesterday, the guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hill have returned from a pleasant visit in New York. Their pleasure trip included a ride down the Hudson. Mr. Hill is signal supervisor of the Pennsylvania and he resumed that duty this morning.

J. C. Millspaugh, a traveling passenger agent of the Pennsylvania, has changed his headquarters from Decatur to Terre Haute, succeeding C. M. Wheeler, who has been appointed city passenger agent at Indianapolis.

A large and strong hoist for loading boilers, pulleys and heavy castings is being erected at the Bass works. The old hoist was not high enough to accommodate some of the big pieces that are being loaded there almost daily.

Nickel Plate Fireman W. H. Bell has been off duty a few days with a sore eye. A cinder got in the optic and refused to be removed by ordinary methods. Dr. J. M. Dinnen was called upon and soon took the cinder out.

A correspondent of The Sentinel sends in the following: "D. H. Monahan, the popular Pittsburg fireman, left Saturday for Chicago, to spend a few days with his best girl. Mr. Monahan will become a Benedict some time in October."

A. L. Blake, O. P. Reese and Randolph Breeze, of the engineering department of the Pittsburg, are taking their vacations. Mr. Blake has gone to New York. Mr. Reese to Louisville and Mr. Breeze to Bellefontaine, Pa., to visit relatives.

William Volkening, of the Bass blacksmith shops, returned from Germany yesterday after a ten week's absence. He will report for work in the shops tomorrow. Mr. Volkening has been employed in the Bass shops for fourteen years.

Charles Lyons, night yardmaster, and Charles Haenel, night clerk, at the Nickel Plate yards, left last night for Buffalo, where they will spend six or eight days. G. L. Louthan is acting as night yardmaster during the absence of Messrs. Lyons and Haenel.

Dr. J. B. Blickensderfer, who went to Cadillac last week to look for a house, was successful in the search and he will take his family with him when he goes to that city to assume the duties of the office to which he was appointed last week. Dr. Blickensderfer's successor here has not been named.

The Panhandle athletic tournament at Columbus, O., Saturday attracted thousands of people from all points on the Panhandle lines. Messrs. Ferguson, of Terre Haute, and Burge, of LeRoy, who figured conspicuously in the tournament on August 10, also took active part in the Panhandle affair and each won prizes.

Jack Baillie, of the Wabash blacksmith shop, is sick and off duty.

Warren Carpenter, fireman at the electric works, is off duty on account of sickness.

J. H. Berning, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is spending a week at Rome City.

Engineer James McMullen and his family have gone to Boston for a visit with relatives.

Ed Kaiser, Pennsylvania engineer, has gone to Columbia City to visit his brother, Conrad Kaiser.

Otto Schlink, an apprentice in the Pittsburg copper shop, is in Chicago to visit friends for a week.

William Baughman and Charles Geoglein, of the electric works, are on duty again, after a few days' illness.

Passenger Engineer J. A. Keplinger resumed his duties on the Pittsburg today. He had been sick a week.

Thomas Hetzner, a machinist at the Wabash shops, is on duty again after an absence of two weeks on account of sickness.

Supt. E. A. Gould and Bridge Superintendent W. S. Danes, of the Wabash, were in the city today, looking after railway business.

Engine 621, the big flyer which arrived here Saturday direct from the builders, was tested today and will go into service tomorrow.

J. E. Sunderland, representative of the Wabash and Lehigh Valley dispatch, was in the city over Sunday. Decatur, Ill., is his official home.

Charles A. Spanley, stenographer for Road Foreman Colmey, resumed that duty this morning. He was at the Pen-American exposition a week.

Fred Rehling, the Wabash boilermaker who was injured by a fall in getting off a street car, has recovered and this morning resumed his duties at the shop.

Secretary J. W. Burns, of the R. R. Y. M. C. A., conducted an interesting meeting at Simpson church last evening, the attendance being chiefly railroad men.

Martin Hobrock and George Koorsen, of the Pittsburg machine shop, are off duty, the former to spend a week at Rome City and the latter to visit friends in Chicago a few days.

Frank Aiken, at the head of the local weighing and inspecting bureau, has taken a lay off for a month in the hope the rest will bring good health. He has been ailing for the past two months.

Detective Thomas Wilkinson, of the Nickel Plate, went to Michigan City this morning to attend a damage suit, in which the Nickel Plate is the defendant. The plaintiff was struck by a train at Hobart a year ago and sustained some alleged injuries.

Engineers John Bechtol, C. C. Adams, E. Jamey, W. Kahoe, W. H. Polhamus and G. W. Kensill are sick and Engineers C. J. Pearson, Harry Strasser and Max Horning and Fireman A. Heist are off duty for personal business. All are Pittsburg employes.

Patrick Scully, C. H. Smith, P. Dierstein, S. G. Miller, A. Kruckeberg, M. Polsin and Charles Ostemeyer, Pittsburg shopmen, failed to report for duty this morning and it is believed that some of them are sick. H. Burlage and H. Mathewson, of the same shops, are off duty to look after private business.

John R. Kretsinger and William Wehrs, foreman and assistant foreman, respectively, of the Pittsburg planing mills, are out of the city today and Charles Kronmiller is acting as foreman of that establishment. Mr. Kretsinger is attending the funeral of his brother-in-law in Lafayette and Mr. Wehrs is looking after some private business in Columbia City.

M. Monkhouse, for the past two years superintendent of motive power of the Monon at Lafayette, has tendered his resignation to President McDoel, to take effect Sept. 1. Mr. Monkhouse has accepted a more remunerative position with a large eastern concern. His successor will be John Gill, now master mechanic of the Rock Island at Trenton, Mo.

The magnificent passenger locomotive, No. 605, recently repaired and turned out of the Wabash shops, will be back there tonight to go through some extensive repairs again. Yesterday, at the Tilton yards, this engine and switch engine 373 were in a collision and both were considerably damaged. Engine 69, which was badly damaged in a wreck, came to the shops this morning for repairs.

The retirement of Charles M. Hays from the presidency of the Southern Pacific railroad will be followed by numerous other changes on the system. Some of the high-salaried agents are to be dispensed with, it is said, and Southern and Union Pacific officers are to be consolidated wherever practicable. A yearly saving of several hundreds of thousands of dollars, it is estimated, can be had by such consolidations.

A valuable work, entitled "Standard Examination Questions and Answers on the Air Brake, Formulated by the Air Brake Association at the Eighth Annual Convention at Chicago, May, 1901," is being distributed among Pennsylvania enginemen by Road Foreman C. R. Colmey. This book contains about all there is to the air brake question and the man who can answer all the questions propounded therein will have no trouble passing the examinations now required of all railway men.

AN ERROR CORRECTED.

A rumor gained circulation today to the effect that the Grand Rapids and Indiana road had declined carry paraphernalia for the Venetian night to Rome City, and that the event was likely to be abandoned. This is entirely wrong, and preparations are going forward upon an extensive scale. Those who desire to go to Rome City Thursday on the morning train can make arrangements to do so by applying at the office of M. L. Jones, 12 West Wayne street.

Careful weighing, it is said, shows that an ordinary bee, not loaded, weighs the five-thousandth part of a pound, so that it takes 5,000 bees to make a pound. But the loaded bee, when it comes in fresh from the field and flowers, freighted with honey, often weighs nearly three times more.

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

Tonight the city council committee on finance will meet at the city hall to determine upon a final report on the several matters referred to them. The bone of contention is the appropriation for the payment of a total of $2,800 to the Lake Shore road for damages awarded by the Adams county court for the opening of Fourth street. Bloomingdale people will be present in force to present their claims for the perpetuation of the crossing. There are still several members who are more or less obdurate, but it is believed that an amicable adjustment will be made and that the appropriation will be recommended. In case of a failure of the committee to recommend the appropriation it is believed that there will be sufficient influences brought to bear to adopt the minority report if one is offered to the council.

WAYNE TOWNSHIP TEACHERS.

Township Trustee Schirmeyer has selected his staff of teachers to preside over the Wayne township schools outside of the city during the next school year. They are as follows:

No. 1—D. W. Baird.
No. 2—Miss Reed.
No. 3—Charles Methley and Miss Shives.
No. 4—George J. Murphy.
No. 5—Miss Glass.
No. 7—A. A. Ringwalt.
No. 8—Samuel J. Brubaker.

The schools will open two weeks from today on the 9th of September and on Saturday, the 7th, the first township institute will be held. In the above list no teacher is assigned to school No. 6 for the reason that that district has been taken into the city, and is supplied from Professor Study's appointments.

The first patent medicine, it is asserted, ever put up for sale in America was a proposed cure for consumption. It was called "Tuscarora Rice," and was compounded and sold by a Mrs. Masters, who erected a large establishment for its manufacture in New Jersey about 1711.

The whole island of New York was originally bought from the Indians for an equivalent of about $25. Today New York has a population of about 3,500,000, which is exceeded by only one other city—London. Its wealth is enormous; its annual expenditures are more than twice those of the republic of Mexico, and almost one-third as much as those of the German empire with its population of 52,000,000. And it has become the financial center of the world.

NO NEW PEACE OVERTURES MADE

Men Who Took Part in Last Conference of Labor Leaders in Pittsburg, Visit New York, but Not With Propositions.

New York, Aug. 26.—No proposition looking to a settlement of the steel strike has been submitted today to the United States Steel corporation as a result of conferences at Pittsburg last week of members of the Amalgamated association, industrial commission, a Civic Federation and labor leaders.

Ralph M. Easley, secretary of the National Civic Federation of Labor, and Henry White, secretary of the United Garment Workers of America, arrived here today from Pittsburg. They said they had not been authorized to make any proposition looking towards a settlement of the United States Steel corporation strike.

While in Pittsburg they had a conference with President Shaffer, of the Amalgamated association, but without tangible result.

Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, also arrived in the city today, coming from Buffalo en route to Washington. Mr. Gompers was in conference with Mr. Easley and Mr. White, but it was said the conference resulted in no plan of action. Mr. Easley said today:

"Mr. White and I did not go to Pittsburg to make any proposition to Mr. Shaffer, nor have we been authorized to make any proposition to the steel trust managers. We went there to get information, and, quite by chance, we met Professor Jenks, the trust expert of the industrial committee, and John Mitchell, president of the United Mine Workers, and the four of us went to see President Shaffer. We merely wanted to be informed of the exact situation, and to see whether there was any opening for the good offices of our conciliation board. Mr. Mitchell, for his part, wanted information because he had been asked to call out 280,000 miners on a sympathetic strike, and was not willing to 'go it blind.' We had no proposition to make, and we did not seek authority to act for the Amalgamated association. We merely made it clear that we were at the service of both sides in an effort to reach a settlement."

"We are ready," Mr. Easley added, "to endeavor to bring the contending factors to an understanding, but we have made no offers to either side. Such an offer might do more harm than good."

Mr. Easley said in conclusion that he did not expect to see Messrs. Morgan or Schwab and that he was not trying to obtain a conference with them.

AMERICAN DESERTER IS CAPTURED

Manila, Aug. 26.—Pitcher's first dispatch from Mindoro tells how Lieutenant Hazzard, of the Third cavalry, commanding a troop of Macabebee scouts, captured the American deserter, Howard, who, as a leader of the Filipinos, had been annoying the Americans for many months. Fergueson, one of Lieutenant Hazzard's civilian scouts, disguised as an insurgent, with eight Macabebees, penetrated into the camp of Colonel Atiense, commanding 240 riflemen and 300 bolomen, at night, located Howard, bound and gagged him and led him away without disturbing the camp.

In the province of Isabela the Philippine commission appointed Captain Johnson, of the Sixteenth infantry, governor, and Capt. George Povey treasurer.

In the city of Manila there are now less than 1,000 effective soldiers, and it has been decided to increase this number by four companies of infantry. The official reason for the increase is that the guard duty is too heavy for the present force. As a matter of fact, however, there is a feeling that, although there is no apparent prospect of trouble, nevertheless in the event of an uprising in the future such as is always possible among the Malays, it would be better to have a sufficient body of troops available.

General Chaffee says he considers the city of Manila to be perfectly orderly and he can see no prospect for an uprising.

CARDINAL GIBBONS AT HOME

RETURNS FROM LONG ABSENCE IN EUROPE.

A Remarkable Reception Given to the Honored Prince of the Church by Hosts of Friends.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 26.—Cardinal Gibbons reached home this afternoon after a tour of Europe and was received with open arms by his friends and parishioners. He came on a train which arrived at the union station shortly after 3 o'clock, accompanied by a party of clergymen and laymen who had met him in New York. When he alighted he was greeted by a crowd of at least 10,000 people, headed by Acting Mayor Henry Williams and Charles J. Bonaparte. Both of these gentlemen made addresses of welcome, to which the cardinal responded feelingly, after which they entered carriages and were driven to the cathedral at the head of the procession, which included all the prominent Catholic societies of the city, priests from the vicinity of Baltimore and Washington and many of the non-secular friends and admirers of his eminence. The cardinal dismounted from his carriage and reviewed the procession from the steps of the Catholic club, opposite his residence, after which he addressed a congregation that filled the venerable cathedral to the doors.

TRIES ANOTHER BLUFF ON TURKEY

French Ambassador, Wearied by Procrastination of the Sultan in Claims Cases, Packs Up and Leaves Constantinople.

Constantinople, Aug. 26.—M. Constans, the French ambassador, after making farewell calls on his colleagues yesterday, left here today on board the Vautour for Stamboul, where he will take the train.

The amount of the indemnity which the sultan agrees to pay the Quays company for interference with its rights is 700,000 francs. The sultan will also pay 600,000 francs to a Frenchman on account of the seizing of his lands in Albania. The Quays company renounces for a year the clause in its concession regarding the transfer of the quays to Turkey only, it is believed to save appearances for the sultan.

MAKING A BLUFF.

Paris, Aug. 26.—Sultan Abdul Hamid's persistence in procrastinating methods continues to disturb the Turkish relatives in France. His trade giving satisfaction in the quays question was taken as indicating that he would accept the entire French claims, but M. Constans telegraphed yesterday that the sultan was still holding out against the payment of the claims of three Frenchman dating back many years and amounting to several million francs, for which M. Constans demanded a settlement and declared he would leave Constantinople today unless the matter was settled.

This action, however, will only be manifestation of dissatisfaction, and not a rupture of relations, as the counselor of the French embassy will take over the affairs of the embassy and continue the negotiations. M. Constans, ostensibly, will leave on a vacation. No word has been received from him yet regarding today's developments.

EMMA KAISER TRIES SUICIDE AT RICHMOND.

Attempted to Leap From Suspension Bridge at Cincinnati a Few Months Since.

Superintendent of Police Gorsline this morning received a letter from the superintendent of police at Richmond, informing him that a girl who gave her name as Anna Kaiser and her home as Fort Wayne, had attempted to committee suicide at that place on Saturday night. The Richmond official wanted to know what was to be done with her. The girl is the daughter of Carl Kaiser, a blacksmith in the Wabash shops, living on Woodlawn avenue, and her father says that she is demented. Some six months or more ago she attempted suicide at Cincinnati by jumping off the suspension bridge. She was unsuccessful in that attempt and soon after returned to Fort Wayne. She would not live at home, for some reason, and recently was employed as a domestic at 186 Hoagland avenue. About two weeks ago she left the city and nothing was heard of her until the above mentioned inquiry was received from the Richmond police department. Her father says he can not account for her strange conduct nor for her mania for suicide. He requested the authorities to make some arrangements to have an inquest held upon her at Richmond and if found insane to have her treated at the Richmond asylum. Correspondence with that course in view is now in progress.

HE WAS DRAGGED FROM RIVER

FRANK GROSH, OF CINCINNATI, HAS NARROW ESCAPE.

He Was Rescued by Mike Lordier—Had Been Racing and Boats Upset in Collision.

Frank Grosh, of Cincinnati, twenty-five years of age, who, with other friends, has been visiting in the city, escaped death in the St. Joe river by the narrowest sort of margin Sunday afternoon, and but for the prompt and heroic efforts of Mike Lordier there would have been a tragic ending to the affair.

Mr. Grosh, with three friends, was boating upon the St. Joe Sunday afternoon at a point two miles above Robison park. Two of the young men were in one boat, while each of the other two had a boat to himself. In a spirit of fun they began to race and the craft were close together when an oar broke, sending one of the boats crashing into the boat occupied by Grosh.

The accident occurred directly opposite the camp of the Snap club, where the water is fully twenty-five feet in depth. In an instant both boats were overturned and three of the young men were floundering about in the water. Two of them could swim fairly well, but Grosh was helpless and was sinking rapidly when Mike Lordier, who was standing upon the club boat landing, saw his predicament and dashed boldly into the water after the young man. Grosh was dragged out after much difficulty and it was some time before he revived sufficiently to be placed in a boat and taken down to the park, where he boarded an electric car for the city. He is still suffering today from the effects of the accident, and Mr. Lordier admits that the work of rescuing the struggling young man was one of the most difficult feats he ever tackled. For a time he feared for his own safety.

WANT A CHANCE

PEOPLE OF COLOMBIA DO NOT LIKE THE GOVERNMENT.

NOR DO NEIGHBORING NATIONS

GRAVE FINANCIAL STRAITS

PAPER CURRENCY 2½ CENTS ON THE DOLLAR IN GOLD.

Colon, Colombia, Friday, Aug. 23, via Kingston, Jamaica, Aug. 26.—The censorship here prevents the transmission of political news or news unfavorable to the government.

The revolt of the liberal Colombian rebels, now two years old, lately assumed a more serious aspect by the liberals' concentration on the isthmus. It is believed they are contemplating aggressive action. Consequently uneasiness prevails at Panama, the liberal objective, which was nearly captured a year ago.

It is not believed the rebels will molest the railroad or interrupt traffic. The recent rebel raids along the railroad amounted to bloodless raiding and the robbery of Chinese storekeepers, which the presence of a few government troops apparently stopped. There is a report that the government is bringing troops to protect the premises. This would be difficult without exposing to rebel attacks the points whence they are taken. The area of the revolt is extensive.

A noticeable distinguishing feature of the revolution is the actual and moral support the rebels are receiving from Venezuela, Ecquador and Nicaragua, in which countries liberal governments prevail.

CONSERVATISM UNPOPULAR.

Colombia's conservative government is not popular with the governments of the countries mentioned, but is popular with the revolutionary elements in the same countries.

The situation can be likened to a disrupted federation, composed of Venezuela, Ecquador, Columbia and Nicaragua, in which liberal and conservative partisans are helping each other and intriguing together; but, being separate nations, the political and armed intrigues threaten international trouble.

It is reported that the conservative revolt in Venezuela against President Castro is receiving actual support from the Colombian conservatives. Nicaragua's threatened revolution will probably be similarly aided on the occasion arising. These conditions give ground for the reports of actual or threatened international complications between the countries mentioned, in which the liberals are decidedly opposed to Colombia's conservative administration, whose prophesied downfall is accompanied by talk of a federation or consolidation of some or all of the countries mentioned, under the idea of a "Grande Colombia."

IN FINANCIAL STRAITS.

The Colombian government is in straits, financially. At present forty Colombian paper dollars are equivalent in value to one gold dollar. The government is printing paper money indiscriminately; lately established heavy export duties, payable in gold, and has sold monopolies and privileges of all kinds, all of which has greatly injured commerce.

The liberal revolutionary movement in Colombia is well supported throughout the country and it is generally believed that it will eventually succeed. If the liberals could win without too much bloodshed the foreigners on the isthmus would welcome their administration. Some decisive turn in the present state of affairs is wanted as being preferable to the present perturbations, but there is nothing to show that the liberals would govern the country any better than the present administration. The government has about 400 soldiers on the isthmus, while the whole army amounts to from 25,000 to 35,000 men.

The arrival of American warships is expected. The impression prevails locally that in case of trouble on the isthmus the United States will actively interfere.

PRIVATE BANK CLOSES.

Marietta, Ohio, Aug. 26.—The bank of New Metamoras, Washington county, a private institution, closed its doors today. It is said the bank had deposited $50,000 with the Superior Street Savings and Banking company, Cleveland, which closed last Friday.

NEGROES AND WHITES RIOT.

New York, Aug. 26.—South Camden, N. J., was the scene of trouble between negroes and whites last night. The affair might almost be termed a riot. A negro was arrested by the police and reports exaggerating the offense being spread, the white people in the neighborhood became excited. A mob formed and the houses of a number of negroes were entered, doors being broken in amid great confusion and much noise. Demands were made that all negroes should be driven from the place. The police were called out and the rioters were dispersed. A number of people on both sides were injured, but no fatalities are reported.

MAY BE MYSTERY IN RIVER

EARLY MORNING VISITOR HEARD A SPLASH

Then Found a Man's Hat Floating Upon the Water—Some Excitement Sunday Morning.

Some little excitement was occasioned Sunday morning by a discovery made along the St. Mary's river near Swinney park, and those acquainted with the circumstances are wondering if a mystery is not hidden beneath the murky waters of the stream.

Early Sunday morning a cyclist who had been out for a spin was approaching the bridge across the river which leads from the Nebraska district into Swinney park, and as he did so he heard a splash in the water north of the bridge. Reaching the structure nothing was to be seen save ripples which radiated from a point in the river just out from some piling which extended out from the shore.

Closer inspection revealed a man's black derby hat floating upon the water. It was scarcely dampened, showing that it must have been placed there but recently, but there was no other visible indication that a human being was near. The cyclist hurried over to the Hutzell drug store, on Main street, and told of the circumstance, and together with Mr. Hutzell returned to the stream. By this time the hat, which was a new one, had become soaked, and sank deeper in the water, soon disappearing entirely. Fishermen in a boat some distance away were appealed to, but maintained that they had seen nobody near the spot. The gentlemen conducted such investigation as far as was possible in the belief that some man had thrown himself into the river, but found nothing. The case was not reported to the police.

FIND ANCIENT RELICS.

London, Aug. 26. The overhauling to which the various royal palaces are being subjected, by order of King Edward, is lending to extraordinary discoveries. Garrets and cellars closed for over a century are being cleaned and thrown open. Recently a magnificent portrait of Queen Caroline, by Lawrence, was found, along with some other paintings in a garret at Windsor Castle, and now an old Fourgon, or velvet-lined van of great size, filled with splendid silver and silver gilt plate has been found in a stable at St. James' palace, which has not been used for 150 years. The silver in question belonged to Queen Anne and was used by her when giving grand dinner parties at Kew, Hampton Court and other suburban palaces, to which the van was dispatched from St. James. The silver was black, and undoubtedly had been in the van since the time of the death of Queen Anne.

LIPTON DENIES STORY.

New York, Aug. 26.—Sir Thomas Lipton said today that there was no foundation for the published report that he had said that he had been sold out in his previous attempt to win the America's cup by a member of his crew.

DRANK FATAL DOSE OF CREOSOTE

Frank Yankelavitch Found Dead at His Home on Summit Street---Coroner Thinks Suicide, Family Says Accident

A heavy dose of creosote, taken either with the idea of relieving toothache or with the intent to end his existence, was responsible for the death of Frank Yankelavitch at his home, 72 Summit street, about 10:30 o'clock this morning. The family say Yankelavitch has been using the drug to relieve pain from toothache and believe the affair was accidental. Coroner Barnett, who began an investigation this afternoon, is inclined to the opinion that the dose was taken with suicidal intent, and says the extent of the burns about the man's mouth make it certain that the dose was more than a mere application to an aching tooth.

Yankelavitch was a native of Russia, 39 years of age, with a wife and three children. He was formerly in the employ of the Bailer clothing store, but lately has been engaged as a fruit dealer. He went to Toledo yesterday on a pleasure trip, returned last evening and retired at midnight. This morning he seemed in usual health, and about the middle of the forenoon the wife and children went to the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bailer, on Washington street, for a brief visit, leaving Yankelavitch in the house alone.

MADE FRANTIC CRIES.

About 10 o'clock Mrs. Fox, a neighbor residing just west of the Yankelavitch home, saw the man come out at the rear door of his home. He motioned for her to come towards him, and then called to her. Mrs. Fox did not go immediately, and in a few moments Yankelavitch appeared outside the front door of his house, clutching his chest as though in great pain and crying out that there were persons in the house trying to kill him. Mrs. Fox then believed the man was demented and feared to enter the house, so she hurried over to Washington street and summoned Mrs. Bailer, the man's mother-in-law.

Together they entered the house. All was still, and lying upon the couch in the parlor was the lifeless form of the man who not more than fifteen minutes before had been standing out in the yard making the wildest gesticulations.

Bound about Yankelavitch's head was a bandage such as is sometimes used in cases of severe toothache, and upon the stand near him stood an ordinary whisky glass in which was perhaps half a drachm of creosote, the odor of which was strong in the room. The man's body was still warm, but the ladies were unable to awaken any sign of life from the prostrate man. They promptly summoned Dr.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR AT LOUISVILLE

Louisville, Ky., Aug. 26.—Trains bearing Knights Templar and their ladies arrived in great numbers today and by evening the city will be crowded with visitors. The streets were filled with marching detachments and the air fairly trembled from the music of bands which escorted the various commanderies to their headquarters.

Scarcely a building was without its streamers or a gorgeous dress of bunting. Even shop windows were trimmed in Masonic emblems and street fakirs, not to be outdone, painted Maltese crosses on the toy balloons they hawked about.

At local headquarters the opinion was expressed that the conclave, which will begin tomorrow, will prove the most notable ever held.

Among the commanderies which arrived during the morning were Connecticut, Pennsylvania, District of Columbia (accompanied by the famous Marine band), West Virginia, New York, Ohio and Georgia. The Pennsylvania, Illinois, Wisconsin and Ohio delegations are numerically the strongest represented.

Today was occupied with informal reunions and the escorting of commanderies to their homes. The festivities of the conclave will begin at 8 p. m., when the grand commandery of Kentucky and the subordinate commanderies of the state will give a reception to officers and members of the grand encampment at the custom house.

Grand Master Reuben H. Lloyd, of California, and Deputy Grand Master Henry Bates Stoddard, of Texas, were given an impromptu reception during the forenoon because of the accepted slate, which makes Stoddard successor to Lloyd as grand master of the grand encampment.

Governors Yates, of Illinois, and Durbin, of Indiana, have arrived with the detachments from their states.

PREACHER HINSHAW OUT ON PAROLE

Michigan City, Ind., Aug. 26.—William E. Hinshaw, serving a life sentence for the murder of his wife at Belleville, has been released from state prison on a ten days' parole issued by Governor Durbin to visit his parents, who are reported fatally ill at their home near Winchester. Hinshaw formerly was a preacher, and always has protested his innocence.

COLUMBIA IN DRY DOCK.

New York, Aug. 26.—The former cup defender, the Columbia, was placed in dry dock in Brooklyn today for cleaning and examination preparatory to taking part next Saturday off Newport, in the first of the official trials to select a defender to meet the Shamrock. She will probably be taken to Newport next Wednesday.

FATAL SUNDAY AFFRAY.

Seneca Falls, N. Y., Aug. 26.—Justin Apple and George Smelzer, of Geneva, and James Colgan and Edward Relfe, of this village, became involved in a quarrel at Bull's grove yesterday. Several hours later, while on the way from the park to take the trolley car, the men met again and resumed the quarrel, during which Apple and Smelzer were both stabbed with a large pocket knife. Apple died this morning and Smelzer is not expected to live. Relfe and Colgan were arrested, together with two colored women and two white men, who are held as witnesses. One of the latter, it is claimed, saw the blows struck.

DAMAGE BY A STORM.

Centralia, Ill., Aug. 26.—A heavy wind storm, followed by a cloudburst, today wrecked the colored Baptist church and destroyed many peach orchards. Fifteen thousand bushels of peaches were knocked off the trees. Electric light and trolley systems were disabled.

BOER LEADERS SEND A DEFIANCE

Steyn, DeWet and Botha Tell Kitchener They Mean to Keep on Fighting---A British Detachment is Captured.

London, Aug. 26.—A dispatch from Lord Kitchener, dated from Pretoria today, says: "Three officers and sixty-five men, who were sent north of Ladybrand (Orange River Colony) on the right of Elliott's columns, were surrounded on unfavorable ground and captured by a superior force August 22. One man was killed and four were wounded. The prisoners were released. Am holding an inquiry.

"Have received a long letter from Steyn containing an argumentative statement of the Boer case and saying he will continue to fight; also a short letter from DeWet to the same effect.

"Botha writes acknowledging the receipt of my proclamation and protesting against it, and stating that the Boers intend to go on fighting. On the other hand, the surrenders lately have increased considerably."

LESSON THAT WAS NEEDED.

A Philadelphia railroad contractor who has recently returned from abroad tells of an experience that befell him in Munich illustrative of the difference in prevailing customs, says the Chicago Chronicle. Armed with a number of letters of introduction to European railroad officials, he made it a point to inquire into the workings of the various systems and was treated with uniform courtesy. At Munich he thought he had acquired all the information he was after, and as he passed out of the office of the man with whom he had been talking he put on his hat.

He had scarcely been ushered out when it occurred to him that there was one matter about which he had forgotten to inquire. "I immediately retraced my steps," said the Philadelphian, "and again entered the office, neglecting to remove my hat. I saw the same official with whom I had been talking, and apologizing for taking so much of his time, I put the question to him. Without a word he reached up, took off my hat and placed it in my hand. Then he answered my query and bowed me out. It made me feel rather cheap."

HE WAS ROASTED

TENNESSEE MOB PUTS NEGRO TO THE STAKE.

WITNESSED BY THOUSANDS

IT WAS SUNDAY AND EVERYBODY COULD ATTEND.

VICTIM DIED LIKE A STOIC

HIS CRIME WAS FIENDISH TO LAST DEGREE.

Winchester, Tenn., Aug. 26.—Another negro has paid the penalty of his crime by death at the stake.

Twelve miles from this city a mob of 6,000 people saw Henry Noles, who last Friday assaulted and murdered the wife of Charles Williams, a farmer, burned to death and in all that multitude there was not a man or woman to raise a voice in behalf of the doomed wretch.

From miles around they had gathered near the scene of the crime and the unanimous verdict was death by fire. Hundreds of farmers had brought their wives and children to see the horrible punishment meted out to the guilty man. Determination was written upon every face and there was no sign of pity. The crime had been the worst possible for a man to commit and the punishment should be proportioned to it.

CROWD SURROUNDS THE JAIL.

Noles was captured early yesterday morning near Cowan. He was brought to Winchester by his captors and placed in the county jail. Sheriff Stewart made haste to try to barricade the jail and protect the prisoner.

Soon an angry mob of several hundred men gathered. Assistant Attorney General Matt N. Whittaker made a speech to the crowd, appealing to the members to assist him in allaying excitement and upholding the majesty of the law. He promised to reconvene the grand jury today to indict the negro and have him speedily tried at the present term of court, assuring the crowd that his conviction and legal execution was a foregone conclusion. This appeal was supplemented by others from Judge J. J. Lynch, Capt. W. P. Talley, Jesse H. Littleton, Foster Ramsey and others.

TAKE PRISONER FROM SHERIFF.

All this time citizens from the neighborhood where the crime was committed had been arriving and augmented the crowd to thousands. They swept forward upon the jail, overpowered the sheriff and his deputies, took the prisoner and started for the scene of the crime, twelve miles distant, at 10:15 a. m.

The mob was orderly, but determined. It seemed that the whole population for miles around had turned out to see the fate of the wretch. A procession three miles in length followed the mob to the Williams home. Arriving at a point in sight of the scene of the crime, the negro was placed upon a stump and given a chance to make a statement.

He mounted the stump stolidly and laughed as he began his statement. He said: "Tell all my sisters and brothers to meet me in glory. I am going to make that my home. Tell my mother to meet me where parting will be no more."

He was then asked whether anyone else was implicated in the crime. Noles stated emphatically that there was no one implicated but himself.

"Why did you kill Mrs. Williams?" was asked.

"I just done that because I had nothing else to do."

He finished his statement at 1:35 p. m. He was taken from the stump, carried to a tree near by, bound to the tree by chains and his body saturated with oil.

DIES IN THE FLAMES.

At 1:40 p. m. a match was applied and instantly the quivering body was enveloped in flames. Fence rails were piled about the burning body and soon life was extinct. The negro made no outcry at any time and died as stolidly as a stoic.

There were no disorderly scenes about the burning body. Many people remained until nightfall adding to the fire until the body was entirely consumed.

HUSBAND LEARNS OF CRIME.

Lying on the floor of the family room, her face splashed with clotted blood, and the oaken planks stained with the same drops, Charles Williams found his devoted young wife Friday afternoon when he returned from marketing his wheat in the little town of Maxwell. A bullet had gone through her head, life was completely extinct and her two little children were crying aloud their grief and fear. The oldest boy, aged five, told what had occurred. The young mother had been shot and killed by Henry Noles, a negro hand upon Williams' place. As the mortally wounded woman sank to the floor Noles shot at the boy, the bullet grazing the child's head. Then he fled to the woods. Williams' neighbors were stirred to the pitch of exacting merciless and summary justice. On receipt of news of the crime Sheriff Stewart departed for the scene with bloodhounds. A posse of determined citizens, well armed and provided with a rope, was also on Noles' trail.

Mr. Williams is a farmer, well to do and one of the most prominent residents of his section of Franklin county. The dead woman was a member of one of the oldest families in the county. The two children were the only witnesses of the crime.

THE DEATHS AND FUNERALS

HILKER.

Florence Hilker, infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Anthony Hilker, of Summit street, died Sunday morning from cholera infantum at the age of six months.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday moring at 8:30 from the residence and at 9 o'clock from St. Mary's Catholic church

FUNERAL ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Rank.—Funeral services of Mrs. Mary Rank, will be held Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 from the residence and at 2 o'clock from St. Joe chapel. Rev. Norris and Rev. Rehl will officiate.

IN THE JUSTICES' COURTS.

James W. DeLong has been arrested on a charge of trespass, preferred by Winfield Ludwick. Both the parties live in Eel River township and the hearing will be in Tancey's court.

In the case of Harry Biter, the Western Union messenger boy, against Dora Hardendorf, for running him down with horse and buggy, the defendant failed to appear in Tancey's court this morning to answer to the charge according to agreement. At Hardendorf's request the case was continued until this morning and he was allowed to go without bail. He failed to show up and could not be found. The justice now proposes to find him with an attachment if possible.

Tenneson, the Garrett undertaker fined in France's court on Saturday for failure to observe the health laws regarding burial permits, has filed notice of his appeal from the decision of the lower court.

RYAN-DARBY.

This afternoon at 2 o'clock, Rev. H. J. Norris, pastor of the Berry street M. E. church, united in marriage Miss Ida B. Darby and Frank B. Ryan, both of this city. Mr. and Mrs. Ryan left this afternoon for Hartford City, where they will make their home.

ALLEN COUNTY CENTENNARIAN IS NO MORE.

MRS. RANK PASSES AWAY

END CAME SUNDAY EVENING AT THE OLD HOME.

HERS A REMARKABLE LIFE

WAS WIDELY KNOWN AMONG THE OLD PIONEERS.

In a primitive log cabin in St. Joe township, a few miles north of Fort Wayne, where she has resided for half a century, Mrs. Mary Rank died Sunday evening at the remarkable age of more than 100 years. Mrs. Rank became a centennarian in August last, and had she lived until Thursday of the present week she would have completed here 101st year.

For fifty years Mrs. Rank has resided upon the little farm where her life closed Sunday evening. It is on the St. Joe road, about one-fourth of a mile north of Riverview stock farm. A narrow lane running back from the main highway leads to the house, which is sheltered behind a strip of woods and is barely visible from the main traveled road. Here the aged woman had lived, under the faithful care of her daughter, Miss Tamer Rank. Children who enjoyed more pretentious homes would have gladly shared them with the aged mother, but she preferred to remain at the old homestead, erected years ago by her husband, and surrounded by tender memories of the past.

Though possessed of a remarkable vitality, Mrs. Rank has for some years been greatly enfeebled and subject to occasional attacks of weakness. Little more than a year ago, while walking in her garden, she was overcome by vertigo, occasioned by the heat, and fell, inflicting an injury upon her head that confined her to her bed for several weeks. She recovered, however, and a year ago the celebration of the one hundredth anniversary of her birth was a memorable occasion. Recently the pioneer woman has grown more feeble. Day by day the feeble spark of life grew fainter, and Sunday morning it became apparent that the end was near. Other relatives were summoned, and at 7 o'clock last evening the pioneer woman peacefully closed her eyes in death.

BORN IN ENGLAND.

Mrs. Rank was born on Bamby Common, between York and Puckington, England, August 29, 1800, her maiden name being Newsome. She was married November 26, 1826, to James Rank, and they were the parents of thirteen children. Ten were born in England and three in America, and ten of them lived to the age of maturity. In 1844 the family removed to America, living for seven years in New York state. They came to Allen county in 1851, settling upon the farm where Mrs. Rank lived until her death, and the log cabin in which her closing years were spent was the identical structure erected by her husband after clearing the tract of land half a century ago. The husband and father died in 1877, after having been an invalid for twenty-five years. Most of the children had also preceded the mother to the grave. James and William were sailors. The former died at sea and the latter bade his mother good-bye one day and sailed from port, strong in the flush of young manhood, never to return. His ship was never heard of again. The eldest child, Anna, now Mrs. Broom, who was born in 1827, lives in Kansas. Newsome, born in 1828, lives in Nebraska. Eli, now seventy-two, lives in Fort Wayne. George, now living in Michigan, was born in 1834; Ezra in 1844, Joab in 1846, Richard in 1835. Two sons named Christopher and a daughter, Mary, are dead. Miss Tamer, the youngest of the children, lived with her mother, having devoted her whole life to the care of her parents.

The grandchildren are Mrs. Michael Wambach, of this city, who has three daughters who called Mrs. Rank great-grandmother; George Rank, who has three children; Mrs. Maggie Stoddard, of Michigan, who has two children; Mrs. Irene Laisure, of Fort Wayne, who has one child; Mrs. Ida Castel, of Nebraska, who has one child; Mrs. Anna Payne, of Fort Wayne, who is the mother of two children; Newsome Broom, of Nebraska, who has two children, and James Broom, of Kansas, who also has two children who called the centenarian great-grandmother.

Four of Mrs. Rank's sons were soldiers in the union army during the civil war, and a grandson has been serving in the Philippines.

A STURDY CHARACTER.

Mrs. Rank belonged to that sturdy, courageous type of pioneer that came into a new country, endured its hardships and braved its dangers in order that a home might be builded and that her children might have the highest advantages. Hers was a lofty Christian character, and in the pioneer days when churches were few in number and far between it is remembered that her faith never wavered. In the cabins of the early settlers she gathered the pioneers for worship, and often led those prayer services herself. Every old settler knew and esteemed her.

During the past decade, enfeebled alike of body and of mind, she has patiently awaited the end, and it has been necessary for friends to keep a close watch over her. On two occasions a couple of years ago she eluded their notice and walked to Fort Wayne, greatly alarming her friends, though she apparently suffered no discomforts from the fatigue. Her memory ran back into the early part of the last century, and it was her delight when in a reminiscent mood to tell of the excitement following the battle of Waterloo, fought in 1815, when she was but a little girl. Snatches of old songs of the period were also recalled, and a conversation would bring forth a wealth of forgotten historical lore of days long since departed. Hers was indeed a remarkable life—an exceptional figure that stands conspicuous among the types of pioneer days—a life full, rounded and complete.

HE WILL BOARD AT THE JAIL

DENNIS HOULIHAN GIVEN A STIFF SENTENCE.

Fined $300 and Sent to Jail for Six Months for Larceny—His Record a Bad One.

Dennis Houlihan's troubles culminated this morning at police court when Judge Louttit sentenced him to the county jail for six months and assessed a fine against him of $300. The jail sentence is a cinch and unless he pays his fine he will be Sheriff Stout's guest for 495 days, which will let him out just a little too late for the watch night services on New Year's eve, 1903. In pronouncing the sentence the judge said that although the provocation was a grievous one he would not inflict the extreme penalty, as he might have made the fine $500 and the imprisonment a year. Mr. Houlihan did not kick at having his dose cut pretty nearly in half. Houlihan was arrested on Saturday for attempting to "flim flam" a man out of a twenty-dollar bill. The man was drunk and was buying drinks, and in course of his purchases he threw a roll of bills down on the bar at the corner of Lewis and Calhoun streets. Houlihan told him he had too much money in sight to settle for the drinks, and picked up the roll to hand it back to him. During the handing process he managed to slip off a twenty-dollar bill, which the bar tender detected him in doing and forced him to give back. Houlihan was arrested for intoxication and after the evidence was collected the charge was changed to larceny, on which he was fined and sentenced. It developed during the trial that Houlihan has a record back of him that would do justice to any professional crook. Superintendent Gorsline sprung the record in court and it showed that Houlihan and Jack Cain had been in frequent trouble at Cleveland, where they were arrested frequently for violations of the law, but generally escaped punishment. They, however, both served jail and workhouse sentences and were regarded by the Cleveland police as a bad lot. Cain is wanted at Zanesville, Ohio.

John Martin, a fake jewelry peddler arrested with Houlihan, but not shown to have been interested with him, was sent over for fifteen days for vagrancy. He made no kick and appeared to be glad to have got off so easily after he had heard Houlihan's title read.

William Jones, a colored vagrant, arrested on Walton avenue, was sent over to the Stout hotel for a period of fifteen days.

POLICE NOTES.

Fred Dorsey got a fighting package stowed away in his cargo last Saturday night and undertook to clean out the boarding house at No. 30 Lafayette street, where he was wont to fodder. Mr. Dorsey was run in and this morning was given fifteen days in the county jail.

Someone broke into the east end car barn a night or two ago and stole a lot of copper and brass material, new and old, used in trimming cars. The officers are watching the junk shops. Several months ago a similar raid on the barns was made, but the thieves were caught and punished.

The patrol wagon was given a false run out on Superior street last night, where it was reported a man had been hurt in a runaway accident. No runaway was seen or heard of by anyone in the vicinity.

ATTEMPT TO WRECK A TRAIN.

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 26.—A special to the Post-Express from Caledonia says an unsuccessful attempt was made last evening near that place to wreck the second section of west-bound Lehigh express train No. 7, scheduled to arrive there at 8:08. Two fish-plates were wedged between the guard rails and the rails of the west-bound track, and behind these were placed several heavy ties so as to make obstruction more complete. A few minutes before the train with about 400 passengers was due a track hand discovered the obstacle, and succeeded in removing them in the nick of time. The embankment at the obstruction is about thirty-five feet high

DRANK FATAL DOSE OF CREOSOTE.

Rosenthal, who arrived quickly, but he found that life had been extinct for some time, and it is probable that death ensued shortly after the man re-entered the house after calling frantically to his neighbor.

Members of the family say the man had been suffering from toothache and that he had used creosote as a remedy, and they believe the man simply took too large a dose by accident. Dr. Barnett says there is no outside indication by which the size of the dose can be determined, though the glass from which it was taken would hold perhaps an ounce and one-half. The mouth is extensively burned by the fiery drug and the tongue is perfectly dry, indicating to the coroner that the dose must have been quite a heavy one, and that the drug was probably not diluted.

ABOUT THE COURT HOUSE

Sheriff Bray, of Hamilton county, Ind., was in the city Saturday to deliver a feeble-minded patient to the state institution.

Deputy Sheriff Ecks spent Sunday out of the city and his colleagues and associate are satisfied that the final arrangements have been made. So far as known the date has not yet been set, however.

The September term of the circuit court will commence next Monday morning.

Harvey Hartle has commenced divorce proceedings against Lola Hartle. Abandonment is charged.

Charles Vogt, jr., et al., have commenced proceedings against George Tigges et al. on note and account; demand, $800.

This is the last day of the superior court. The next term will begin on the second Monday in September, being the 9th.

In the case of Wishart vs. Fairfield, on trial several days in the superior court, the court today found for the plaintiff on the petition to quiet title and rendered a special finding as to the facts and the law. The case will be appealed.

In the case of Grace Tegtmeyer vs. Henry W. Tegtmeyer for divorce, in which a decree was entered some weeks ago, a judgment for costs was today rendered against the defendant.

The Smith-Nixon Piano company has commenced replevin proceedings against Victoria Calderwell; demand, $100.

THEY DRENCHED HIM.

Cleveland, Ohio, Aug. 26.—Because Thomas Oldecker, a non-union workman in the Crescent Tin Plate mill, deserted twenty-five of his non-union comrades, who still remain at work today, they turned a water hose on him, drenching him thoroughly. District Vice President Ward, of the Amalgamated association, called the attention of the mill officials to the action of their men and told them that if there was a repetition of such acts the union men would resent it. Oldecker has been working but a few days.

MILLIONS OF PEOPLE

Use CUTICURA SOAP, assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT, the great skin cure, for preserving, purifying, and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp of crusts, scales, and dandruff, and the stopping of falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough, and sore hands, for baby rashes, itchings, and chafings, and for all the purposes of the toilet, bath, and nursery. Millions of Women use CUTICURA SOAP in the form of baths for annoying irritations, inflammations, and excoriations, or too free or offensive perspiration, in the form of washes for ulcerative weaknesses, and for many sanative, antiseptic purposes which readily suggest themselves to women, and especially mothers. No amount of persuasion can induce those who have once used it to use any other, especially for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp, and hair of infants and children. CUTICURA SOAP combines in ONE SOAP at ONE PRICE, the BEST skin and complexion soap, and the BEST toilet, bath, and baby soap in the world.

OFF FOR LOUISVILLE.

The Fort Wayne contingent of Knights Templar left at 12:30 this morning over the Grand Rapids and Indiana for Louisville, to attend the triennial conclave, and the trip promises to be a most enjoyable one. There are about sixty in the Fort Wayne party, occupying two Pullman sleepers, and a number of knights from surrounding towns joined them here. The party will return Friday night.

DIED AT CHICAGO.

James O. Jensen, formerly owner of the Riverside hotel in this city, died at the Lakeside hospital in Chicago Friday from the effects of a surgical operation. Mr. Jensen was forty-five years of age, and has recently been a resident of Traverse City, Mich. Surviving are his mother and a brother, William Jensen, of this city, who was with him at the time the operation was performed. The remains were taken to Lockport, N. Y., for interment.

GIRL CLIMBS TALL STEEPLE.

Ashland. Mass., Aug. 24.—Miss Jessie Foote, of this city, climbed the steeple of the Methodist church yesterday, a distance of 135 feet, and after calmly viewing her surroundings descended to the ground to receive the congratulations of a few friends who witnessed the feat. For several days steeple painters had been at work on the church steeple and a string of ladders was lashed to one side of the structure clear to the top. Up this frail and treacherous stairway Miss Foote ascended, patted the top notch of the steeple three times with her right hand while standing there and then came down. She was cool and calm when she reached the ground.

SPIRIT WRITING ON SLATES.

Spiritualistic slate writing, if cleverly done, always makes a marked impression on the magician's audience, because it utterly baffles their efforts to detect the trick. They see a small cabinet suspended above the stage by means of cords or ribbons. It has an open front and is empty. The magician turns it around so that every part of it may be seen and taps it inside and out with his wand to show that it is hollow.

On a stand near by he has a small easel, a common school slate, a bottle of India ink, with a quill pen in it, and a few sheets of ordinary white writing paper. All these he passes around among the audience for examination. Then he fixes a sheet of the paper to the slate by means of wafers, places the slate on the easel and the easel in the cabinet, together with the bottle of ink, the latter having the pen still in it.

Having allowed the audience to see the articles thus arranged in the cabinet, he throws a large silk handkerchief over it. Mysterious sounds are immediately heard and the cabinet shakes as if some living thing had entered it. When the sounds and the shaking cease he removes the handkerchief, showing an inscription written in bold black letters on the paper, and the pen not in the ink bottle, but lying on the bottom of the cabinet. He then removes the paper from the slate and passes it around for examination, when the writing is immediately recognized as having been done with India ink.

The explanation of the trick is simple. The writing was done in advance by the performer, the fluid used being a solution of sulphuric acid of the purest quality. To make the solution fifty drops of the concentrated acid are added to one ounce of filtered water. Writing done with this solution is invisible until exposed to heat; when so exposed it comes out perfectly black, looking like dried India ink.

The heat is applied by means of an electric current running over a wire with which the slate is wound. The cords by which the cabinet is suspended conceal copper wires, which conduct the current to the slate. Black silk threads, suitably attached, enable the performer to make the sounds in the cabinet, to cause the cabinet to shake and to jerk the pen out of the ink bottle.

Several sheets of paper are prepared in advance, each with a different inscription, the performer telling one inscription from another by secretly marked pin pricks.

Saturday was the greatest clothing day Patterson's store has ever known.

MATTIE BEAL LEAVES LAWTON.

Wichita, Kan., Aug. 24.—Miss Mattie Beal, the lucky winner of claim No. 2 in the Lawton land district, has returned to Wichita and has resumed her old position as operator in the telephone office. Fortune did not turn her head in the least, apparently, and she is the same "Hello Girl" as before the drawing. It is possible that she is the wealthiest telephone girl in America, as her farm is said to be worth $20,000 to $25,000. Miss Beal will work in the telephone office until Feb. 21, when she must occupy her claim and remain on it for eight months.

KILLED HIS ASSAILANT.

Eureka Springs, Ark., Aug. 24.—James Kizer, a former policeman, was shot to death last night by Dr. L. D. Fuller, whom he attacked on Main street. Kizer felled the physician by a blow from behind and then kicked the prostrate man in the head. Dr. Fuller regained his feet and shot Kizer to death. Dr. Fuller is perhaps fatally hurt. The tragedy grew out of a disputed debt.

LAWYERS SIGHTSEEING.

Denver, Col., Aug. 24.—About 400 members of the American Bar association, relatives and friends, left Denver today in a special train to visit points of interest in the mountains. The meeting of the association here was attended by 311 members, and was the largest meeting the association ever held. New members to the number of 227 were taken in at this meeting, making a total membership of 1,802, representing thirty-nine states. Next year's meeting will be held at Saratoga, August 27, 28 and 29.

BANANAS.

Scarcity of domestic grown fruits caused another record in the importation of bananas to be broken, when three vessels, all laden with the tempting fruit of the West Indies, came up the Delaware almost abreast, bound for Pier 5, North Wharves.

One of the three was the Russian steamboat Urania, with 16,300 bunches of bananas stowed away in her hold, and the others were the Norwegian steamships Spero and Leon, the former carrying 12,000 bunches and the latter 14,000 bunches, a grand total for the three ships of 42,300 bunches. Averaged at sixty bananas to each bunch, this means that 2,638,000 bananas were unloaded altogether, or nearly two for each resident of Philadelphia.

So great was the inward rush of the fruit that one of the ships, the Spero, was unable to find dock room, and her cargo was brought to shore in lighters, while the Spero lay at anchor in the middle of the Delaware off Pier 5. This is one of the rarest of happenings in this port, and the proceedings were watched with interest by a big crowd of spectators. The unprecedented demand for men to unload the bananas, work which the importers find it pays to do with especial quickness while the big consumption of the fruit is on, naturally sent longshoremen's wages skyward, and the pockets of many of them were jingling with coin at the end of the day.—Philadelphia Inquirer.

Robison Park Theater—Vaudeville.

Kansas republicans are loud for Roosevelt for the presidency in 1904, but even the careful listener cannot yet hear anything from the east that sounds like an echo.

At least there is the chance that the dowager empress of China will some time die and thus open the way for a settlement of the questions that have been keeping the choicest diplomats of the world's greatest powers working overtime for six months.

After a critical examination of Judge Baker's injunction against the Conkey strikers at Hammond we make the sensational discovery that the judge has neglected to enjoin the strikers not to think of Conkey's printing plant, or of the strike or of anything thereunto pertaining.

We have no doubt that those people in Tennessee who gathered by thousands to see a negro burned at the stake will, when they come to think it over, conclude that as a Sunday diversion it was pressing the limit mighty close to the improprieties. However, as the victim did not appear to mind it, it may be supposed the spectators think themselves excused.

At latest accounts the Chinese plenipotentiaries had not yet received authority to sign the peace protocol, and there is some uneasiness among the foreign diplomats at Pekin in consequence. Li Hung Chang, who has conducted the negotiations on the part of China, is bitterly assailed by the entire native press, and denounced as a traitor to his country for surrendering to the "foreign devils." It is probable that this sentiment may account for the hesitation of the court to give its sanction to the protocol; but it is hardly thought likely that the Chinese government would dare defy the civilized world by a refusal to accept the settlement proposed and, in fact, dictated by the allied powers.

It is getting to be a very common thing for nations having affairs to settle with Turkey and bills to collect of the sultan to proceed with a show of force. The United States succeeded in this way and France has just profited by our salutary example. But Abdul Hamid will sooner or later conceive that he is being bluffed out of the game and then—well, he will probably want to "see" the hand held against him. If it comes to that somebody else than the sultan will have to back down or assume responsibility for trouble that European powers do not just now want developed.

Captain Forsyth, of the navy, in command of the naval station at Key West during the Spanish war and later in command of the battleship Indiana, contributes an opinion to the Sampson-Schley controversy. He agrees with Admiral Schley that the victory over Cervera's fleet furnished "glory enough for all," and then goes on to say that the bad feeling in the navy is due to the promotion of a junior officer to command over his seniors. That doubtless is true, so far as it goes. But it does not account for the treatment that has been accorded to Admiral Schley since the naval victory at Santiago. If Sampson had not failed altogether of participation in the battle there would have been a different story to write, no doubt. To permit the man who was jumped over nearly two score of his seniors in order to give him a supreme command to share in the honors of victory and receive a chief's share of the prize money it has been conceived that the officer who actually did command in the battle must be undone. Admiral Sampson's failure at the proper time to show himself a broad-minded and generous officer and gentleman has cost him any popularity he once had and all that he might have had. It doubtless is wrong, however, to put upon Admiral Sampson all the blame. He appears to have been in considerable degree the victim of friends in the navy department.

SOLDIER BOY DIES OF FEVER

EUGENE A. MILLER EXPIRES IN PHILLIPINES.

Allen County Boy Was a Private in the Sixth Infantry—Is Buried at Iloilo.

Word has just been received of the death of Eugene A. Miller, an Allen county boy serving as a private in company M, Sixth infantry, which occurred in the military hospital at Iloilo, P. I., from typhoid fever, July 16. The information comes to friends from C. R. Darnall, first lieutenant and assistant surgeon commanding the hospital.

Mr. Miller was twenty-three years of age and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. I. J. Miller, of New Haven. The father is the town marshal, at that place. The young man was formerly manager of the Fort Wayne branch of the Hartzell Ice Cream company and was widely known, not only in New Haven, but in this city also. He had many friends, who will be sorely pained to learn of his death.

Private Miller enlisted in Fort Wayne in April, 1898, and he had a brother, Will Miller, in the Nineteenth infantry. The latter was formerly a member of the Twenty-eight battery. The sad news today was the first intimation the parents had even of their son's illness. They had heard nothing from him for more than two months. The remains of the young soldier have been interred in the English cemetery at Iloilo, in grave No. 124. Friends will later make an effort to have the remains shipped to New Haven.

THEY ARE READY

INDIANAPOLIS PREPARED TO GREET ODD FELLOWS.

LOOK FOR 100,000 VISITORS

A FARMER'S TRAGIC DEATH

DEKALB COUNTY MAN TAKES CARBOLIC ACID.

Indianapolis, Aug. 26.—Preparations for the seventy-seventh annual convention of the Odd Fellows' sovereign grand lodge, in this city, beginning three weeks from today, are practically finished. The committees are counting on an attendance of 100,000, including visitors and delegates. Every state in the union is to be represented.

Other visitors will come from Canada, Nova Scotia, Mexico and Europe.

The Patriarch's Militant, the military branch of the order, will be in camp at the state fair grounds and appear in daily drills and parades.

RIOT IN A PUBLIC PARK.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 26.—Another riot broke out last evening in a crowd of 5,000 people at Fairview park. Four negroes were badly injured and one named Harris had his right arm broken. The trouble was caused by the gang of white toughs from the west side known as the Bungaloos." Members of this gang to the number of 150 congregated at the park and began a determined effort to drive all the negroes out.

Near the boat house a dozen of them attacked a negro with his wife. He was knocked down several times. With a club he fought back, injuring two of the gang, but he was compelled to run toward the pavilion, where park officers came to his rescue. The fight was continued to the car and after the negro and his wife were on the car stones were thrown, injuring his wife.

Harris was attacked in another part of the park about the same time and his right arm was broken before he was rescued. Two other negroes, one with his wife, were badly beaten. Twelve police were sent from the city to quell the riot and their arrival stopped the trouble. Four members of the gang were arrested, the others scattering in the woods. In a similar riot several weeks ago six shots were fired and one white man was badly injured by a bullet.

TRAIN STRIKES STREET CAR.

Indianapolis, Ind., Aug. 26.—Fourteen persons were more or less injured in a collision between a Greenfield avenue interurban car and a train on the Belt railroad yesterday morning.

The conductor motioned the motorman to come ahead at the Belt crossing. The freight engine with a dozen cars was approaching, and as the electric car reached the center of the track the freight cars struck it and threw it to the side of the track. The electric car was new and of heavy construction. It withstood the impact and was not crushed, otherwise the death list would have been heavy. The motorman and conductor were thrown to the ground and badly injured. They were taken to their homes. There were twelve passengers on the car, nearly all from Greenfield, coming to this city to take the Cincinnati excursion.

ROW ABOUT A DEAD BODY.

Evansville, Ind., Aug. 26.—The remains brought here by Mrs. George William Schmitt Saturday are those of a cripple who died in the City hospital at St. Louis. This was the result of a mistake by the authorities at the hospital, who sent the casket containing the cripple instead of the one containing her husband's body. Mrs. Schmitt refuses to pay the expenses of shipping the body to St. Louis and the authorities there do not show any disposition to pay the charges. The undertaker says he will not hold the body unless his pay is guaranteed. The city authorities say they will not touch the body, as St. Louis should have it shipped back there, and that unless that city does so Evansville can bring suit against the city in the United States court.

HELD FOR SHOOTING SPOUSE.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 26.—Frances B. Frye, the Chicago woman who shot and probably fatally wounded Thos. J. Frye, of this city, Thursday night, was taken into custody at the Holy Family hospital yesterday by Sheriff Small. Mrs. Frye had been at the hospital since the night of the shooting, a constant attendant at the bedside of the man whose life she sought to take while laboring under the belief that he was not true to her. She will be held in custody pending the result of the wound received by Frye. The latter's condition, while somewhat improved, is still extremely critical. He refuses to make any statement which will incriminate Mrs. Frye. She is believed to have fired the shot while suffering from temporary aberration.

OSSIFIED MAN IS DOOMED.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 26.—The remarkable malady of Eli Green, who has returned to his home at North Judson after receiving treatment from medical experts, has been pronounced incurable. Green is going through the process of ossification. His upper body is rapidly turning to stone. The upper part of his stomach is as hard as rock, as also is the upper part of his arms at limbs. A knife can be run into his body at places without his feeling it. He has been baked in ovens heated at 120 degrees, but with little improvement. His heart is being gradually incrusted with a stony formation which sooner or later will stop its action. He no longer perspires and his weight is steadily increasing.

The extraordinary conditions in Green's case began to develop about a year ago. The progress of ossification was then slow. Physicians say that when life has been literally crushed out of the human frame Green's body will literally be a stone corpse. The medical experts who have examined Green say there is only one parallel case in medical annals and that was recently reported from Austria. The conditions which contribute to the phenomena of Green's case are an enigma to the medical fraternity.

SERIOUSLY HURT IN WRECK.

LaPorte, Ind., Aug. 26.—Seventeen cars of a westbound Lake Shore freight train were piled up in a wreck at 3 o'clock yesterday morning at Burdick, a station fifteen miles west of this city. The air brakes failed to operate and the train was cut into two sections, which collided with terrific force, piling up an immense amount of wreckage. J. C. Keeler, of Garrett, received serious injuries. He was taking a car of cattle to Chicago and was pinioned in one of the wrecked cars. The other cars were loaded with merchandise and the loss to the company will reach $20,000. The tracks were blockaded for several hours and passenger trains went around the wreck over other roads.

FILES A REMARKABLE DEED.

Columbus, Ind., Aug. 26. The most remarkable deed ever recorded in this county was filed with Recorder Hiner Saturday morning. It is a warranty deed from Daisy Edwards and her husband, Solomon Edwards, who have been dead for several months, to Ralph Spaugh, of this city. Justice Pancake, of Clifford, acknowledges the deed in the following language:

"State of Indiana, Bartholomew County, ss.—Before me, William E. Pancake, a justice of the peace in and for the said county and state, the 8th day of August, personally appeared Daisy Edwards and Solomon Edwards, deceased, and acknowledged the execution of the annexed deed."

DRANK CARBOLIC ACID.

Auburn, Ind., Aug. 26.—A tragic death occurred near Spencerville Saturday night. Philip Canada, a well-known and respected citizen, drank carbolic acid and died almost instantly. Canada is an old soldier. He was past sixty years of age, while his wife is ten years his junior, and they owned the twenty-acre tract upon which they for years resided. Feeling indisposed, Canada went to the cupboard, and, after taking down and examining a dozen or more bottles, swallowed what he supposed was peppermint, but proved to be carbolic acid. He went immediately to his chores, but he felt the effect of the deadly poison and started for the house, where he met his wife, and, falling to his knees, died before crossing the threshold. He has two brothers in Waterloo, and, with his widow, these are the only relatives that survive him.

ALL-DAY SUNDAY SERVICES.

Winona Lake, Ind., Aug. 26.—The Bible conference held services from sunrise until 10 o'clock last night. The early morning service was conducted by S. D. Gordon, of Cleveland, head of the Ohio evangelization movement. Rev. John Willis Baer, of Boston, secretary of the World's United Christian Endeavor societies, addressed large crowds in the morning and afternoon. The conference on Sunday school work was led by J. Wilbur Chapman. At 11 o'clock Rev. L. W. Munhall, of New York, opened the conference for evangelists, delivering a lecture on "The Inspiration of the Scriptures." In the afternoon the illustrated service for young people was conducted by Rev. J. W. Vandeventer, of Scotland, an eminent Sunday school worker. The leading afternoon address was delivered by Rev. James M. Buckley, editor of the Methodist Christian Advocate, New York. At sunset the Hillside service was led by Todd B. Hall, of Baltimore, "the detective evangelist." Over 5,000 people were seated on the grass-covered natural amphitheater of the assembly grounds when this service was held. Rev. John McNeil, of Scotland, preached a powerful evening sermon in the auditorium, which has a seating capacity of 2,500. During the service fully 2,000 stood outside, unable to get seats. The conference will close on Tuesday evening.

SENATOR FLEMING TO COACH.

Senator Stephen Fleming will coach the high school foot ball team this year, and the high school boys fully anticipate that they will whip every team they go up against fall. Mr. Fleming was famous as a foot ball player a few days ago, and has coached a number of winning teams since his college days. The prospects for a strong high school team this year are excellent, and while the team will be lighter than the one of last year, it is expected that they will play better ball under Senator Fleming's training. Captain McCormick will begin practice the early part of next month, and the first game will probably be played about September 28. Manager Arthur Parry has booked several good games, and is arranging to bring the strong Indianapolis team here as a Thanksgiving day attraction.

FIX NEW AGE LIMIT.

The local civil service board has been advised by the post office department of a new age limitation governing applicants for positions in the postal department. To be eligible the applicant must be between the ages of 18 and 45 years, except in case of persons who have received honorable discharges from the military or naval service of the United States by reason of wounds or illness contracted in the service. In this case age limitation is waived. Heretofore clerks must have been at least 18 years of age, and carriers from 21 to 35.

MANY THANKS - - - - - -

Yes---and a great many too. We have a great many people to thank for their willingness to respond to our Friday's "ad" asking people to trade as early in the day, and as quickly as possible on Saturday. Thousands of people bought goods of us Saturday. Our checks show that 3,252 paid cash at our store Saturday. They came early and traded quickly. Many a man bought the first suit of clothes we showed him. That was more than we expected, but we appreciated it. Five more days of this great slaughter. We can give you more attention this week.

CALEDONIANS HAVE AN OUTING

FIELD MEET AT ROBISON PARK SATURDAY.

Large Crowd Witnesses an Interesting Program of Events—The Results.

The annual field sports of the Caledonian society, held at Robison park Saturday, were the most successful in years, and a large crowd filled the grand stand and overflowed into the athletic field. Max Wehnert scored the most points, eight and one-half, and received the silver smoking set donated by James B. White. The Caledonian tug-of-war team defeated the Pennsylvania team, pulling them six inches. The most amusing event was the capture of the greased pig, there being eight entries for the event. His porkship was not very frisky and he was captured by John Tompkins without difficulty. Piper James Berry, of Aberdeen, Scotland, furnished music for the games and for the Scottish dances in the evening. The result of the field sports was as follows:

Quoiting—Won by James Miller; David Miller, second; James Gillie, third.

100-yard dash—Won by David McNaught; James Hayes, second; Max Wehnert, third. Time—11 seconds.

100-yard dash for boys—Arthur Noll, first; Edgar Wood, second.

100-yard dash for girls—Won by Maggie Gillie; Agnes Gillie, second.

Putting 16-pound shot—John Doggett, first, 35 feet 8 inches; James Hayes, second; Burt Branson, third.

Running high jump—Ernest Zucker, won, 5 feet 3 inches; Harry McMillen, second; Burt Branson, third.

One-mile bicycle race—Nelson Bucker, first; Henry Lahmeyer, second; Burt Branson, third. Time—2:56.

Throwing 16-pound hammer—John Doggett, first, distance, 123 feet 11 inches; James Hayes, second; Peter Gillie, third.

Tug-of-War—Caledonian team won by six inches in a two-minute pull. The Caledonian team was composed of Will Scott, Charles Lahmeyer, Frank Hamilton, Peter Rae, James Gillie, skip. The Pennsylvania team was made up of J. W. Wilson, L. B. Galland, F. E. Blody, James Hayes, F. Borkep, skip.

Three-legged race—Max Wehnert and Henry Wehnert won; James Hayes and K. C. Wilson, second; John Belger and Frank O'Brien, third. Time—13 seconds.

Tossing the caber—James Gillie, on; Will Scott, second; Bert Branson, third. Best throw, 37 feet ½ inch.

Two-mile bicycle race—Nelson Bucker, first; Henry Lahmeyer, second; John Richards, third. Time—6:18.

Sack race—Bert Branson, first; M. Wehnert, second; Henry Lahmeyer, third.

Running broad jump—Max Wehnert, won; John Wagner, second; James Williams, third. Distance, 17 feet 10½ inches.

Half-mile race—K. C. Wilson, won; D. McNaught, second; Henry Wehnert, third. Time—2:20.

MINE BURNING FIERCELY.

Irwin, Pa., Aug. 26.—A fierce fire is burning in the Ocean mine at Herminie and the flames cannot be controlled. The fire was discovered early Sunday morning through dense volumes of smoke coming out of the shaft. The alarm was given and the men organized to fight the flames. It was soon learned that the fire was burning in several entries and nothing was left to do but to flood the mine. Water was turned in yesterday noon, but without avail. It is expected that it will require several days to extinguish the fire. No one was in the mine when it took fire. The Ocean mine is owned by the Berwind-White company and is one of the best equipped in the bituminous region. It is filled with electric machinery and the loss will be large.

THINKS MRS. EDDY SINCERE.

Philadelphia, Pa., Aug. 26.—Rev. Russell H. Conwell, of the Temple Baptist church, said yesterday that if the principles of Christian Science had a universal acceptance there would be only one-quarter of the sickness there is in the world today. He believed that the tenets of the Christian Science followers were about two-thirds true and one-third extreme, and added that if the churches had been wiser and had accepted that part of Christian Science which was true there would have been no Christian Science church. Dowie, he said, was a swindle. Dr. Conwell was for several years counsel for the head of the Christian Science faith, Mrs. Mary Baker Eddy. He says that Mrs. Eddy is a woman of abnomal mental ability, but that she is undoubtedly sincere in her beliefs. Her pretensions to any especial message from God to lead the Christian Science church he did not think were reasonable. "Everyone," said Mr. Conwell, "is enabled to achieve results as a Christian Scientist by the scriptural verse 'According to your faith it shall be unto you.' That is the foundation of Christian Science. There is no special message to Mrs. Eddy. She has only a very great faith and that has made her powerful."

WHY CHUN IS DELAYED.

Berlin, Aug. 26.—The illness of Prince Chun, brother of the emperor of China, who, with a Chinese mission, has arrived at Basel, Switzerland, on his way to Berlin to apologize for the assassination of Baron Von Ketteler, the German minister at Pekin, is, according to a dispatch received here today, from Basel, a pretext for delay, Prince Chung having received orders from Pekin not to proceed, as fresh complications have arisen with reference to the settlement of the protocol.

FOUR O'CLOCK.

The hour of 4 a. m. has something mysterious about it. Cocks crow, people on the brink of death give up the ghost, everyone who is asleep sleeps sounder, and even the watchful sentry can't always keep his eyes open.

At this hour people are in their weakest state, and, if life is just on the flicker, it is not surprising that it goes out. Many a man's life has been saved by a spoonful of brandy or ammonia administered just when the clock strikes four.

The period of deepest sleep varies from 3 o'clock to 5. An hour or two after going to bed you sleep very soundly; then your slumber grows gradually lighter, and it is easy enough to waken you at 1 or 2 o'clock. But when 4 o'clock comes you are in such a state of somnolence that you would take no notice of the end of the world.

Military men are well aware of this curious fact, and they often made sudden assaults on camps or cities between 3 and 5, for they know that at that time the most wideawake sentry is liable to doze.

Strangely, at the corresponding time in the afternoon, most people feel a bit done up. Whether it is due to the electrical condition of the atmosphere, or to the position of the sun, no one knows. But it is a fact that the nervous system, brain and lungs are most vigorous from about 10 or 11 o'clock (night and morning) to 12 or 1, and at their lowest ebb between 3 and 4.

The British islands are better provided with rivers than any other country of the same size on the globe.

HEAT NERVE PROSTRATION.

SUDDEN PROSTRATION IS A FEATURE OF HOT WEATHER

UPSET NERVES AND WEAK NERVE CENTERS ARE THE CAUSES.

All along the line of mental and muscular exhaustion so prevalent during the summer months is the underlying cause of overworked nerves—over consumption of Nerve Tissue which has not been replaced. It is manifested in the mind that refuses to receive and act upon impressions in the usual way—and that, sometimes when attempted to be whipped into work, jumps the bounds of reason and flounders in a maze of confusion. It is manifested physically by an over-tired, languid, exertionless, muscle-relaxed condition that lacks resisting power which is necessary to withstand heat exposure. It's by the influence of Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills in rallying Nerve Force that energy is quickened—the great web like Nerve System of the body vibrates with new life—Brain Nerves—Heart Nerves—Stomach Nerves feel the influence as activity replaces lassitude and strength is regained. The hidden current within which spells life has been brought to nature's required standard.

Mrs. S. Henline, of 283 Webster street, Fort Wayne, Ind., says: "As a nerve tonic Dr. A. W. Chase's Nerve Pills I got at Meyer Bros. & Co.'s drug store, No. 14 Calhoun street, are fine. I was nervous, sleepless and weak. The medicine cured this giving strength, energy, good peaceful sleep and strong steady nerves. I am glad to recommend it."

NO NEW PEACE OVERTURES MADE.

meagre this morning. Probable renewal of peace negotiations by disinterested parties was again being discussed, but nothing definite could be learned.

Henry M. White, of the Garment Makers of America, and Ralph M. Easley, of the National Civic Federation, who took part in the conference in this city last week, left for the east last night, and it is reported that they went to New York to make another attempt to have negotiations between the contending parties reopened.

President Shaffer, however, said today that he knew nothing of the proposed venture, and his association had authorized no new steps for peace.

The combine, it is said, intends to make aggressive attempts to start more plants this week. They were successful in putting two more mills in operation at Painters this morning, and now have four mills, with a force of 400 men at work.

The mills started today were No. 1 bar mill and No. 7 cotton tie mill. The management say that the work being turned out is up to the standard and is being placed on the market.

One of the officials announced today that he had three more crews engaged but that they would not go to work until all the men necessary to operate the six mills had been secured, and then the plant would run at night. He said he was almost certain the entire works would be running at night before the end of this week.

WHAT STRIKERS SAY.

The strike managers, assert that the resumption of these plants in full will be an impossibility, and say the claims of the steel people are not borne out by the facts. They say that they settled the controversy over the management of the Star mills by preventing seven men from entering the plant and that the plant is not running at all this morning.

Vice President Pierce, of the Amalgamated association, said there were less men working in the local mills this morning than for over a week.

President Shaffer had heard nothing from Chicago up to noon. Mr. Tighe, he said, did not go out there to get the men to strike, but just to attend the meeting.

Advices from McKeesport are to the effect that no attempt was made to start the Demmler works last night. The furnaces were fired and the plant lighted, but no men appeared. Ten regular policemen and a large force of pickets guarded the mill all night, but there was no disorder.

The situation at all points is reported quiet, and no trouble is expected.

KNIGHTS IN A WRECK.

Barnesville, Ohio, Aug. 26.—A special train on the Baltimore and Ohio railroad carrying Pennsylvania Knights Templar en route to Louisville, was ditched here today. Engineer Milo Francis, of Zanesville, was killed, and Fireman Walter Boston, of Newark, was fatally injured. So far as known the passengers escaped with slight bruises. The wreck was caused by the train striking a horse on Barnesville hill. The engine jumped the track and the entire train followed.

AROUND THE WORLD.

No one has yet really made a journey round the world. The course usually followed is approximately about 20,0000 miles in length. The shortest time for this distance is that made by George Griffith, an Englishman, who accomplished the distance in 64½ days, as an ordinary passenger, via Suez and Hong Kong.

The only way to make a real trip around the world would be at the equator, where the circumference is 24,855 miles, nearly 5,000 miles longer than the usual route.

Some years ago an Italian offered to accomplish this task in three years, provided the necessary funds were found; but nothing came of it. It is extremely doubtful whether such a feat is within the realms of possibility, as the man rash enough to undertake it would have to spend months in the pestilential basin of the Amazon, hew his way for hundreds of miles through the terrible Congo forest, and cross the great twin islands of Sumatra and Borneo, in a latitude where fever of the deadliest description is everywhere prevalent.

The first regular road in the northern half of Scotland—that is, the portion north of the Firth of Forth—was in 1745.

AN OCEAN CEMETERY.

THE MOST DEADLY TRAP FOR SHIPS IN ALL THE WORLD.

Bare, Bleak and Treeless Quessant, the Notorious Island of Terror, and the Awful Forests That Supply It With Wood in Plenty.

Far out in the Atlantic ocean, off the northern French coast, almost due west from Brest, lies a great rocky island that is one of the most deadly traps for ships in all the world. It is the island of Quessant, the notorious Ile de l'Epouvante, the island of terror. Bare, without a tree to break its monotony, it lies in the path of the ships seeking the English channel. If they steer too far north, the hundred shoals and reefs of the British coast open their jaws for them. If they sail too far south, Quessant reaches for their bones.

Bleak and far away from any other land as the island of terror is, it still has its population. What mysterious thing is it which attracts that population and makes it cling? The infrequent visitor sees funny flocks of little sheep, scarcely twice as large as hares. He sees small herds of rough coated ponies almost as tiny as the sheep. These are the only signs of productive industry to be seen. There is fishing, of course, but fishing can be prosecuted better from the mainland, with less risk and a more convenient market.

What is the mysterious attraction, then? So asked Alexander Shuette, the traveler, when he made his way from the coast of Brittany to Quessant. The answer came, at least in part, one evening when a great storm swept in from the Atlantic and beat at the shores with unexampled fury.

He says: "The daughter of my hostess led me up the narrow staircase to my room. As I ascended I noticed, without remarking the oddity of it at the time, that the staircase was of shining oak. I was ushered into my room, a large, low chamber, completely paneled from top to bottom. Putting the lamp on a huge oak table that shone like a mirror, she said:

"'If you should need more firewood, monsieur, you will find it in the next room. Do not spare it. It is bitter cold, and there will be more than enough firewood in Quessant in two or three days. Good night.'

"I sat down before the blazing fire and prepared for a cozy evening. The storm raged in the narrow streets of the little village. The surges thundered against the granite breast of the coast like endless artillery fire, and sometimes I imagined that the very island trembled under the onslaught of the hundreds of millions of tons of water.

"As I sat listening I gazed into the flames. The wood struck me as strange. And then I wondered. On the entire island there is not a single tree, and yet I had been told not to spare firewood. 'There will be more than enough in two or three days.'

"I arose and opened the door into the next room. That room was possibly 20 feet high and was filled almost to the top with timber. First with wonder, then with growing awe, I gazed at the piles of wood. Truly she was right, the little maid, when she said that one need not be economical with firewood on the island of Quessant. There were timbers of every shape—splintered masts and spars, planks from decks and sides, remnants of a steering wheel, benches from the forecastle, yellow, black, brown, white and red woods, even two figureheads, some bright, as if they were new, some crusted with shells and hung with seaweeds. In the entire room there was not a piece of wood that did not come from some wrecked ship.

"When I returned to my room, I took the lamp and examined the place closely. I noticed a strange, delicate, yet very insistent fragrance—sandalwood. Thick wooden pillars supported the ceiling. They were of a beautiful dull black—ebony, as I lived. The panels were rosewood, mahogany and cedar. Even an unpracticed eye could see that all these precious woods once had ornamented the cabins of noble ships. The heavy carved chairs, the polished oaken table, even the bed in which I was to sleep, all came from shipwrecks.

"Now I understood the meaning of the words 'stand rights.' In favor of this island, far away from the world and murderous for the ships that tie the world together, Æolus, with his bride of the winds, is more fruitful than is Ceres to the mainlands, with her harvest moon and her blessings of fruit. The blessings of Quessant come from the gale.

"The forests of Quessant! Are there such others in the entire world, so unique, so terrible? This forest, instead of trees, has the mighty masts of ships. In that tremendous forest are the oaks and pines of Canada and Maine, the cypress of Florida, the baobabs of Africa, the teak of Hindustan, the ebony and sandalwood of South America. The awful forests of Quessant form the visible apex of a vast cemetery that stretches from New York to Cape La Hague."

Before the Footlights.

"I understand that young man who calls on you," said old Mr. Straitlace, "wants to become an actor."

"Yes," replied his fair daughter, "he does think of appearing before the footlights."

"Humph! The next time he calls you'd better warn him to think of disappearing before the foot lights."—Catholic Standard and Times.

GRANT'S RETREAT.

The General Went When a Policeman's Club Pointed the Way.

Speaking of nightsticks reminds me of seeing General Grant in his to my mind greatest hour, the only time he was ever beaten, and by a policeman. I told his son, Fred Grant, of it when he became a police commissioner in the nineties, but I do not think he appreciated it. He was not cast in his great father's mold. The occasion I refer to was after the general's second term in the presidency. He was staying at the Fifth Avenue hotel, when one morning the Masonic temple was burned. The fire line was drawn half way down the block toward Fifth avenue, but the police were much hampered by the crowd and were out of patience when I, standing by, saw a man in a great ulster with head buried deep in the collar, a cigar sticking straight out, coming down the street from the hotel. I recognized him at sight as General Grant. The policeman who blocked his way did not. He grabbed him by the collar, swung him about and, hitting him a resounding whack across the back with his club, yelled out:

"What's the matter with you? Don't you see the fire lines? Chase yourself out of here and be quick about it."

The general never said a word. He did not stop to argue the matter. He had run up against a sentinel and when stopped went the other way. That was all. The man had a right to be there; he had none. I was never so much an admirer of Grant as since that day. It was true greatness. A smaller man would have made a row, stood upon his dignity and demanded the punishment of the policeman. As for him, there was probably never so badly frightened a policeman when I told him whom he had clubbed. I will warrant he did not sleep for a week, fearing all kinds of things. No need of it. Grant probably never gave him a thought.—Jacob Riis in Outlook.

POPULAR SCIENCE.

Mercury's year is only 88 days, that of Venus 225 days and of Mars 687 days.

Cumulus, or thunder clouds, rarely rise over two miles. Seven miles is the outside height for any cloud.

The edge of the moon is so broken by peaks, ridges and valleys that the length of totality during a solar eclipse is affected by them.

The sun's heat raises from the earth 37,000,000 tons of water a minute. To do the same work artificially a cube of coal 200 miles deep, wide and high would have to be burned every second.

The archaic, wasteful "beehive" oven process of making charcoal has been superseded in many parts of Germany by modern methods which save all the ammonia, gas, tar and other products of the wood.

A human body contains some of the small things of nature. The blood, for example, is a colorless liquid in which little red globules are floating. Every drop of it contains about a million of the globules, and they are susceptible of division into smaller globules still.

Making the Blind See.

Success in desperate cases by conservative treatment is the lesson often repeated and yet never quite sufficiently learned by any physician or surgeon. The infinite ingenuity behind the healing processes, the never renounced struggle toward normality, is an ever renewed source of wonder. All that is needed to elicit it is confidence in it, delay in doing anything radical, watchfulness to follow up the hints to action as they begin to show themselves.

We know of a living and happy patient who ten years ago had albuminuric retinitis from long existing Bright's disease despite what all the textbooks say as to "two years" in such cases. "Don't do the irrevocable thing until forced to do it" is the warning that has saved many organs and lives. Above all, never proceed with surgery ("the despair of medicine") until physiologic and medical methods have been exhausted.

The Wiener Klinischer Wochenschrift tells of the success of Herr Heller, director of an asylum for the blind, in educating the remnant of visual power retained by a "blind" child. There was only perception of light in a narrowed field left, but this by education was made to yield such indications to the eager mind that after 14 months of endeavor the boy has very useful vision, can distinguish colors and forms and even can read.

There are possibly thousands of blind people who have renounced vision instead of cultivating it to a degree that would render the blind types useless.—American Medicine.

Apple Pie Order.

To feel in apple pie order is a phrase which dates back to Puritan times—to a certain Hepzibah Merton. It seems that every Saturday she was accustomed to bake two or three dozen apple pies, which were to last her family through the coming week. These she placed carefully on her pantry shelves, labeled for each day of the week, so that Tuesday's pies might not be confused with Thursday's nor those presumably large or intended for washing and sweeping days eaten when household labors were lighter. Aunt Hepzibah's "apple pie order" was known throughout the entire settlement and originated the well known saying.

A Financial Discussion.

Chronic Borrower—Can you lend me $20 for a few days?

Weary Friend—Why don't you pawn your watch?

"Because it is a keepsake from my dear mother, and I don't like to part with it."

"My money is a keepsake from my dear father, and I don't like to part with it, either."—Exchange.

THEIR PARTING.

"Our time is almost up," he said regretfully, as he looked rather gloomily across the wide subdued blue of ocean that stretched far away in front of them.

"Yes," she said, with a slight sigh, "only a few hours more and we shall be as far apart from each other as ever."

It was late in July, and they were sitting on the quiet little piazza of the admirable hotel to which they had drifted together a fortnight before. The water lapped on the beach at their feet and the sea gulls flattened their wings against the sky above them as if in full harmony with the beating of their own hearts. Two weeks together! And now they were to be separated, for no one knew how long. All romance must end some time.

"Tomorrow," she said, "you will go back to your work in town. You will attend those important directors' meetings that you have told me of. Then there are stocks to buy and sell, political friends to meet, campaigns to arrange and speeches to think over. Your horses, too, will claim your attention, and, of course, there is your club, and the dinners and all the other things for a man to do."

"And you," he said, half playfully, "you, too, will be busy. You have your life work, you know. There is the church with its round of social duties. There are the societies to which you belong, the papers you are to prepare, the charities you are interested in, and the literary events which claim you."

Yet there was a ray of hope that glistened in her woman's eye as she laid her hand on his arm.

"Never mind, dear," she said. "Some day we may learn better how to economize our time. Perhaps, when we have been married another seven years, we shall be able to see more of each other."—Life.

FIND BOGUS SODA FLAVORS.

The chemist and the prevention of sale of adulterated and impure food have put their rejected brand on another favorite beverage. Patrons of the soda fountain who have been taught to ask for lemon or vanilla flavoring, for the alleged reason that those syrups were less liable than others to adulteration, will be surprised at the assertion that there is no extract for which substitutes are more often used than vanilla. This is said on the authority of the Massachusetts board of health. The true vanilla bean costs from $12 to $16 per pound, and were there no substitute it could not be used so freely and so extensively as at present. Vanillin, the active property of the extract, can be made from other substances at a cost of about $2 per gallon. The artificial compound is chemically identical with the vanillin found in the true vanilla extract and therefore has come to be used extensively by manufacturers and dealers. It has been made for commercial purposes from turpentine, but more satisfactory results are obtained from oil of cloves or benzoic acid, and it is now extracted chiefly from these. It is considered harmless when taken in small quantities and has been found to posses certain medicinal properties. Experiments on frogs with large quantities have, however, caused spinal convulsions. There is some comfort for confirmed soda water drinkers, and a general warning for others, in the further statement by the Massachusetts authorities that the metallic contamination of the water used in a glass of soda is far more detrimental to health than any adulteration of the flavoring syrup.

MINISTER WU TO THE WOMEN.

The wise and facetious Minister Wu Ting-Fang made his appearance in a new role the other evening at a large gathering where both ladies and gentlemen were present, where he was the most conspicuous guest. He was asked to say a few words to the ladies, in response to a toast to them. He said: "When I see so many finely built women confronting me, and I am called upon to be the 'gallant' of the moment, what can I say but that I wish for that moment only I were not a Chinaman—I should like to be an American as I stand here, so that each one of you would appear as beautiful to me as you actually must be when seen through your countrymen's eyes. Alas! the slight difference in the formation of my orbs cannot do justice to the impression you make upon me, individually and jointly and severally. But there are some well-nourished figures and forms among you that really appear to be as fine as the best that my own fertile country has produced. And your intelligence and souls, I am told, which are hidden under your intricate fashionable apparel, are more beautiful even than your forms. May you all feel the depth and sincerity of my admiration, and may your youthful looks and honorable years always walk hand in hand."

No External Symptoms.

The blood may be in bad condition, yet with no external signs, no skin eruption or sores to indicate it. The symptoms in such cases being a variable appetite, poor digestion, an indescribable weakness and nervousness, loss of flesh and a general run-down condition of the system—clearly showing the blood has lost its nutritive qualities, has become thin and watery. It is in just such cases that S. S. S. has done some of its quickest and most effective work by building up the blood and supplying the elements lacking to make it strong and vigorous.

"My wife used several bottles of S. S. S. as a blood purifier and to tone up a weak and emaciated system, with very marked effect by way of improvement.

"We regard it a great tonic and blood purifier."—J. F. DUFF, Princeton, Mo.

SSS is the greatest of all tonics, and you will find the appetite improves at once, strength returns, and nervousness vanishes as new rich pure blood once more circulates through all parts of the system.

S. S. S. is the only purely vegetable blood purifier known. It contains no minerals whatever. Send for our free book on blood and skin diseases and write our physicians for any information or advice wanted. No charge for medical advice.

There was a nice crowd out yesterday to see the last but one Sunday game of the season. The Toledoes will come next Sunday and that will wind it up for the year so far as Sunday games are concerned. Yesterday a crowd estimated anywhere from 1,200 to 1,500 turned out to see what was only a fair game and one which resulted in the defeat of Fort Wayne by a score of 7 to 4. The locals made a splendid rally in the ninth inning and managed to gather in three runs, but the goose had been cooked before that time and there was nothing doing in the way of winning the game. Mullin pitched for the locals and he was hit hard in only one inning, but that was enough: three singles, a double-header and a gentle bump good for three cushions were plenty to get in four runs, and that was nearly enough to win the game. Besides the hits made in that inning, Mullin allowed himself to be touched only four times. Kenna was very effective and held the locals down to seven hits, most of which were so scattered as to prove ineffective. The club left this morning for Toledo, where three games will be played, after which they go to Marion for three games. Then they back-track once more and some home for three games with Toledo and three with Marion, and then go abroad to close the season. By losing yesterday's game Fort Wayne again dropped into fourth place, but is only two points behind Dayton, and Toledo is only six points behind the leaders. Following is the score of yesterday's game:

THE GAME SATURDAY.

Saturday's game was a rather peculiar one in that Fort Wayne won it twice. Ehret and Pfeister were the opposing pitchers for eight innings and the game was a very pretty one, with the score at the opening of the ninth at 3 to 1. It did not look as though there was going to be much doing and quite a number of people left the grounds, thinking that it was practically all over anyway. In the ninth the rough riders from West Virginia commenced doing business and before they could be stopped four of them had trekked around the veldt. The score of 5 to 3 then looked like a tough proposition, but "Doggie's" men buckled themselves together and made the necessary three runs, in which they were aided and abetted by the wildness of the Wheeling pitchers. Following is the score by innings and the summary:

M'GRAW TO PLAY NO MORE.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 26.—Manager John J. McGraw, of the Baltimore American league team, announces that he has played his last game of base ball. He will retain his interest in the Baltimore team and manage it from the bench. At present McGraw is in bed with his broken knee in a plaster cast. His doctor says he will not be able to play again this year. McGraw gives no definite reason for his retirement. He has a good paying business here and is a heavy stockholder in the local club.

SHAMROCKS DEFEAT MUNCIE.

After winning five straight games, the last three of which were shutouts, Muncie went down to defeat before the Shamrocks yesterday afternoon in a brilliantly played game. Hicks and Mahan were in the points for the Shamrocks and their work was fast. Hicks pitched great ball, the Magic City team being unable to solve his delivery. He helped to win his game by lining out three safe hits. Romary's one-handed catch in left field and his throw to the plate, cutting off a runner, were features of the game. Every man on the Shamrock team hit hard and put up a fast game. The crowd was large, being double that of a month ago when the Shamrocks played there. The score:

	R.	H.	E
Shamrocks	6	14	1
Muncie	2	5	2

Batteries—Hicks and Mahan; Zook and Henderson.

BUNT HITS.

McLaughlin is back on the umpire staff again until a new man can be secured.

The Shamrocks will play at Pierceton, Ind., tomorrow, leaving over the Pittsburg at 12:15.

Lefty Houtz, who was given a trial by Fort Wayne early in the season, is playing with the Wapakoneta, Ohio, team.

Fort Wayne has made a decided gain in batting this week, having jumped five points. The team percentage is now .264.

Columbus is after Shugart, expelled from the American league by Ban Johnson, but nothing definite has been heard from the Chicago rowdy.

Shortstop Groeschow has been released by Columbus and Outfielder Scott Hardesty, released by Fort Wayne, has been appointed to the infield position.

The Blues defeated the South Whitley team at that town yesterday by a score of 12 to 6 for the second time this season. Batteries—Smith and Hollinger; Sparks and Sholtz.

The Library hall base ball team went to Payne, O., yesterday, and was defeated by a score of 9 to 4. Batteries—For Payne, Taylor and Welden; Library hall, Belcher and McCoy.

Mr. Pardee, of Toledo, was bumped strenuously again yesterday. Mr. Pardee is a good pitcher, but there are others. McPherson pitched both games for Marion at the Stogie city yesterday, winning one and losing the other.

Ex-Umpire France, who is playing third base for Marion, is a vaudeville actor. He plays ball in the summer and "trends the boards" in the winter. France says the job of umpiring is the most thankless on earth and he wouldn't do it again for any money.

THE MARKETS.

Chicago, Aug. 26.—Firm cables caused wheat to open steady today. September started unchanged to ⅛c higher at 70⅛c to 70¼c. There was practically no demand during early hours and under liberal northwest receipts the market broke to 69⅝c. Minneapolis and Duluth reported 787 cars, against 669 last week and 727 cars a year ago, while local receipts were 186 cars, with 21 of contract grade.

The market lacked support throughout and closed weak, ⅞c lower for September, at 69¼c.

Dullness also ruled in the corn pit during the early part of the session. September opened ⅛c lower to ⅛c higher at 54⅞c to 55⅛c. On favorable weather for the late crop and in sympathy with wheat September eased to 54⅛c. Local receipts were 343 cars, 15 of which were contract grade.

Liquidation continued to the end and September closed weak, 1⅝c lower, at 53⅜c.

Oats opened unchanged for September, but, with other grains, lost their steadiness and sold down to 33⅜@33⅛c for September. Receipts were 347 cars.

Provisions opened dull but firm on higher prices for hogs and light receipts. January pork opened 2½c higher at $15.57½; lard was unchanged at $8.82½, while ribs were 2½c higher at $8.00.

THE CLOSE.

Prices at the close were as follows:
Wheat—Aug., 69⅛c; Sept., 69¼c; Oct., 70c; Dec., 71⅝c; May, 75⅜c.
Corn—Aug., 53c; Sept., 53⅜c; Oct., 54c; Dec., 55⅜c; May, 57⅝@57⅞c.

THE DAY ON WALL STREET.

New York, Aug. 26.—Large blocks of the prominent stocks were dealt in at the opening. United States Steel, Manhattan and Rock Island rose about a point and Consolidated Gas 1½. Otherwise changes were fractional and quite uniform throughout the list.

The market was broad and dealings well distributed.

Traders took profits on the advance, but the general demand was enough to hold the market well in hand. Manhattan, Consolidated Gas and Rock Island lost a point, but other active stocks fell only slightly and hardened again. There were good advances meanwhile in spots, especially for Ontario and Western, Erie second preferred, Norfolk and Western, Colorado Southern first prefered and other low-priced stocks.

At 11 o'clock the market was lower all around on pressure against Atchison, St. Paul and Union Pacific.

The market became quieter on the decline, in which Amalgamated Copper, Atchison, Baltimore and Ohio, St. Paul, Missouri Pacific and Union Pacific lost about a point each.

Shorts covered at the lower level and the market gradually improved and became active. The leading stocks, however, did not recover to their best prices.

Prices moved upwards with increasing momentum, led by Southern Pacific, which rose 1¼, the Eries, the other Pacific and Southern Railroads responding.

There were advances of a point also in St. Louis and San Francisco and Lake Erie and Western. The Republic Steel stocks were heavy.

Speculation became rather dull after 1 o'clock, but prices held well for a time, the demand about offsetting profit-taking sales by the room traders. North American advanced 3¾. Amalgamated Copper and the grain carrying roads became heavy later and the entire market weakened. St. Paul, Atchison and Union Pacific fell below last week's close.

The torpid demand for stocks invited an attack by the professional bears and the average level of prices was forced considerably under Saturday's closing. The reaction from the best reached for Amalgamated Copper 2¾, Erie second preferred 2, St. Paul and People's Gas 1¾, and other leading railroads and specialties 1 to 1¼. Prices rebounded rather easily on light takings. Amalgamated Copper, St. Paul, Atchison and Union Pacific rallied a point. Southern Pacific got back to the best former price and United States Steel rose ½ over Saturday. The specialties were not fully sold and the closing was irregular.

Bonds were firm.

NEW YORK MARKETS.

SHOP AND RAIL

TRACKLAYING ON NEW HAVEN-BUTLER LINE COMMENCED.

PREPARING FOR CARNIVAL

RAILWAY EXPECTS 5,000 PEOPLE VENETIAN NIGHT.

TWO MEN KILLED BY TRAIN

WERE STRUCK ON A CROSSING AT COLUMBIA CITY.

The work of laying track on the New Haven-Butler road was commenced last week, but owing to the failure to send the splicing plates with the rails, the work was suspended after about 100 feet of rails were put down. The connection with the main line has been made and the crossing with the Nickel Plate is completed and as soon as the several small gaps in the line have been closed by the graders the ties and rails will be laid to the river in short order The end abutments of the bridge crossing the Maumee river have been completed and tomorrow evening will witness the completion of the middle pier. The end abutments were constructed of concrete in their entirety, but the middle pier is being constructed of concrete and Bedford stone. Labor and teams are more plentiful than they were during the harvest season and grading is being rapidly pushed along. Trains will be running over the new line in November if there is no serious trouble in getting steel.

HEAVY WESTBOUND TRAVEL.

A feature of the passenger business of the past two days was the preponderance of the westbound over the eastbound movement. This was particularly noticeable on the Nickel Plate Saturday night. Train No. 3, due here at 4:35 p. m., came in in two sections, there being twelve cars. Three of them were loaded with German emigrants, en route to the northwest. The bulk of the remaining travel was returning Pan-American visitors. The train was consolidated here and taken to Chicago by one engine. No. 5 yesterday morning was compelled to divide here and make the balance of its journey in two sections. Three coaches and a baggage car were added here to accommodate the heavy business.

VENETIAN NIGHT.

The cottagers' committee and the railway officials have reason to believe that over 5,000 Fort Wayne people will look upon the magnificent fireworks display and carnival at Rome City next Thursday evening. Ample provision in the way of transportation has been arranged for and accommodations for 10,000 spectators, if needs be, will be made at the lake. A limited number will be allowed to view the display from the car windows, it having been arranged to line the cars up on the main track on the lake front during the progress of the display. But only a small portion of the crowd can be thus accommodated and the main body of spectators will be located on the shore of the lake. The Sentinel would urge upon prospective attendants the necessity for going to the resort early. Take the first or second trains if possible and leave the later ones for those who cannot leave home or business early in the afternoon. There will be ample train service, but if the crowd is evenly distributed between the five or six trains, the railway company will be able to handle it better than if all want to go to the resort at the last hour. The first train leaves at 3 o'clock and the last one at 6:45 Thursday evening.

IRISH DAY WILL DRAW CROWD.

Irish day celebration will draw the largest crowd to New Haven tomorrow afternoon and evening that pretty little town has seen for many a day. Information received by Col. R. G. Thompson leads that gentleman to believe the crowd will reach the thousand mark, providing the weather is fair. The majority of the picknickers will go to the grove via the Wabash train, but there will also be many bicyclists there, and parties of this kind ... already being arranged.

SUNDAY'S EXCURSIONS.

Rome City was the most attractive of the several excursion points open to Fort Wayne people yesterday, though all received a fair patronage. There were 608 tickets sold by the Grand Rapids to Rome City, 206 by the Lake Erie and Western to Indianapolis, seventy-five by the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western to Cedar Point, and 339 to Toledo and Detroit, and twenty-four to Put-in-Bay by the Wabash. Incoming the Wabash and the Lake Erie were a tie on the number of excursionists, each bringing in 398. While the sales to Cedar Point were not so great in Fort Wayne, the Findlay's excursion was a success. The party numbered 300 people when it reached the resort.

KNIGHTS TEMPLAR'S TRAIN.

Knights Templar travel to Louisville over the Grand Rapids and Indiana and the Pennsylvania roads was fully up to expectations. The special train assigned to the knights arrived here from the north with sixty-five Pullman passengers last night. Forty-five passengers were added to the party at this place and at Decatur a Pullman car loaded with Bluffton and Decatur knights was picked up and it is estimated that in all there were 135 passengers on the train. The run to Indianapolis was made without any accident or unpleasant incident.

HARAHAN DENIES STORY.

New York, Aug. 26.—James T. Harahan, second vice president of the Illinois Central railroad, who returned from Europe on Saturday, denies the report that the presidency of the Southern Pacific has been offered to him. While in Europe he completed a working arrangement between the Radcliffe line of steamers and the Illinois Central to run steamers between New Orleans and Rotterdam with a guarantee of rates and trade. The working arrangement will go in effect in September 15. The Radcliffe line has twelve good steamers. This new arrangement will facilitate the shipment of cotton to foreign ports.

TWO MEN KILLED.

A buggy containing Elmer Shirley, Jesse Werden and Arthur Fryhover was struck by Pennsylvania passenger train No. 24 at the first crossing east of the station in Columbia City last Saturday night. Shirley was instanly killed and Werden was so badly injured that he died three hours later. Fryhover was only slightly injured. The train does not stop at that station and was running at the usual speed when the collision occurred. The pilot struck the rear wheel of the vehicle and Shirley and Werden were tossed a considerable distance and sustained their injuries more from the fall than through compact with the engine. Fryhover, who was driving, was simply thrown aside, out of reach of the train, and the horse escaped without a scratch, carrying the shafts and front portion of the vehicle with him. One of the rear wheels remained on the pilot and was brought to this city, where its presence was the first intimation given the engineer and fireman that an accident had occurred. Neither of them saw the buggy on the crossing. The usual warning of the approach of the train was given, but the men in the buggy evidently thought they could get over in safety. Conductor George Bonter, who had charge of the train, and Engineer Herman A. Durnell and Fireman Thomas Kelty, who were in the cab of the engine, went to Columbia City this morning to attend the coroner's inquest. All the occupants of the buggy were young men and only one, Shirley, was married.

THOMAS REFUSES TO TALK.

New York, Aug. 26.—Inquiry was made of E. B. Thomas, chairman of the Erie board of directors, today, as to a report from Indianapolis that the absorption was imminent of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton and the Indianapolis, Decatur and Western railroads by the Erie. Chairman Thomas declined to talk concerning the report. The supposition has held for some time that the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton was destined for absorption or combination with another system. Gossip at one time pointed to the Chicago, Indianapolis and Louisville as the absorbing road, but rumors of the Erie plan have been current for some times and Erie stocks have been in large demand on the stock exchange for several days There is reason to believe that the accounts of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton and the Indianapolis, Decatur and Western are under investigation on behalf of the Erie.

Cincinnati, Aug. 26.—President Woodford, of the Cincinnati, Hamilton and Dayton railroad, is at present in Michigan. General Passenger Traffic Manager Edwards pronounced the report unfounded and declared no negotiations for the sale of the road have been made. He attributes the revival of the rumor to the recent inspection visit of President Underwood to Indianapolis and Cincinnati, where the Erie leases terminals.

WILL TURN OUT IN UNIFORM.

One of the first labor organizations to give notice to the committee having charge of the Labor day celebration of an intention to participate in the grand parade was the local lodge of the Brotherhood of Railway Trainmen, No. 136. This brotherhood will meet at its hall, each member wearing full uniform, form in line and participate over 100 strong in the parade, providing there are that many men in off the road on that day.

CHANGE AT HUNTINGTON.

The Wabash officials have found it expedient to make two offices at Huntington where only one existed. M. F. Hargrove, of Andrews, has been transferred from that city to Huntington and given charge of the ticket office, and O. W. Lake, who held the agency of both the freight and passenger departments, will hereafter have charge of only the freight. The business of the two offices was more than one man could handle satisfactorily.

INDUSTRIAL NOTES.

Nickel Plate Fireman Bisel is taking a few days' lay-off for recreation.

T. W. Bauer, of the electric works, is off duty on account of the sickness of his wife.

A. T. West, a Pennsylvania operator, has resumed his "trick" after a ten days' vacation.

Brakeman C. Caskins, of the Pittsburg, resumed work yesterday after a ten days' vacation.

Cashier A. E. Stapleford, of the Nickel Plate, and his wife were guests of friends in Cleveland over Sunday.

Nickel Plate Conductor George Harper was taken sick here Saturday and had to return to his home in Bellevue.

Road Foreman Ed McDonald, of the Chicago division of the Panhandle, spent Sunday with his family in this city.

Harry Russell and John Miller, Nickel Plate trainmen, were visiting yesterday in the vicinity of Claypool, Ind.

C. M. Tindall, Nickel Plate brakeman, has returned to his work on the road after a few days' visit to his farm in Ohio.

Nickel Plate Conductor Fred Deahl has been looking after private business a few days and took a layoff for that purpose.

Nickel Plate Brakeman A. F. Young has secured a fifteen days' leave of absence to attend the Pan-American exposition.

J. Beyerline, who had a hand injured some time ago, was able to resume his duties at the Tobey glove factory this morning.

Nickel Plate Fireman W. McCarthy is sick, being afflicted with a malady which is said to be chargable to excessive smoking.

Mr. and Mrs. F. Walpole left Saturday night for Buffalo and the Pan-American exposition. Mr. Walpole is a Nickel Plate car repairer.

Thomas Murphy, an extra switchman, is working in the Nickel Plate yards in place of George Transau, who is visiting his old home in New York.

General Passenger Agent F. R. Garrison, of the Findlay, Fort Wayne and Western road, was in the city over night, leaving for his home this morning.

Col. R. G. Thompson, of the Wabash, returned from New York Saturday night. He was east several days in the interest of the passenger department.

William Sherbondy, who has charge of the electric department of the Pennsylvania, has returned to his duties after a week's vacation spent at Rome City.

Engineer Al Baer and Fireman John Brennankamp are off duty, the former for a rest and the later on account of sickness. Both are Nickel Plate employes.

George Sunley, a Pennsylvania switchman, is sick and off duty.

Fred Meyers, of Rhinesmith & Simonsons lumber yards, is sick and off duty.

Yard Conductor Ross Gardner is taking a lay off for the purpose of doing some fishing at Rome City.

C. J. Mills, air brake inspector in the Pittsburg roundhouse, has recovered from a couple of boils and this morning resumed work after a two weeks' absence.

Engineer Samuel Kelker is out on Herman Durrell's run, 21 and 24, on the Pittsburg today, while the latter is attending a coroner's inquest at Columbia City.

A. Wefel, tinner at the Pittsburg shops, Mrs. Wefel and their two daughters left on the noon train for Buffalo, expecting to spend a week at the exposition.

The family of Assistant Foreman J. T. Leach, of the Pittsburg boiler shop, is at Rome City for a week's stay. Mr. Leach makes occasional visits to the resort.

Yard Conductor William Westrop and Yard Brakeman Wallace Kress resumed work at the Pittsburg yards this morning, after an absence of three or four weeks.

Chester Pearson, engine crew caller at the Pittsburg roundhouse, has gone to Chicago to spend a vacation and during his absence J. Harnishfeger will call the crews.

J. C. Klingenberger, foreman of tab builders, and H. Horstman, a car builder at the Pittsburg shops, with their wives, are in Chicago to attend the funeral of a relative.

Conductor Charles LaPoint resumed his train duties on the Nickel Plate yesterday. He was attending the Pan-American exposition and later visiting relatives in Michigan.

Louis Kinnaird, assistant master mechanic of the Allegheny shops of the Pennsylvania, and Robert Sears, a draftsman from the same shops, were in the city yesterday, the guests of relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Hill have returned from a pleasant visit in New York. Their pleasure trip included a vide down the Hudson. Mr. Hill is signal supervisor of the Pennsylvania and he resumed that duty this morning.

J. C. Millspaugh, a traveling passenger agent of the Pennsylvania, has changed his headquarters from Decatur to Terre Haute, succeeding C. M. Wheeler, who has been appointed city passenger agent at Indianapolis.

A large and strong hoist for loading boilers, pulleys and heavy castings is being erected at the Bass works. The old hoist was not high enough to accommodate some of the big pieces that are being loaded there almost daily.

Nickel Plate Fireman W. H. Bell has been off duty a few days with a sore eye. A cinder got in the optic and refused to be removed by ordinary methods. Dr. J. M. Dinnen was called upon and soon took the cinder out.

A correspondent of The Sentinel sends in the following: "D. H. Monahan, the popular Pittsburg fireman, left Saturday for Chicago, to spend a few days with his best girl. Mr. Monahan will become a Benedict some time in October."

A. L. Blake, O. P. Reese and Randolph Breeze, of the engineering department of the Pittsburg, are taking their vacations. Mr. Blake has gone to New York. Mr. Reese to Louisville and Mr. Breeze to Bellefountaine, Pa., to visit relatives.

William Vulkening, of the Bass blacksmith shops, returned from Germany yesterday after a ten week's absence. He will report for work in the shops tomorrow. Mr. Vulkening has been employed in the Bass shops for fourteen years.

Charles Lyons, night yardmaster, and Charles Haenel, night clerk, at the Nickel Plate yards, left last night for Buffalo, where they will spend six or eight days. G. L. Louthan is acting as night yardmaster during the absence of Messrs. Lyons and Haenel.

Dr. J. B. Blickensderfer, who went to Cadillac last week to look for a house, was successful in the search and he will take his family with him when he goes to that city to assume the duties of the office to which he was appointed last week. Dr. Blickensderfer's successor here has not been named.

The Panhandle athletic tournament at Columbus, O., Saturday attracted thousands of people from all points on the Panhandle lines. Messrs. Ferguson, of Terre Haute, and Burge, of LeRoy, who figured conspicuously in the tournament on August 10, also took active part in the Panhandle affair and each won prizes.

Jack Baillie, of the Wabash blacksmith shop, is sick and off duty.

Warren Carpenter, fireman at the electric works, is off duty on account of sickness.

J. H. Berning, of the Pittsburg machine shop, is spending a week at Rome City.

Engineer James McMullen and his family have gone to Boston for a visit with relatives.

Ed Kaiser, Pennsylvania engineer, has gone to Columbia City to visit his brother, Conrad Kaiser.

Otto Schlink, an apprentice in the Pittsburg copper shop, is in Chicago to visit friends for a week.

William Baughman and Charles Geoglein, of the electric works, are on duty again, after a few days' illness.

Passenger Engineer J. A. Keplinger resumed his duties on the Pittsburg today. He had been sick a week.

Thomas Hetzner, a machinist at the Wabash shops, is on duty again after an absence of two weeks on account of sickness.

Supt. E. A. Gould and Bridge Superintendent W. S. Danes, of the Wabash, were in the city today, looking after railway business.

Fred Rehling, the Wabash boilermaker who was injured by a fall in getting off a street car, has recovered and this morning resumed his duties at the shop.

Secretary J. W. Burns, of the R. R. Y. M. C. A., conducted an interesting meeting at Simpson church last evening, the attendance being chiefly railroad men.

Martin Hobrock and George Koorsen, of the Pittsburg machine shop, are off duty, the former to spend a week at Rome City and the latter to visit friends in Chicago a few days.

Frank Aiken, at the head of the local weighing and inspecting bureau, has taken a lay off for a month in the hope the rest will bring good health. He has been ailing for the past two months.

Detective Thomas Wilkinson, of the Nickel Plate, went to Michigan City this morning to attend a damage suit, in which the Nickel Plate is the defendant. The plaintiff was struck by a train at Hubert a year ago and sustained some alleged injuries.

Engineers John Bechtol, C. C. Adams, E. Jamey, W. Kuhoe, W. H. Polhamus and G. W. Kensill are sick and Engineers C. J. Pearson, Harry Strasser and Max Horning and Fireman A. Heist are off duty for personal business. All are Pittsburg employes.

Patrick Scully, C. H. Smith, P. Dierstein, S. G. Miller, A. Kruckeberg, M. Polsin and Charles Ostemeyer, Pittsburg shopmen, failed to report for duty this morning and it is believed that some of them are sick. H. Burlage and H. Mathewson, of the same shops, are off duty to look after private business.

John R. Kretsinger and William Wehrs, foreman and assistant foreman, respectively, of the Pittsburg planing mills, are out of the city today and Charles Krommiller is acting as foreman of that establishment. Mr. Kretsinger is attending the funeral of his brother-in-law in Lafayette and Mr. Wehrs is looking after some private business in Columbia City.

M. Monkhouse, for the past two years superintendent of motive power of the Monon at Lafayette, has tendered his resignation to President McDoel, to take effect Sept. 1. Mr. Monkhouse has accepted a more remunerative position with a large eastern concern. His successor will be John Gill, now master mechanic of the Rock Island at Trenton, Mo.

The magnificent passenger locomotive, No. 605, recently repaired and turned out of the Wabash shops, will be back there tonight to go through some extensive repairs again. Yesterday, at the Tilton yards, this engine and switch engine 373 were in a collision and both were considerably damaged. Engine 69, which was badly damaged in a wreck, came to the shops this morning for repairs.

The retirement of Charles M. Hays from the presidency of the Southern Pacific railroad will be followed by numerous other changes on the system. Some of the high-salaried agents are to be dispensed with, it is said, and Southern and Union Pacific officers are to be consolidated wherever practicable. A yearly saving of several hundreds of thousands of dollars, it is estimated, can be had by such consolidations.

A valuable work, entitled "Standard Examination Questions and Answers on the Air Brake, Formulated by the Air Brake Association at the Eighth Annual Convention at Chicago, May, 1901," is being distributed among Pennsylvania enginemen by Road Foreman C. R. Colmey. This book contains about all there is to the air brake question and the man who can answer all the questions propounded therein will have no trouble passing the examinations now required of all railway men.

The Passing of Summer

On every hand throughout the store are reminders that summer is passing. There are tempting prices on all warm weather merchandise that ought to clear it out quickly. Fall fabrics are already seeking the notice of those who find it best to make their selections early.

Black Dress Goods

A SPLENDID SHOWING.

All sorts of stylish black Dress Goods are making their first appearance here. Our showing of desirable black dress fabrics is without exception the best we have ever made. Wise buyers will appreciate this opportunity to make early selections. The stock shows unusual values in Black Cheviots, Black Serges, Black Mohairs, Black Melrose, Black Whipcords, Black Armure, Black Venetians. Black Sicilians, Black Prunells, Black Granite Black Satin Solid, Blacks, Broadcloths, and Many Other Stylish Weaves and Fabrics.

We Have a Few More Suits

To sell at prices that are but a fraction of their real value. Take advantage of this chance to buy a stylish tailor-made suit for early fall wear. Suits that are right in every particular except the price—that in some instances is less than the value of the cloth, to say nothing of the making.

AN ERROR CORRECTED.

A rumor gained circulation today to the effect that the Grand Rapids and Indiana road had declined carry paraphernalia for the Venetian night to Rome City, and that the event was likely to be abandoned. This is entirely wrong, and preparations are going forward upon an extensive scale. Those who desire to go to Rome City Thursday on the morning train can make arrangements to do so by applying at the office of M. L. Jon.s, 12 West Wayne street.

Careful weighing, it is said, shows that an ordinary bee, not loaded, weighs the five-thousandth part of a pound, so that it takes 5,000 bees to make a pound. But the loaded bee, when it comes in fresh from the field and flowers, freighted with honey, often weighs nearly three times more.

ABOUT THE CITY HALL.

Tonight the city council committee on finance will meet at the city hall to determine upon a final report on the several matters referred to them. The bone of contention is the appropriation for the payment of a total of $2,600 to the Lake Shore road for damages awarded by the Adams county court for the opening of Fourth street. Bloomingdale people will be present in force to present their claims for the perpetuation of the crossing. There are still several members who are more or less obdurate, but it is believed that an amicable adjustment will be made and that the appropriation will be recommended. In case of a failure of the committee to recommend the appropriation it is believed that there will be sufficient influences brought to bear to adopt the minority report if one is offered to the council.

New cases of scarlet fever have been reported at 67 Barthold street and one at 322 Broadway.

The board of works is meeting in regular session this afternoon. Nothing aside from usual routine work is up for consideration.

WAYNE TOWNSHIP TEACHERS.

Township Trustee Schirmeyer has selected his staff of teachers to preside over the Wayne township schools outside of the city during the next school year. They are as follows:

No. 1—D. W. Baird.
No. 2—Miss Reed.
No. 3—Charles Methley and Miss Shives.
No. 4—George J. Murphy.
No. 5—Miss Glass.
No. 7—A. A. Ringwalt.
No. 8—Samuel J. Brubaker.

The schools will open two weeks from today on the 9th of September and on Saturday, the 7th, the first township institute will be held. In the above list no teacher is assigned to school No. 6 for the reason that that district has been taken into the city, and is supplied from Professor Study's appointments.

The first patent medicine, it is asserted, ever put up for sale in America was a proposed cure for consumption. It was called "Tuscarora Rice," and was compounded and sold by a Mrs. Masters, who erected a large establishment for its manufacture in New Jersey about 1711.

The whole island of New York was originally bought from the Indians for an equivalent of about $25. Today New York has a population of about 3,500,000, which is exceeded by only one other city—London. Its wealth is enormous; its annual expenditures are more than twice those of the republic of Mexico, and almost one-third as much as those of the German empire with its population of 52,000,000. And it has become the financial center of the world.
